THE LEGISLATURE.

Fredericton, N. B., March 22nd, '05.
In legislature Wednesday Labilliot stated in reply to inquiry that of $225,000 bonds authorized last year only $100,000 were issued. Special loan of $125,000 was obtained from Bank of B. N. A.

Amount expended on permanent bridges last year was $125,248.
Amount due by public works department to banks at October 31st was $105,226, March 9th, 1905, $301,748.
Bill respecting life and accident insurance was considered in committee and several sections passed.
At the evening session Tweedie concluded his budget speech and will be replied to by Flemming on Thursday.

Road Monkey.

The Road Monkey discussion has been quite sufficiently aired in our columns. We have received another contribution on the subject, but as the parties interested are becoming somewhat personal in their articles, we feel that the public would be better pleased if both sides were called off.

The Gravel.

The great majority of those citizens who know anything about road making strongly commend the action of the council in contracting for a large supply of gravel for use on the streets. No one councillor is responsible for the outlay. The entire board voted for the expenditure.

A Big Tree.

Major W. C. Good of Jacksonville sawed at Hayden's mill recently one straight pine tree (no branches) cut into five logs 16, 16, 15, 14 and 12 feet. When cut into boards and plank they contained 1898 sup. ft. for which the Major refused $30.00 per m. ft. representing $56.94. Pretty good figure for one tree.

THE GRAND WIND-UP.

The closing scenes in the history of the Century Rink were marked by circumstances of deep and peculiar interest. Within the confines of that noble building where during the past four or five winters hockey and skating enthusiasts have been accustomed to congregate in pursuit of the sport that pleases, there was assembled on Tuesday evening a large and representative audience to witness the grand finale preparatory to the formal taking over of the property by Our Sovereign Lord the King, who for the greater comfort and edification of his faithful soldiers in Carleton County determined to remodel the premises and convert the rink property into an armory. The band boys who have managed the rink this winter sufficiently well to accumulate a surplus of ample proportions in coin of the realm advertised a grand hockey match and a wonderful spectacular ice breaking exhibition. The hockey match was between the Orioles and a picked team known as the Dreadnaughts. This match was closely contested and ended with a score of 4 to 4. The great event of the evening then took place. People were expecting lyddite, dynamite or some other explosive would be used but in the end were disappointed. Instead of these potent agents two heroes in the shape of Ami Fisher and Billy Crowe armed with axes went at the ice with intent to do it grievous harm. How well they succeeded is not known. The people rushed out. The days of the Century Rink were over.

LAWRENCE GALLAGHER.

Lawrence Gallagher of Johnville died at his home on Tuesday morning in the 67th year of his age after a short illness due to perforation of the bowels. Mr. Gallagher was in town last week attending the county court, seemingly in the best of health. Little did his friends think that it was his last visit. The deceased gentleman was one of the early settlers in Johnville, and always bore a splendid reputation. He leaves a wife, four sons and two daughters, besides a large circle of friends and relatives. H. E. and J. W. Gallagher of this town are nephews of deceased. The late Mr. Gallagher was a sturdy liberal, and a man of broad intelligent views. The funeral services took place yesterday morning in charge of Rev. Father Dollard. A large concourse followed the remains to their last resting place.

ANNIE C. CHUTE.

Annie C. Wife of of Wesley Chute died at her home, Somerville Mass., on the evening of Monday Mar. 13th after an illness of only a few minutes duration of heart trouble.
Mrs. Chute was a resident of Carleton County, having been born at Waterville on Feb. 13th, 1871, and was consequently 34 years and 1 month of age. She was a daughter of the late Capt. George True a gentleman well known in this and the adjoining counties of York and Sunbury.

She leaves besides a sorrowing husband four children, the youngest two months and the oldest nine years old, also an aged mother, two brothers and one sister in Massachusetts, two brothers and one sister in this vicinity.

The remains, by the wish of the deceased expressed some time previous to her death, were brought back to the land of her nativity for burial, arriving in Woodstock by the noon train on Thursday the 16th inst., accompanied by the husband; and met at the depot by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The funeral services took place at 3 o'clock p. m., at the Waterville Church conducted by the Rev. F. A. Currier assisted by the Revs. Todd and Bonnell, and were very impressive; closing by the deceased being buried beside her father.

The floral offering which accompanied the remains told of the esteem in which she was held in the land of her adoption.

Mrs. Chute was baptised about 20 years ago by the Rev. Stephen Currier, since which time she had lived an upright christian life.

Leverett McElhinney a prominent young liberal from Argyle was a caller at this office on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. Williams continues to improve each day. Her many friends are most pleased to hear of her recovery.

Major Schurman of P. E. I., brother of the president of Cornell University, was in Woodstock and vicinity this week visiting friends and relatives.

CALVING COWS

There is no more important period in a cow's life than at calving time. Many thousands are lost every year at this time, because the animal's system is not in such condition as to stand the strain. The feeding of Clydesdale Stock Food a sufficient time before and after calving will tone up the System so that no trouble need be feared. Read what Mr. J. A. Lever, Fleatherton, Ont., says:—"I have found it an excellent preparation for feeding cows before calving and never had cows do better after." It cannot be repeated too often, "don't let the calf loose its calf flesh." It cannot lose it without hurting its growth. The raising of "Baby Beef" or early fattened beef, the highest priced beef on the market, is easily done if the calves are kept growing. If this can be done, you can easily realize from one to two cents a lb. more than otherwise. There is nothing better with skimmed milk for calves than Clydesdale Stock Food. Mr. Gregory McIntyre, Secretary, Farmers Institute, Renfrew, Ont., says:—"I have been using your food on my eleven calves, and consider they are the best lot I have ever raised. The only other food being skimmed milk and grass." If you are not satisfied after feeding Clydesdale Stock Food, your money will be cheerfully refunded by our dealer. Sold in your district by

Washing Machine

IS THE

"New Century."

It is built like a bicycle. The ball bearings upon which it turns are the same used in the highest grade bicycles. They are of case hardened steel and will last a lifetime.
In operating the machine, it is turned from right to left, about half way round each time. That it may work as nearly AUTOMATICALLY as possible, it is provided with two oil tempered coiled steel springs, which engage at the extreme point and tend to reserve the motion.
The machine moves uninterruptedly until it reaches the point where it should reverse, when, coming in contact with the force of the springs it rebounds like the action of a rubber ball, meeting the spring's force again at the other extremity.
