deceived by other dealers telling you they can give you the same thing. If at any time other dealers handle this oil due notice will be given the public.—4f-36.

The condition of the track on the day of band picnic made it impossible to have the horse races in which a large number of people expressed a keen interest. A movement is on foot to hold these races on Thursday of next week the 14th inst for the benefit of the band.
There are a large number of fast horses in the town and vicinity and a number of horsemen have agreed to enter their horses for a trot. It is hoped that a good many others will put in their horses and make this an event that will draw a large crowd. An effort will be made to get the ball teams to put on another game and assist in making a fine afternoon of sport.

An important Sunday School convention was held in the Hall at Upper Woodstock on Tuesday afternoon and evening. Woodstock Town and Parish and Northampton were united for this work under the name of Woodstock-Northampton Association, for which the following officers were elected:—Pres, F. L. Moore; Vice-Pres, F. S. Sharp; Sec.-Treas, Miss Laura Burpee. Add members of Executive, Miss Minnie McElroy, Mrs. A. Wilmot Hay and J. A. Mc-Dougall. Some good music was given by a mixed quartette composed of Rev. G. A. Ross, Mrs. R. E. Holyoke and Mr. and Mrs. H. Lockwood. F. L.
Moore contributed a couple of fine solos. Interesting papers and discussions added to the value of the meeting.

The members of the band wish to express their most hearty thanks to the many people who contributed in making their picnic a success.
To Gallagher Bros for the use of the park, to the Agricultural Society for their building and grounds, to the base ball teams for their fine game, to those who contributed cash, provisions, and presents for prizes and last but not least to the ladies who worked so faithfully in waiting on the tables they wish to express their sincere appreciation for the kindness shown by all. They regret that in the confusion resulting from the threatening weather some people who had cooked for them were overlooked when the collections were made and they trust that those who were not taken offence in consequence. A number of people sent provisions to the picnic in plates and other dishes. In some cases it has been impossible to tell to whom they belong as some of the dishes were not marked and on some that were the writing became blotted so that the name of the owner could not be made out. These dishes were all collected and washed and brought to the band room and if the owners of the same will kindly let any of the band members have a description of their dishes they will see that they are returned.
