

Eight Reasons

WHY WE THINK

is the best tea in Canada have been published in this paper.

Have they been convincing enough to induce you to try the tea?

If you have, the advertising has done all that was expected. The tea must do the rest, and I think it will.

If you have not yet tried the tea, you will perhaps be interested in learning that several more reasons are yet to follow.

They will be interesting and well worth reading.

Golden Wedding.

Fifty years of married life was rounded out for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Snow, on Wednesday evening, February 1st, and the occasion was duly celebrated by the gathering of children and friends at their pleasant home on the Coyote.

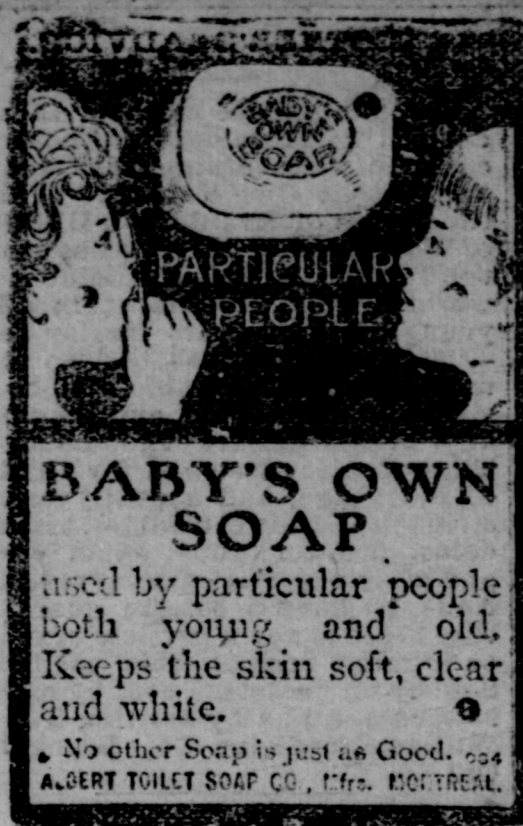

Many of the invited guests were prevented from being present by the heavy rain storm of the day and evening, but those who were fortunate enough to be present enjoyed with the worthy couple a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Edward Snow and Miss Grisella Davis were married in New Brunswick, February 1, 1855 and traveled the journey together with pleasure and satisfaction for a longer time than is usually allowed to life partners. They have been residents in this vicinity for about twelve years and are highly esteemed.

The evening was spent with choice music the reading of some fine selections prepared for the occasion and pleasant games, and dainty refreshments were served to all. The presents were numerous beautiful and useful; the chief ones being a very beautiful golden clock and some fine silver ware. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Roberts of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snow of Gilroy, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hobin, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Snow of Mountain View, Mr. and Mrs. E. Adams, Miss Luella Snow, Miss Grace Snow, Miss Vesta Powell, Delmas Powell, Clinton Lewis, Besbie, Clara, Mildred and Donald Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Snow have our thanks for a box of choice dainties from the feast.—Morgan Hill, Cal. "Sun-Times."

The above named Edward Snow was born at Rosedale, Carleton County a few miles from this town; lots of Wakefield's older men will remember him. He was the eldest son of the late Jesse Snow of Rosedale. Our Georgia correspondent, "One of the old boys," will remember him well as they must have been boys together and lived about half a mile apart. His wife, Miss Davis, belonged to Victoria Corner; she had a brother, Joseph or "Joe," as he was familiarly called, who was a very smart athletic young man and any common scrub who tackled "Joe" showed very poor judgment. W. R. and C. B. Snow are cousins of Edward. Harry and Miss Eva are nephew and niece.

STILL AT IT.

The Press still continues the methods adopted under its new ownership with reference to the nomination proceedings at the court house. In the game of politics whether in the House or in reputable newspapers the saying "never hit below the belt" has been honored ever since the first day of representation in parliament. When one considers the personnel of the two or three most active political writers of the Press the course pursued by that paper is not disappointing. Like all nuisances that endeavor to prevent fair criticism and healthful public opinion by slander and falsehood, the Press should be stopped. The Solicitor General and the sheriff would be doing the public a distinct benefit if they were to set the law in motion and force these underground nuisances to come out into the light of day.

An "Independent" View.

The Hartland Advertiser of last week in discussing the Simms case made certain uncalculated reflections upon the Solicitor General and his friends. With insufficient knowledge, or else wilful and deliberate misrepresentation, the Advertiser printed what must give most serious offense to its liberal readers. We should think a journal that claims to be fair would wait until it hears both sides before passing judgment. Liberals, we imagine, will strongly resent partisan tactics such as the Advertiser has been guilty of. Friends of the liberal party cannot afford to allow an enemy in disguise to enter their homes.

The mite society met at the residence of James Carr on Tuesday evening. Next week it will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baird.
