ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

COUNTY COURT.

The county court met on Tuesday at Upper Woodstock. His Honor Judge Carleton occupied the bench and Mr. T. C. L. Ketchum was present as official reporter. The baristers included Hon. W. P. Jones K. O., F. B. Carvell, M. P., A. B. Connell K. C., D. McLeod Vince and J. Chipman Hartley. The grand jurors who answered to their names were George E. Balmmain, John A. Lindsay, J. A. Burpee, Walter Treacartin, N. F. Thorne, W. A. McCormick, Ed. London, Miles McLean, Ellis Smith, Wm. Everett, B. Colpitts, W. B. Nicholson, J. J. Bull, H. N. Payson, John Donnelly, J. J. Hale, F. W. Boyer, W. Gibson, W. L. Carr, Neil McKinnon, Thos. L. Fewer and W. S. Skillen. Two criminal cases were entered, The King vs John Hanson for indecent assault and The King vs Humbolt Sharp for common assault. In the first of these the grand jury of which G. E. Balmmain was foreman, found a true bill, but as Hanson had out the palloff and made his way to the land of the free, the case could not be proceeded with. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

In the second case it appears that a dispute arose between Messrs. Sharp and Dugan on the one hand and a man by the name of Shute as to the ownership of part of the Sharp Orchard, so called. Shute's third man was working on the property in dispute. Dugan and Sharp arrived on the scene and ordered the man off. He also claims that Sharp hit him with a whip. The grand jurors threw out the indictment, and Sharp's bondsmen were released. The jurors made a presentment calling upon the proper officials to make such changes as would render all parts of the jail, including the debtors' quarters, equally safe, and requesting the jailor to discontinue the run of the corridor to dangerous inmates when the jailor is absent from the building. They also passed a strongly worded recommendation in favor of having fire escapes placed on the Opera House with the least possible delay. His honor said he would follow the course laid down in the law and direct that copies of the various presentments be sent to the proper authorities. There was one civil case from the parish of Kent entered for trial, Gallagher vs Bohan, but the parties interested settled it out of court.

Death of W. T. Sherwood.

A very sad accident occurred Saturday evening in the drowning of W. T. Sherwood, foreman of the Imperial Packing Company's business. Mr. Sherwood lived just below Connel street near the bank of the Medusnekeag stream. That evening he was at work in his garden. About nine o'clock he took a canoe with the object of paddling up stream and having a bath. He did not return, but his family for a while had no uneasiness, as they thought he had come back and gone to the station to meet the 11.00 train, on which he expected his son to arrive from Sussex. When it was found that he had not gone there his neighbor, Daniel McKendrick, started up the stream and soon found the clothes on the bank, which told the sad tale. A short distance away, in about four feet of water, Mr. Sherwood was discovered. It was noticed that his hand was placed over his heart as if he had been suddenly stricken with an attack of heart failure. Mr. McKendrick notified Coroner Hay, who with A. W. Hay and Chas. Watson summoned a conveyance and brought the body home. Deceased was a man about 47 years of age, a native of Centerville and brother to C. M. Sherwood of that place. He was for some time with his brother in the grocery business here and later associated himself with the Imperial Packing Co. He leaves a widow and three children, a son and two daughters. One of the daughters is a school teacher.

His wife before her marriage was a Miss Tabor, a native of Kings Co. The family are almost prostrated with grief. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. I. A. Corbett, M. A. were held Monday afternoon. The late Mr. Sherwood was a kind husband and affectionate father, greatly respected in the town and county, and whose sudden and premature death will be sincerely regretted by all who knew him.

Tramp.

As deputy sheriff Foster is a terror to a tramp we would like for him to stop off at Bristol and try his hand on our tramp who sleeps in barns and bums his meals wherever he can get them.

NATIVE.

Now it's "hands across the Pacific" to our kinsmen in the Australian Commonwealth.

Those Delegations.

It is now nearing the close of the session of parliament. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has intimated that he will be ready in a few days after the close of the session to hear the delegations that wish to interview the ministry on the route of the G. T. P. The delegates from this town and county are as follows:—Warden Gallagher, Couns F. R. Shaw and Harry Carvell; His Worship Mayor Jones, Couns Nicholson and McManus; President Sheasgreen and Messrs J. T. A. Dibbles, J. T. Gardes, R. E. Holyoke and N. Foster Thorne, of the Board of Trade. It has been suggested that the secretary of the Board of Trade accompany the delegates and make such arrangements as are necessary to the proper presentation of the claims of the Valley Route. It is also held by many that the delegates from Carleton County should arrange to make a joint descent upon the capital with the York County gentlemen who have been named in a like capacity. Would it not be a good idea for the Mayor or the President of the Board of Trade to start the ball rolling?

More Rumors.

A dispatch to the Sun from its Ottawa correspondent conveys the somewhat startling if not altogether new rumor that Hon. A. G. Blair may become once more a candidate for a seat in the house of Commons. The Sun's correspondent intimates that Hon. John Costigan is to be made a senator, and to fill the vacancy, declares the ex-minister of Railways may be a candidate. While the SENTINEL does not pretend to be in the secrets of those who have the say at Ottawa, and has no special means of learning what is about to happen, we are inclined to believe that Hon. John Costigan will continue to represent Victoria in the Commons during at least the remainder of the present parliamentary term. As to who is to win the vacant senatorship, it is fairly safe to intimate that present appearances lead one to the belief that no definite choice has yet been made.

Two Divorces Granted.

Two matrimonial alliances were dissolved by Judge Gregory in the divorce court at Fredericton on Saturday. The case of Ellen M. Armstrong vs. William Armstrong, which has been pending for six years, was disposed of, the court granting the plaintiff an absolute divorce. Mr. J. C. Hartley was proctor for plaintiff and the case was undefended. The parties to the suit belong to Glassville and Lakeville.

In the case of Cassie M. Wheeler vs. G. Henry Wheeler, also a Carleton County case, tried here in June, a decree of divorce was asked for on the ground of adultery and unfaithfulness to marriage vows, and the court found that the charges were sustained. J. C. Hartley was proctor for plaintiff, and no defence was offered.

Married at Beulah.

Rev. I. F. Kierstead of Royalton and Miss Ida Morgan of Millville, were married at Beulah Camp on Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. A. Baker, assisted by Revs. S. Greenlaw and W. H. Hoople.

Mr. and Mrs. Kierstead will sail shortly for South Africa, where they will engage in missionary work for the Reformed Baptist Church.

The marriage was somewhat of a novelty, inasmuch as such ceremonies are not frequent at the big tabernacle at Brown's Plate and a number of those who attended said that it was an impressive occasion.

The various golf clubs in the Maritime Provinces should form themselves into an association. Halifax, Windsor, Truro, Charlottetown, Moncton, St. John, St. Stephen, Fredericton, Woodstock and other places would doubtless be in favor of this plan. A championship meet could be held at some place each year. The good old sport would become even more popular if this were the case, and there would be something worth holding, to which almost every player might aspire. How would it do for say the president and secretary of the St. John club to start the ball rolling? Woodstock may be depended upon to back them up.

Another submarine has foundered drowning thirteen men. This engine of destruction can never be made even reasonably safe for the men who make use of it.

JOTTINGS.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien and Jack (Twin) Sullivan of Boston fought twenty fierce rounds to a draw at Dawson City of the fourth of July.

Berry Wise, the young son of Chas. Wise, died on Friday of last week. The funeral services were conducted on Sunday in charge of Rev. A. E. Lepage.

It is understood that Mr. B. Frank Smith one of the provisional trustees of Florenceville Consolidated School, will resign that position in order to undertake the construction of the building.

Shamrock started at Moncton last Saturday in the 2.23 class, but did not get into the money grabbers class. Lady May was in bad shape and got the flag in the second heat of her class.

Haughton Lennox M. P. for South Simcoe was the guest this week of R. D. Wilmet M. P. for Sunbury-Queens. They spoke at a grand Orange celebration held on the 12th at Cole's Island, Queens Co.

Next month the Olympic Golf Championship will be played in Chicago. The present holder of the title, George S. Lyon, who is also champion of Canada, will defend the honor. Three other Canadians will compete, W. A. H. Kerr of Toronto, J. Percy Taylor and Gerald Lees of Montreal.

The increased rates in the Royal Arcanum will have the effect of quite materially decreasing the membership of the local council. Out of some thirty five members, seven or eight have intimated their intention to leave the Order. One of these has already paid over one thousand dollars into the society.

The St. John golfers have extended a cordial invitation to the Woodstock lady and gentlemen players for a return match on the St. John links. The date suggested is Saturday, August 12th. It is likely their request will be acceded to. The gentleman players to go down will probably include C. Sprague, Dr. Sprague, B. M. Macleod, W. R. Jones, J. S. Oseighton, R. N. Loane, H. P. Baird, George Mitchell, Hon. W. P. Jones, Geo. E. Balmmain, Rev. G. D. Ireland, Geo. E. Phillips, A. C. Calder, Dr. Guy Smith and one or two others.

Joshua Harrington of Cloverdale, York County, was tried before Police Magistrate Dibbles last week on a charge laid against him by Game Warden Crabb for violation of the Game Act by shooting a female moose on the banks of Guimic Lake. The solicitor general represented the prosecution, and T. C. L. Ketchum the defendant. The defendant went on the stand and satisfied the magistrate that he did not shoot the moose, but he pleaded guilty to a subsequent charge of shooting a deer, and was fined $50 or one month in jail. He went to jail.

Wakefield Parish Sunday School Convention.

The semi-annual meeting of the Wakefield Parish Sunday School Association was held at Victoria Corner in the Free Baptist church, Thursday, July 6th, opening at 2.45 p. m.

Owing to the day being extremely hot people were not able to come from any great distance which accounted for the convention not being better attended. However, those present were enthusiastic in the work and a very good meeting at both afternoon and evening sessions was the result.

Eight of the ten schools were reported which is an increase over the last convention. It is hoped that next year we will be able to get a report from every school.

Rev. J. J. Bonnell conducted the devotions in the afternoon, while Rev. J. C. Berrie the evening, praying for and expressing in song the success of the convention and the renewed energy that was hoped would be put out in the ensuing year.

President A. E. Plummer after a few introductory remarks welcomed the delegates and workers to the convention and expressed his desire that none should go away without feeling that they had been helped and strengthened and better prepared to do the work.

Rev. J. C. Berrie gave an address on "The relation between the church and the Sunday school." He spoke with much earnestness and a deep interest was taken in the thoughts he expressed. Parents often pay too much attention to the social life of their children and allow the spiritual part to be neglected, paying perhaps three times as much for needless and often harmful pastimes as they do to see that they are properly trained in the Sunday school.

A discussion was opened by Wm. Margison. Subject, "How to increase the interest of the Sunday school." He said the subject suggests at once that there must be a lack of interest the reason for which was the neglect in memorizing passages from the Scripture. He pictured a school he once attended. There were ill-clad barefooted boys and girls for pupils, a father and mother for teacher, officers and choir, yet the interest taken was the best he had ever known.

He was followed by Revs. J. J. Bonnell, Jos. Cahill, Brother J. F. Harper and others, who one and all expressed their ideas in favor of the importance of the work of the Sunday school. One would advocate prizes, etc., another the duty of a teacher, another the after school class meeting, while others expressed their opinions in an equally important manner.

The program for the evening was cut short owing to the absence of two of the speakers, Revs. C. T. Phillips and Spencer Crisp. The most important part of the evening session was the lesson for Sunday, July 8th, taught by Rev. Jos. Cahill.

It would be impossible to attempt to give a reproduction of the lesson and its teaching here, but suffice it to say that many thoughts were exchanged, many hard points threshed out and much light thrown upon the lesson in its teachings to us.

The organist Miss Bowser and choir rendered exquisite music for which they were thanked by the convention.

After locating the next convention which will be held at Waterville the meeting adjourned and may God bless to us the ideas and thoughts obtained at the two sessions.

Collection amounted to $3.40.

FRIGID SODAS.

Once in awhile someone finds our soda too cold. It is as cold as a lavish use of ice will make it and that's the way most people want it. It is always cold and sparkling. It almost makes your mouth water to hear it come from the fountain—it draws with a vim.

We are selling more and more soda all the while. You ought to know why. You'll know why when you try it.
