

ARM IN ARM

Comes the thoughts of Xmas and

Well-made Clothes.

We make clothes, and we make them to please you. The appearance shows clearly that they were made for your particular figure. I think of your personal appearance. Come in and see our handsome good wearing materials that we have selected for our customers.

GEO. W. GIBSON,
Fine Tailor-made Clothes.

CHRISTMAS GROCERIES.

Seeded Raisins, Cleaned Currants,
Orange, Lemon and Citron Peel,
New Figs, Dates and Nuts.
Fresh Goods and Right Prices.

Union Telephone 128.
N. B. Telephone 16-2.

H. G. NOBLE.

CARR & GIBSON,

Watchmakers, Jewellers and Issuers of Marriage Licenses, keep Wedding Rings of every size, 14 and 18 karat, guaranteed as stamped U. S. assay. 31 Main Street.

Births.

HAND—On Friday, Dec 1st, to the wife of A. W. Hand, a daughter.

Marriages.

CARTLEY-TURNEY—On Nov. 29th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Watson Settlement, by Rev. A. W. Tread, pastor of Richmond, Lena Jane, eldest daughter of John and Elizabeth Cartley to Ernest Albert Turney of Hodgdon, Maine.

Christmas Gifts.

As the Holiday Season approaches the gift feature occupies a good deal of our time and attention. There is nothing you could give that would be more highly appreciated or prized than a

GOOD PHOTO.

We have styles to suit all tastes and prices are

From $1.00 Per Dozen Up.

NEW UP-TO-DATE PHOTO STUDIO,

C. H. MERRITT & CO.,

(Successor to G. A. Keith).

Main St.

Opposite Carleton Hotel.

We have a nice line of Picture Frames Moulding. Orders for same will have our prompt attention.

New Advertisements

Notice of Tenders.

Tenders will be received at the office of the Carleton County Hospital, limited, up to 5 o'clock p. m. on Monday next, for supplying the Carleton County Hospital with Groceries, Drugs and Meals. Forms upon which to tender can be obtained at the office of the Hospital, or at the office of the Carleton County Hospital, limited, on Monday next, at 5 o'clock p. m., December 11th.

H. P. BAIRD, Secy.

Dec 1st, 1906.

When you want Job Printing of any kind, call at the SENTINEL office.

LOOK BEFORE BUYING ELSEWHERE.

A. E. Jones, King Street, has a beautiful assortment of Carvers, in Sets, which will make a very suitable and lasting Christmas Gift.

A. E. JONES, King Street.

JOTTINGS.

William Hay has returned from Millville.

Roland Williams and wife are visiting here.

William McKinley is ill at his home on Broadway.

Great Bargains in Groceries this week at Sullivan Bros.

Miss Beatrice Williams has returned from Boston Mass.

F B Carvell has his new offices in the Lindsay building.

Leslie Hawkins has taken the janitorship of the Broadway School.

Mr John Mitchell of Broadway spent Tuesday of this week in St John.

Miss Carrie Boyer is taking a course at Fredericton Business College.

Inspector Meagher is visiting the schools in the districts close to the town.

Wanted, at the Bristol Roller Mill, a young man to learn the business.

O W Brittain.

Solicitor General Jones has been away about all week on government business in St. John and Fredericton.

Mr and Mrs Judson Vanwart and son left on Monday to visit Mrs Vanwart's sister Mrs A W Dixon of Sackville.

When you buy your Christmas groceries remember that H G Noble's is the best place as his stock is fresh and reliable.

Cleaned Currants, Seeded Raisins, Orange, Lemon and Citron Peel. All the best spices and pure Crof Tartar at H G Noble's.

Miss Bessie Carvell was in town this week. Miss Bertha Carvell spent some days here recently before returning to Boston.

A stationary boiler has been placed in the roundhouse at the Lower Station which supplies steam heat to all the offices nearby.

For Sale—A second hand revolving bed planer. Will be sold very cheap. Apply at Woodstock Woodworking Co., Green Street.—41-49.

Frederick Ryan, son of Daniel Ryan, Fredericton, who has been employed on the Armory for the past two months, returned to his home Monday.

W R Snow has purchased from Garden & Winslow the building on Emerald Street in which he has for some years conducted his laundry business.

W. E. Berryman C. P. R. Conductor who runs on 31 and 32 Train had the misfortune to fall on the ice while in St. Stephen on Tuesday and broke his arm near the shoulder, which will lay him up for some time. His place will be taken by H. E. Dow.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Mrs Frances A. Spear who has been here for some time will leave next week for her home in Bradford Pa., after spending the next few days in Houlton.

A renewal of the Russian and Japanese war in our midst seems probable by the excitement and signs of activity in two leading up town grocery stores.

On Sunday the services in St Paul's Church will be taken by Rev Gordon Dickie of St. Stephen, who is one of the best known and most eagerly sought ministers in Canada.

Of course you want the best spices and essences for your Xmas Cooking. Then call at Holyoke & Brown's and examine their goods. Also Raisins, Currants, Citron, orange and lemon peels.

Harris Baird, son of Col J. D. Baird, now with a large furniture firm in Winnipeg, will be married on Christmas Day to Miss Winters, a charming and popular young resident of the prairie city.

Are you satisfied with the kind of oil you are getting, or do you want something better? If you want the best American oil just patronize the grocers who keep Electric Light Oil. This oil is not sold off of tank wagons.—H. 36.

The people of Lindsay intend holding a basket social in the school house Saturday evening, Dec 9th. The proceeds are for the benefit of the pastor of the Methodist Church. All are cordially invited.

The government building is now heated by Gurney's twin heaters recently installed by the well known plumbers, Joseph P. Pickel and O. A. Townsend. An excellent job was done by these gentlemen.

An agitation in favor of a night school seems to be gaining ground. Since the late lamented Banks Business College went out of existence there has been no local institution in which night courses could be taken.

The dainty little daughter of Mr and Mrs G. W. Gibson, born some weeks ago, was baptized Tuesday evening by Rev G. A. Ross. Margaret Hay is the name she will bear. Long life and happiness to Margaret Hay Gibson!

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

The young folks of St Paul's Church intend holding a concert at the Opera House on Tuesday evening Dec 19th in aid of a new pipe organ. Come and hear some good Christmas choruses. Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house. Concert begins at sharp 8 o'clock.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Snow of New York to Mr Francis Joseph Carmody. The ceremony will take place on the nineteenth instant in Grace Church, New York City. Miss Snow is the daughter of Mrs T C Platt, wife of the U S Senator, by her first husband the late G Holland Snow of this town, and niece of W R Snow.

Miss May Marley was quite badly injured last Friday evening. She was walking in company with two other girls in front of the post office. By some means she fell from the sidewalk into the gutter and received a bad shaking up as well as breaking two ribs. She is now improving nicely and will soon be around again.

Rev R. G. Fulton of Hampton sent a letter to the Recording Steward of the Methodist Church accepting the pastorate, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee. He will begin his duties here in July, 1906. The congregation deserve congratulations upon securing the services of so talented a clergyman in succession to the present popular and beloved incumbent.

At a meeting of the Presbytery to be held this (Friday) evening at St Paul's Church the speakers will be Rev J H A Anderson, Rev Mr Foster and Rev Gordon Dickie. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the delegates.

The Teachers of Carleton County who fail to attend the Institute will miss a great treat. Dr John Brittain, R E Estabrooks and other specialists will read papers. The gathering will be held on the last two days of the term.

Mission circle concert, at Mrs R E Holyoke's, Dec 11th.

H V Dailling is sending out a beautiful jewelry catalogue.

Dry soft mixed mill wood, in stove lengths for sale by L E Young.

Mrs G. D. Ireland went to Fredericton on Wednesday for a brief visit.

A tip to the wise. Attend the town council to night; you will never regret it.

It is quite generally reported that B Harry Smith will be a candidate for the council.

Mrs Chas McLean entertained a large number of lady friends at an afternoon tea yesterday from 4.30 to 6 p. m.

Mrs John Kerr has moved into the house on Broadway owned by Mrs Forrester McLean and has taken boarders.

The St Luke's Church ladies provided a bountiful supper Wednesday evening at which the neat sum of $179 was realized.

Everything to be closed out at the G. W. Vanwart Clearance Sale of Dry Goods. Those who wish bargains will find them there.

It is reported that G H Harrison has resigned the principalship of the Grammar School, and will go into the insurance business.

F B Carvell M P now has his law office in the Lindsay building, upstairs, near the town hall. The rooms are beautifully finished and furnished.

Rumor has it that three well-known citizens—a dentist, a druggist and an insurance agent, intend to go west early in the New Year to look over the country with a view to locating there.

Piano Bargains.—In order to dispose of the number of pianos we have contracted to take from our manufacturers, this year, we find we will have to sell twenty two pianos by the end of this month. These are principally Mason & Risch and Newcombe pianos. Any person desiring one of these high class pianos at a greatly reduced price and on reasonable terms if necessary should write to J Clark & Son, St. John, N. B. or Fredericton, N. B.

STARTLING BUT TRUE.

"Think" that in the last 12 months there has been 15919 killed and injured on the railway service of Canada and the United States.

"Think" of this frightful waste of life and time.

"Think" of the number of accidents occurring each day in our streets.

"Think" of the sickness in our hospitals and in our homes. It may be the Readers turn next.

"Be wise", and provide for your family.

J. W. Astle can give you the best Accident and Sickness Protection.

Call or write him now.

Queen Street, Woodstock, N. B.

Off to Portland.

The following officials were summoned to attend court in Portland Maine, and left in obedience thereto on Tuesday evening, viz: Sheriff Foster, Customs Officers Carpenter and Bull, Inspector Colpitts and Constable Wolverton, together with five officers from Maine to give evidence and information respecting the condition of affairs along the boundary line in form of laws violated in the illicit traffic in strong drink, smuggling and places recognized as public nuisances. Formal charges will be made and indictments recorded. The officials above named have been very successful so far in closing several immoral and objectionable places along the line and it is to be hoped that in the investigation at Portland that all places between Woodstock and Houlton will be enquired into and law breakers and those who seek to evade the laws of either government will be speedily abolished. All who claim citizenship should be law abiding.—Com.

Watson—Phillips.

Wednesday afternoon the residence of F D Burpee, Upper Woodstock, was the scene of an interesting event when his sister-in-law, Miss Leila A Phillips of Mount Pleasant, became the wife of J Rice Watson of this town. Rev M S Trafton, cousin of the groom, tied the knot in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The couple were unattended. A great many pretty presents were received. Mr and Mrs Watson will reside at Mount Pleasant during the winter.

Miss Flora Currie, Beechwood, is visiting friends in the village.

Rev J A Cahill was in Bristol on Monday, and went to Florenceville to organize an I O G T lodge there that evening.

The Book and Literary Club met at Mrs A J McLean's on Tuesday evening. Mr J K Flemming will deliver a lecture under the auspices of this club on Monday evening, 18th inst. Subject "Japan and the War."

Next Sunday Rev J B Young of Florenceville will preach in the United Baptist church in the afternoon, and Rev J B Ganong, Field Secretary of the Sunday School Association, in the evening. He will preach at Upper Kent in the morning and at Mineral in the afternoon.

The Baptist church here having been for some time without a pastor has decided to invite Rev L A Len