Curzon and Kitchener.

The trouble between Lord Curzon and Lord Kitchener is not a conflict between the military and civil power as we would understand it. There is no civil power, of the Canadian sort, in India. The real civil power in connection with the Government of India is the British Government; and that authority seems to have sided with Kitchener. The difficulty is more likely one between old methods and new ones. Lord Curzon is an ardent Imperialist. His was the policy which carried the British to Lhasa the other day. But he is probably of the opinion that the present military establishment in India is sufficient; while the iron soldier who went to Khar-toum and who was Lord Roberts' chief-of-staff in South Africa, wants a stronger weapon if he is ever to be called upon to keep an invader out of India. The Home Government probably knows little about it, but thinks it safer, politically, to go with Kitchener. It could probably not stand the blow of a Kitchener resignation just now, especially when Lord Rosebery is constantly booming him for War Minister in the United Kingdom. If the Liberals come in about the time that Kitchener has his programme well advanced in India, we may see him brought back to the Mother Country to reorganize the military establishment of the entire Empire.—Star.

Kitchener Supreme.

In India among the public, general sympathy is being expressed for Lord Curzon, of Kedleston, who for eight weeks has been confined to his bed, from where he conducted his fight single handed against the Cabinet.

There is widespread regret that he has felt himself obliged to resign despite the almost unanimous support of the Press and commercial bodies. The friends of Lord Kitchener are jubilant, and the Command-in-Chief of the forces now stands as the de facto Viceroy, with his prestige greatly enhanced. In the opinion of the natives, Lord Kitchener's power is supreme.

Lord Minto, who succeeds Lord Curzon, will it is expected have little difficulty with Lord Kitchener, as the new Viceroy's instructions are to allow the commander of the forces a free hand.

The Western Crops.

Encouraging reports come from the West. About 3000 excursionists will go there this fall from the Maritime Provinces to help gather the harvest. The following dispatches convey a good idea of the situation:—

Winnipeg, Aug. 21.—Favorable crop reports are received from all western points. Wheat-cutting is now becoming general in the southern and central portions of the Province. An Oxbow, N. W. T., dispatch reads:—"Harvesting in full swing. Send up 200 harvesters immediately out of that Montreal excursion." From all points of the west comes the cry for help.

Portage la Prairie, Aug. 24.—The wheat already cut is a fine sample. The kernels are plump and hard, that would nearly all grade No. 1 hard or No. 1 northern. Many of the farmers are complaining of the scarcity of farm labor, as they cannot hire men to assist in harvesting, and are patiently waiting the arrival of the harvesters from the east. If the present favorable conditions of weather continue, thrashing will commence in about three weeks' time.

"The Telegram" and Mr Foster.

The Toronto Telegram, a paper owned and edited by J. Ross Robertson, a former conservative member of parliament, has this to say of a distinguished son of this noble country:—"The increased indemnity and the pension for ex-Ministers enriched Hon George E Foster. These wrongs also impoverished Hon Geo E Foster's party. North Toronto sent Mr Foster to Ottawa to look after his country and his party. Whereas Mr Foster allowed his country to be despoiled and his party to be ruined before the people, and looked after himself to the extent of an increased indemnity and a pension that makes him comfortable for life. The undeniable truth is that Hon George E Foster was elected to serve as trustee for the country and the party, and in a crisis served as a trustee for himself."

The Telegram is perhaps the most influential independent conservative paper in Toronto. It seems to have a rather poor opinion of the Hon George.

SENATORSHIPS.

There are now two New Brunswick vacancies in the senate. A seat in the Upper Chamber is such a prize that it is no wonder that plenty of good men are willing to accept the honor and emoluments connected therewith. Of course there are several who consider themselves eligible, and gentle rumor has it that three or four local men count themselves in the fortunate few. One vacancy may go to either Mr. Gibson of York or Hon. Mr. Keown. We have also heard that Hon. A. S. White's friends are booming him. When all is said and done the Minister of Railways is the man in whose hands the actual right to appoint is vested and so far he has not mentioned the parties who are to get the plums.

Gerald Lees Plays Golf.

Gerald Lees of Montreal, the famous exponent of the ancient and royal game, visited Woodstock Tuesday, and on invitation of the local club, played in an eighteen hole foursome with A. C. Calder as partner, against Rev. G. D. Ireland and B. M. Macleod. Lees did the first nine in 41 and the second round in 40, breaking the old record of 83 for 18 holes, held by Clarence Sprague. His driving is the feature. He went over Long Acre fence on both occasions and drove to the ninth green, duplicating his performance here last year.

The score is as follows:—

FIRST ROUND.
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Lees	3	4	5	6	6	4	4	3
Calder	5	6	6	9	8	6	3	5
Ireland	4	4	7	5	8	7	4	4
Macleod	4	5	7	4	7	6	5	3	5

SECOND ROUND.
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Lees	4	4	5	5	7	5	4	3	3
Calder	4	3	6	4	9	7	5	4	5
Ireland	5	*	*	*	*	8	6	4	4
Macleod	4	4	6	5	8	6	4	3	5

Mr. Lees was invited to take part in the United States championships, but owing to pressure of business, was unable to compete. He learned the game in the old country and is Canadian manager for Mander Bros of Wolverhampton, Eng., the famous manufacturers of varnishes and printing inks.

A Well Known Figure.

Rev. Alexander Kersey, the well known presiding elder in the Maritime Provinces for the A. M. E. church, is now on the road collecting funds for the spread of the work among the members of his race. Rev. Mr. Kersey is meeting with considerable success. He bears testimonials from Bishop Handly. The denomination has churches in St. John, Halifax, Amherst, Lunenburg, Shelburne and Woodstock. There are five or six clergymen two of whom are Rev. A. A. Challenger and Rev. C. Coffin, who are well known in these parts.

Oyama Eager for Battle.

A despatch from Tokio, says that the Emperor received on Aug. 18 a strong memorial from Field Marshal Oyama and all the generals, declaring that the forces were anxious to deliver a crushing blow to the enemy, and strenuously advocating the imposition of stronger terms.

The Japanese forces in Manchuria are evidently ready to inflict another crushing disaster upon the enemy. Gen. Linevitch will find it necessary to keep a sharp look out as the moment peace negotiations are broken off, Oyama and Nogi may be depended upon to strike. A repetition of the Liao Yang and Mukden disasters would doubtless paralyze the Russian army.

Labor Day.

Merchants and citizens generally, intend to celebrate Labor Day as never before. It is expected that all the shops will be closed. The clerks are agitating for a whole holiday. The great amusement will be the band picnic. It is said that a strong base ball team may be brought here to play the Colts.

Peace or War?

The outlook for peace is scarcely as bright as could be wished for. The Russians do not think they should cede Sakhalin and pay an indemnity as well. It is probably that some compromise may be brought about. It is now possible to reveal substantially the suggestion of President Roosevelt for breaking the existing deadlock and rescuing the conference from failure. His solution would ingeniously permit the satisfaction of the Japanese demands for the reimbursement of the cost of war and at the same time enable Russia to face the world with the declaration that she had not ceded a foot of territory or paid a coopek of war tribute of the victors. The solution is the one which has heretofore been described in the despatches as the natural and logical compromise. Tersely stated, it consists in an agreement by Russia to re-purchase possession of either all or half of the island of Sakhalin, now in the military occupation of Japan, for a sum the amount of which, if the two countries cannot agree, shall be decided by some method of arbitration hereafter to be determined. The purchase money, together with the sum Japan would obtain from the cession of the Chinese-Eastern railroad and the maintenance of Russian prisoners in Japan, would it is estimated, about equal the amount claimed by Japan as her bill for the cost of the war. Practically, therefore, the solution offered by the president involves recession by Japan upon article 5 (the cession of Sakhalin), and recession by Russia upon article 9 (indemnity). It seems practically certain, though this cannot be affirmed positively, that the president today was able to give M. Witte substantial assurance that Japan would be willing to accept such a compromise. This is apparently supported by the authoritative Japanese statement made to the Associated Press tonight in reply to a question as to whether Japan had decided to make substantial concessions: "It all depends upon Russia."

REFORM ON THE I. C. R.

Hon Mr. Emmerson is about to inaugurate a measure of sweeping reform and retrenchment in the running of the Peoples' Railway. A recent Ottawa dispatch says:—

Hon H. R. Emmerson, who has returned to the city, accompanied by his Deputy, M. J. Butler, has resolved upon a complete re-organization of the Intercolonial Railway. The policy of decentralization will be introduced in pursuance of which heads of departments and Divisional Superintendents will be given greater responsibility, and more direct control over matters of detail, securing prompt decision, and avoidance of delay caused by too frequent reference to headquarters. These officials will be held responsible for results in their several branches and divisions.

To a correspondent, Mr. Emmerson dwelt upon some of the features of his tour of inspection, and mentioned a number of the changes which he proposed to carry out. "So far as our recent trip went to show anything," said Mr. Emmerson, "it proved beyond question that the Intercolonial today, even though it has seemed to cost a very considerable sum, is in the best position it ever was in its history, as regards roadbed, rolling stock, station and terminal facilities, and traffic. The conditions, which prevailed during the past year were exceptional, and they certainly wrought havoc with the financial results of operating the line. But the close inspection of Mr. Butler, Deputy Minister, his clear analysis of the conditions presented, and his business-like grasp of the whole situation gives promise of better results hereafter.

"This is the first occasion since taking office that I have ever been able to give time to a particular study of the details of the railway, in as much as during eighteen months tenure, no less than twelve were spent in attending to my parliamentary and sessional duties. Other portions of the balance were devoted to the labors of a general election, and it was not until August 1st, that I found myself free to take up the work which, in the interests of the country, and of the Intercolonial itself, required to be dealt with fearlessly, and with but the one desire to promote the welfare of Canada's great Governmental railway."

Lord Curzon of Kedleston has resigned his post as viceroy of India. He was unable to agree with Lord Kitchener, commander of the Indian forces. The home authorities backed up the war lord, and the viceroy sent in his resignation. Canadians will be interested in learning that the Earl of Minto, the former Governor General of Canada, has been given the post as viceroy of our Indian Empire. The salary is $300,000 per year, with trimmings, and the holder of the title outrivals any European sovereign in the splendor of his court.

JOTTINGS.

The line store saloons have been closed.

Mrs. Brayley and two children spent some days at the "Carlisle" this week.

Wanted a capable girl to do house work. Good wages. Apply to Mrs. W. P. Jones.

Howard Sawyer and sister, of Texas, are in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Payson.

Mrs. H. D. Stevens and son Harry went to Albert Co this week to attend the Colpitts family reunion.

Dr. Phillips arrived in town Tuesday night from Massachusetts and will visit his old home in Pembroke.

Miss Helen McLeod, prop. of the Ladies' Emporium, is offering great bargains. See her ad in this paper.

The first session of the A. M. E. quarterly conference will be held in the church here on Sunday, Sept. 23rd.

The annual meeting of the Press Printing Co was held Monday night. The old directors and officers were all re-elected.

Ernest Hale of Pembroke cut and hauled in one load of oats last week from which he threshed 70 bushels. Who can beat this?

The N. B. Telephone Co have sent out a new set of local directories, containing over two hundred names. Subscribers will much oblige the operators by calling by number only.

The Bank Debit Balance is no more. Sufficient coin was scooped in from the ratepayers on Tuesday to wipe out the hiatus. Hurroo! The town fathers should proclaim a public holiday.

The 67th Regt Band will hold a grand picnic, Labor Day, on the Island. It is necessary that funds be raised to maintain this splendid organization in the high position which it has attained. Let all hands help.

Mrs. P. Donovan and family also Mrs. J. Donovan and family, Canterbury Sta, N. B., accompanied by their guests Miss Lawson, McAdam Jct, and Mr. Bert Harvey, Woodstock, have returned from a pleasant outing at Skiff Lake.

Wanted a capable experienced woman to care for front part of house and assist in work for small children. No kitchen work. Wages $5 per week. Only those active and capable need apply to Mrs. L. Boyd, care of Kennebec Journal, Augusta, Maine.—4i-33.

Many local enthusiasts regret that Clarence Sprague was not given a chance to show what he could do with Gerald Lees during the brief visit of the latter. Young Sprague followed in the second round and made the course in 40 exactly the same as was done by Mr. Lees.

It was our good fortune early this week to have a pleasant call from Mr. A. W. Estabrooks of Coldstream, a veteran subscriber who for more than forty years has been on our mailing list. May he long continue to enjoy the weekly visits of New Brunswick's oldest newspaper.

Sponges.

A sponge, taken offhand, isn't very attractive, but there are many interesting things about sponges. It requires a knowledge of these things to buy sponges rightly.

Our experience enables us to carry as fine a line of Sponges as the market affords and our close buying enables us to sell them at the lowest possible prices—in many instances for less than the same kind, size kind and quality can be had elsewhere. If you need sponges

Don't fail to see our line and get our prices.
