"The Toronto News."

The Toronto News which is one of the most ably edited and yet unscrupulous newspapers in Canada, must feel that its true measure has now been taken by the people of Ontario. In the campaign that ended in the defeat of the Ross administration the News became so puffed up that it presumed to take unto itself considerable credit for the downfall of the late provincial government. By the publication of offensive and utterly disgusting cartoons and ingeniously worded appeals to the electorate, the News hoped to bring about the defeat of Hon Mr Hyman and Mr George Smith. The people would not be fooled a second time. The News was laughed at, and its dire appeals unheeded.

The Co's Tamed the Caribous.

FIRST GAME EASY FOR WOODSTOCK.

The gentlemanly base ball players from Caribou arrived here Wednesday afternoon on the down express. The same evening at the Trotting Park they locked horns with Jimmy Long's "Colts" and were done up to the tune of 3 to 1. The only score made by the Maine villagers came in the last innings. The Colts did all their damage in the fourth spasm.

The line up:—

COLTS.	CARIBOU.
Woodrow	c H B Rogers
Milmore	p D Upton
F McLean	1 b B Wright
W Courtney	2 b J Michaud
S Pickel	3 b R Roberts
C Donnelly	s s J Tristy
J Long	r f W Lowney
C McLean	1 f H Preston
R McLauchlan	c Remi Lefleche

The visitors went first to bat. The old reliable Milmore was in the box for Woodstock and was ably supported at the receiving end by Woodrow, who is as good a catcher as we have seen here in many a day. He throws like lightning, runs bases like a fox, and has an eye on every part of the diamond. The visitors were blanked in every inning right up to the seventh. The same fate overtook the home talent in the first three, but in the fourth Woodrow managed to reach first, purlined second, and committed petty larceny in an attempt to reach third bag, where he gently rested. Roy McLauchlan who has a reputation as a swatman when a hit is much desired, supplied the needful and landed young Mr Woodrow safely home, and likewise perched himself on first sack. Claude McLean then brought his peavy in violent contact with one of the Hon Mr Upton's benders. The result was that Woodstock had two men on bases, and the wily Mr Courtney at the bat. William could not let the good work cease. He swatted a nice one clean away out to deep centre and scored two runs. The next important event was in the sixth when the visitors filled the bases with two out. The giant catcher Rogers was at the bat, but "Oy" Milmore fanned him as easily as if he were a wooden Indian. In the fateful seventh young Mr Lowney gracefully wended his way as far as the third sack, and from that very advantageous position perambulated home on a passed ball. This was the only score that was chalked up by the victims. They nearly got another, but the gentleman who essayed to reach the home plate was declared out for running zig-zag in an attempt to evade Woodrow who was waiting near the plate with the leather. F McRae was umpire. The second game is in progress as we go to press.

Coun. Henderson is O. K.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:—

A correspondent in the Press accuses the mayor of turning down Coun. Henderson. It's good betting that the mayor and the veteran councillor thoroughly understand one another. Those who think Coun. Henderson is out of the running for a nice trip to Ottawa may have another think coming to them before long. At any rate Coun. Henderson is not losing any sleep or running around growling because he was left off the delegation. By the way, Mr Editor, while writing on this subject, even you are a grit I presume you will allow me a chance to say that the council got even with that wicked Board of Trade for appointing what might be called pretty nearly a solid tory delegation to get favors from a liberal government. Doesn't the action of the Board of Trade strike you as about the most absurd thing you ever heard of in this country?

Yours X. Y. Z.

With the Jolly Marksmen.

OBITUARIES.

C. W. JENNER.

A telegram received on Wednesday from Eastport announced the sudden death of C W Jenner, a former Woodstock resident who for a long time was employed with Small & Fisher Co. Deceased was a prominent Free Mason and also a member of Woodstock Council, Royal Arcanum.

MRS. JAMES M'CORMICK.

Mrs James McCormick died at her home in Grand Falls on Monday, June 5th. For some time she had been complaining of a bad cold, which on Thursday developed into pneumonia and despite the efforts of Drs Puddington and Hammond she passed away. Deceased, who was formerly Miss Kate Mulhern, is survived by a husband, a two year old child, her parents, three brothers and four sisters. A large circle of friends mourn her death.

ANNIE LOWRY.

Miss Annie Lowry, who for the past fifteen years made her home in this town, died Tuesday afternoon at the residence of her brother-in-law, N D Lister. The cause of her death was extended arteries. Deceased had been ill for quite a long time. She was born 34 years ago at Fredericton, the daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Armstrong Lowry, and is survived by two brothers, William and Matthew of Fredericton, and two sisters, Mrs Willard S Carvell of St John and Mrs N D Lister of this town. She will be much missed by a large circle of friends. The remains were taken to Fredericton over the Gibson branch Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Mr and Mrs Lister, Mrs Willard Carvell and Allen Embleton. The burial took place yesterday.

JOTTINGS.

Do not forget the meeting to-night in the Town Council chamber. The Bank of Montreal will take over the Peoples Bank of Halifax on or about the third day of July.

John S Leighton Jr went back to Ottawa by Saturday evening's train to resume his duties at the capital. Mrs T A Kendrick of St Andrews was visiting her daughter, Mrs G W Atherton, on Richmond street, last week.

Ice Cream. If you want the best patronize Holyoke & Brown. Wholesale or retail, by the dish or by the gallon. (adv.)

The Baptist church at Pembroke was dedicated on Sunday. Large congregations filled the sacred edifice. Rev A J Prosser of St John preached the dedicatory sermon.

C F Rogers and Chas L Smith have purchased the valuable black stallion formerly owned by Andrew Dunlop. This fine animal took first prize at the exhibition here last fall.

At Chicago on Tuesday Christy Mathewson pitching for the New York Giants shut out the Chicago team without a hit or a run and did not give them a single base on balls.

Woodstock has not a single temperance organization outside the W C T U. Where are all the organizers for the various temperance bodies? Or have they given this place up in despair?

H G Noble has been appointed town agent for the butter of the Carleton Creamery Co Ltd. Parties wishing their butter delivered will leave their orders with him as the Creamery people make no deliveries this year. (adv.)

Li Mark C Gillen of the Brighton Engineers who recently took a long course at the Royal Military College, Kingston, appears by a recent Militia Order, at the head of the list and marked as distinguished in all subjects, being the only one out of a large class to win such honors.

Postmaster Smith left Wednesday night for the Northwest. He will travel as far as Edmonton. Before returning it is his intention to secure a section in the wheat belt. In the fall his son Albert will go out to spend the winter and prepare for next year's farming operations.

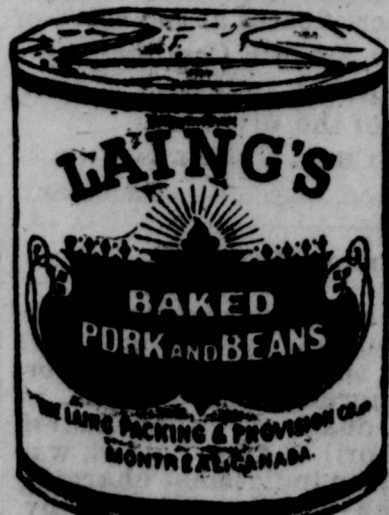

Butter paper. We have placed a large order for this useful commodity and in a few days will be in a position to supply our patrons with the pure German parchment at very low rates. If you wish a quantity in any size write for quotations. We will please you. "The SENTINEL Office."

Mrs Farlinger of Toronto will continue to give demonstrations of the Pure Gold Manufacturing Co goods during the remainder of the week at the store of Holyoke & Brown. All ladies are invited to come to the store and sample the delicious desserts so popular with the Canadian public. (adv.)

Rev J G Shearer the Dominion representative of the Lord's Day Alliance, will address a mass meeting of the citizens of Woodstock on Wednesday evening next at 8 o'clock. The churches will forego their usual weekly prayer meetings for that night and unite in attending the meeting. We hope there will be a large attendance as the address will be well worth listening to. All citizens are invited.

McCarron—Nugent.

At four thirty o'clock Wednesday morning in St Gertrude's Church Rev F J McMurray performed the happy ceremony that united in the holy bonds of wedlock John P McCarron and Miss Elizabeth Nugent. Miss Nugent of Solon, Me., acted as bridesmaid and the groom was supported by James Sullivan. The happy couple left on the morning train for a tour of the provinces. Their host of friends extend good wishes.
