Mayor Jones Retires; Coun. Stevens Will Run.

Owing to the illness of his wife and the not too satisfactory condition of his own health, Mayor Jones has decided not to seek a second term. Coun. H. D. Stevens, for the past two years chairman of the Finance Committee, will be a candidate for the chair, having acceded to the wish of a large number of ratepayers. Mayor Jones has handed us a letter of which the following is a copy:—

To the Electors of the town of Woodstock:—

The undersigned begs to state that owing to the fact that there is sickness in his home he will be unable to offer his services as mayor for another year, and will therefore decline a re-nomination. He also wishes to thank the citizens for the confidence and honor given him as evidenced by the many successful contests in which he has participated.

A. E. JONES.

Mayor Jones would no doubt have been an easy winner had he decided to run again, in fact there would probably have been no opposition. He has been a good mayor, and in all his experience at the board was always on the side of economy. Coun. Stevens has furnished us with the following announcement:—

To the Electors of the town of Woodstock. Ladies and Gentlemen:—

I have been solicited to offer myself as a candidate for the office of mayor for the ensuing year. After the announcement of the withdrawal of the present incumbent and after due consideration I have decided to meet the wishes of my friends and would say that if my record at the board during the past two years has been such as commends itself to the electorate I shall be glad to receive a renewal of the same generous and kindly support that was given me in the past. I feel that my course at the board has been actuated by good motives, and if honored with election to the chair I pledge myself to act without fear, favor or affection. Soliciting the good will and support of the electors

I am
Yours truly
H. D. STEVEN S.

F. M. Burt of Jacksonville was in the woods last week cutting cordwood. He says the sap ran as freely as in spring. The like has never been known at this time of year.

That Labor Dispute.

The St John Telegraph is certainly a bold and aggressive sheet. It is not afraid to take what to some might appear the unpopular side in order to vindicate a principle or uphold the cause of right. As an instance we might cite the case of the labor dispute at the Winter Port. The longshoremen refused to work for 30 cents an hour, demanding 35, a higher rate than is paid at any important seaport. The Telegraph championed the shipowners, who refused to be held up. If ever a contemptible act is done it is when laborers find their employers in a hole, strike for higher pay. A hiring should never dictate to his employers. If the St John laborers do not care to work for the price the employers are willing to pay, they should go at some other business. Unions have caused more real hardship and waste than they have done good to countenance.

Band Benefit Concert.

One of the largest audiences of the season greeted the 67th Regt Band and their assistants at the concert held in the Opera Monday evening. About every reserved seat was sold, and the settlers were comfortably filled as well. The program was as follows:—

Selection.....67th Regt Band
Chorus.....Glee Club
Clarinet solo.....R Wollard
Solo.....Harry Dunbar
Reading.....B M Macleod
Solo.....Mrs Tilley Brewer
Selection.....67th Regt Band

INTERMISSION.

Reading.....Mrs Geo A Ross
Solo.....D W Matheson
Overture.....67th Regt Band
Solo.....Mrs R E Holyoke
Chorus.....Glee Club
March.....67th Regt Band
National Anthem.

The Glee Club under the leadership of Prof J Albert Read made its first appearance. The members are A O Burden, Geo Daubar, Harry Dunbar, Walter Stone, Chas Ryder, Lester Hull, Frank McLardy, Harold Waite, Don Nicholson and Dr Ross Currie. Their rendering of "The Old Oaken Bucket" was a regular housewarmer. The piano used was a Mason & Risch from the war-rooms of J D Allen, St John. Mrs B Griffiths and Mrs N F Thorne were the accompanists.

Banish the Scott Act Detective.

The record of the courts has established in the minds of the people the stern conviction that in nine cases out of ten the Scott Act "detective" is a man (?) too lazy to earn his living by honest work,—a liar and perjurer who will not scruple to get in his nefarious evidence at so much per conviction. No person really in his heart wants the liquor trade to flourish, but can the people be blamed if they refuse to believe the evidence of a wretch who for a paltry consideration will swear against a reputable citizen? A "detective" who will admit under oath that he is a frequenter of disorderly houses and is a habitual user of strong drink, frequently getting drunk, and contradicting himself on the stand, is a cursed poor specimen of a man.

Should Be Better Posted.

The scholarly editor of the Halifax Chronicle who a few weeks ago was publishing learned editorial reasons (?) why the G. T. P. should not come down the Valley displayed considerable lack of knowledge at the time, but some of his recent utterances are about as bad. Speaking of the victory achieved by Mr. Fred P Pardee in West Lambton he says:—"Although Mr. Pardee was a new man in politics he has won a signal victory against heavy odds." This will be news to Mr Pardee, the "new man in politics" who had already contested the riding four times for the legislature, on the first two of which occasions he was successful. Upper province editors as a rule "don't know beans" about maritime men or affairs, so we may excuse our Nova Scotian friend for the lapse. What we need in Canada is a greater knowledge of men and affairs in all the provinces.

Mr. Caldwell Departs.

Robert Caldwell left here Saturday morning for Boston after a visit of some months. He will stay a while at the Hub and then go to Woodville N H for a few weeks, after which he will follow his usual custom and go South for the winter, probably to Mexico. Mr Caldwell is beloved here by all, and retains a warm interest in his native town. He owns considerable property here, and largely increased his holdings during his latest visit.

Police Court.

On Monday Inspector Colpitts secured convictions against a local hotel and a grocery for violation of the Scott Act. The star witness was a young fellow from Maine named Belyea, who seemed to be either densely stupid and ignorant or else a professional pro-convictor at so much per conviction. The defendants went on the stand and contradicted the spy in toto, but admitted other violations.

Rev. Mr. Squires in Town.

On Sunday the Methodist pulpit was occupied by Rev. Mr. Squires of Andover. The reverend gentleman is a young Newfoundlander of culture and ability, a graduate of Sackville and Harvard. Large congregations listened to his sermons with marked pleasure. Rev. Mr. Squires has been stationed at Andover since June. Culture, scholarship and natural ability are clearly indicated in his preaching. Those who were so fortunate as to hear his masterly expostitions of the scripture hope for an early opportunity to again listen to his pulpit utterances.

Another Grand, Glorious Good Time.

Elder Kersey of the A M E church announces another popular lecture in the A M E edifice on Tuesday evening next at eight o'clock. The venerable elder has not yet selected his topic, but will do so at an early date so as to ensure careful preparation and handling. There will be opportunity for other speakers, of whom several well-known as orators of the first water have already been approached. The chair will be occupied by a distinguished citizen. Licentiate McIntyre, Judge Wice and other prominent church members will be present. All are invited; all are welcome. A silver collection will be taken. Those who attended the last lecture will undoubtedly strain a point in order to be present on Tuesday night. Several candidates for the council are expected to attend and occupy seats on the platform.

"Higher Criticism"; a Bible Class.

I read with much interest an article that appeared in the columns of THE CARLETON SENTINEL not long since in reference to the Higher Criticism in which article it was suggested that much good might result from a series of public debates on this vital question; conducted by local clergymen or other competent persons. For my part I have never known much good to result from such debates but for more than a year I have been engaged in the preparation of a series of lessons for my Bible class which treats of many phases of this great question. The first lesson in the series was given in the auditorium of the Main Street United Baptist Church on the afternoon of Sunday last at 2.45, there being about 80 persons in the class. This class meets at 2.45 on Sunday afternoon and all persons in the town who are interested in this vital question are invited to the class and to take part in the discussion. The following will be the subjects to be taken up and discussed:—

- I.—Creation versus Evolution.
- II.—Errors of Evolution.
- III.—Darwinism.
- IV.—The Higher Criticism.
- V.—Geological Evolution.
- VI.—The Science of World making.
- VII.—Archaeology.
- VIII.—Egypt and its History.
- IX.—Prophecy and its fulfillment.
- X.—Christianity and Science.
- XI.—The Book, its authorship. Inspiration of Scientific accuracy of infidel testimony concerning it, supported by history, &c.

Most sincerely yours,
F. ALLISON CURRIE.

A Surveying Party.

On Sunday a crew of surveyors, sixteen in all stopped at the Carlisle Hotel. They were on their way to Plaster Rock to work on the survey of the Central Route. In the party were two New Brunswick men, two from P. E. I. and twelve Nova Scotians of whom six came from Antigonish, the home of Colin McIsaac. They were big strong-looking chaps, nearly all hearty and hardy Scotsmen. One of the party, a big brawny chap whose descendants came from the land of cakes, happens to be a cousin of Chisholm, the recently elected M. P. for Antigonish. He said his relative had secured the job for him. To use his own not altogether appreciative words "I suppose he thinks he did me a devil of a favor sending me away back in the woods at $40 a month and my grub."

NOW.

Dear Readers, December is our Harvest Month. The renewals for 1906 should be coming in thick and fast. Consult your label, or look up the last receipt you obtained. If you are one of those from whom we may reasonably expect a remittance, do not be backward in well-doing. "Be wise to-day; 'tis madness to defer".

SWEET MUSIC.

The Methodist Church choir did some good work on Sunday. The anthems were particularly good. Two young lady singers, both possessed of sweet voices, did excellently in solo work. We refer to Miss Jessie Davies and Miss Mayme Street. The congregation would like to hear them frequently.

A Useful Xmas Present.

At this season of the year when you wish to send your absent friend some token, why not do as your neighbor has done? Send a dollar to us for a year's subscription to some friend in the west, or nearer home if you will. You could not hit upon a better scheme or anything that would be more appreciated. Fifty-two presents,—not one—you will be giving. Don't delay. You know our address.

A New Squire.

Chas. D. Jordan, who until his recent superannuation went into effect was C. P. R. station agent here, has been appointed a justice of the peace, and will probably open an office, giving special attention to collections, conveyancing, etc.

In Town for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Tracey of Richmond, with Miss Tracey, have come to town for the winter, and are guests at the Carlisle.

JOTTINGS.

The A. M. E. district conference will be held here on Sunday.

John McGrath, a respected resident of Tapley's Mills was in town on Tuesday and called at this office.

Organizers and Secretaries of lodges throughout the county are invited to send lists of officers for publication in this paper.

Miss Maude Steeves who has been in Boston for some months underwent a surgical operation last week in the Homeopathic Hospital and is expected home soon.

Residents of the town near the corner of Elm and Main Streets complain that the light at that corner is no good. They desire the chairman of the Light Committee to look into the matter.

THE CARLETON SENTINEL, New Brunswick's oldest newspaper, is a valuable advertising medium. Guaranteed circulation 2000 copies weekly. Subscription list open to inspection by advertisers at any time.

John F. Malaney of the Press attended the N B Press Association in Fredericton and was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Association. The annual meeting will be held in Fredericton during the session of the local legislature.

Rev A H Trafton has returned from St John and Norton where he was preaching for the past two months. He will care for the Royalton field during the winter. His son Licentiate P J Trafton, is in charge of the new congregation at Fort Fairfield, Me.

Enrique Mallory of Houlton was in town on Monday. In a few days he and his family will depart for Oregon. He will have charge of that state as manager for the Travelers Insurance Co, for which he has done a remarkably fine business in Maine.

Miss Estey of Waterville who went out as a missionary about two years ago to Korea under the auspices of the Methodist conference is now on her way home for a rest, her health having been somewhat injured. The doctors say that a short return to Canada will restore her to her former condition of good health.

The engagement is announced of John R C McCredie, formerly of this city, and Miss Alice Walker, of Kenora, Ontario. Mr McCredie is a son of the late Robert C McCredie, and a graduate in engineering of the U N B. For several years he has been filling a lucrative position in the employ of the C. P. R. in Northern Ontario, with his headquarters at Kenora. It is said that the wedding will take place early in the new year.—Fredericton Herald.

Chest Protector.

A good Chest Protector is one that is honestly made—there is a good reason for the use of everything in it—one that absorbs the perspiration and eliminates it without chilling the body—one that retains the heat of the body and keeps the outside chill and dampness at bay. This kind of chest protector reduces the risk of throat and lung trouble almost to a minimum. It is the only kind of chest protectors you can get here and doesn't cost much either.
