

Boils and Pimples

Red Rash, Eczema, in fact any skin disease, disfigures the complexion because the bowels are constipated—or because the kidneys do not rid the system of waste—or because the skin itself is unhealthy.

Ointments, salves and soaps are useless. Because the trouble is with the blood.

Owing to defective action of bowels, kidneys or skin, the blood becomes laden with impurities. It is these impurities—deposited by the blood—that make boils, pimples, and painful, disfiguring skin diseases. It is because the trouble is with the bowels, kidneys or skin, that FRUIT-A-TIVES cure these diseases.

Fruit-a-tives

act directly on the eliminating organs—correct their irregularities—strengthen them—and thus clear the skin and make the complexion clear and soft.

If you have any skin trouble—or any fault with constipation, liver trouble, biliousness, headaches, indigestion, rheumatism—cure yourself with Fruit-a-tives. They are made of fruit juices and tonics—and never fail to cure.

See a box of 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price. If your druggist does not handle them.

The Court House.

A new court house for this county has become a live issue. The need of it has long been felt, but consideration of the question has, from time to time, been deferred; perhaps with the vague hope—in which the wish was father of the thought—that fire or lightning would remove the present edifice, and with it the really minor difficulties which assume the proportions of serious problems when presented to narrow and unprogressive minds.

Lately the county has had reminder and warning to awaken the authorities to a sense of their duties and responsibilities. It is up to them to say what is now to be done, to pronounce whether it is wise, prudent or patriotic to longer resist what, we doubt not, is the popular will of the tax payers, backed and supported by the unqualified views of the judiciary.

In unmistakable language one judge has said that he will not again preside over a court in the present building. If he carries out his intention—and there is no reason to doubt that he will—the cost of hiring a suitable place for him will be a mere bagatelle compared with the consequent expense (it involves not only the rent charge, but the renting of a court room every time it is used) for if one judge leads the way we may be sure that every other judge will follow his example and support him in his action.

The County Court Judge, at the March term, took pains to point out that, not only was the present building unsuitable for the purposes for which it is intended, but by reason of its remoteness from the goal there was always danger of the escape or rescue of prisoners; that the conveying of prisoners to and from the court house was quite an item of expense, a conveyance and more officers being required; that the present arrangement necessitated a horse hire bill for the sheriff and the judge; that every litigant incurred an unnecessary expense in the transportation and feeding of witnesses, which the successful party did not recover from the other side; that grand jurors beside giving their time and service were, for a like cause, out of pocket eighty five cents every day they were in attendance on court; and petit jurors, by this same reason, had but fifteen cents of their one dollar a day left to pay their hotel bills. It will be perceived that this is a tax on suitors and jurors, indirect and unfair.

It would be hard to spell a threat, veiled or otherwise, out of the kindly remarks of the learned Chief Justice last week. Yet, one cannot help but think that he spoke with premeditation, with authority and after consultation with his brother judges, whose leader and mouthpiece he is. We may take it for granted that, when he urged the municipal council to speedy action, he voiced the opinion and the united sentiments of the bench.

Two grand juries, after listening to arguments, have adopted the views of the judges and reported in favor of a modern court house within the town limits. In the olden times, before the days of municipal councils, either of those presentments would have built a court house; and, let us not forget, that those presentments are still just as much the voice, if not the command, of the sovereign people as they would have been when Echeleard was king.

No one will seriously dispute that the present building is insufficient, inconvenient and inadequate. It is a standing rebuke to the intelligence of Carleton County. Its maintenance grows and must grow apace with its decay. The frosts of winters ripen into a harvest of plumbers' bills in the summer. The court house, always found in centres of population, is looked upon as an auxiliary of the school, but ours as an educator is useless. The law and election debates that take place within its walls can only be heard by those who have much time at their disposal, and even then at a personal inconvenience and monetary tax. It is ancient without being antique.

These are but suggestions of its defects and disadvantages. Who are the men who are going to rise above paltry, local considerations and prove themselves equal to the occasion? Who will remove this blot from the history of Carleton's progression? Or, the other side, who is going to pass his name down to posterity as a timid, narrow-minded reactionist by a vote which proclaims our citizens content to be and remain behind the age? For, mark our words, the court house will be built; the advance may be delayed but it cannot be stayed. It only remains to be seen whether the honor will belong to the Council of 1906 or to its successors.

The public buildings of a municipality are the surest and truest index of the enlightenment of its people. A valued correspondent, last week, pointed out what money had been spent in Texas in erecting court houses. There is no need of going as far as the Pan Handle for illustration or example. We have a few striking object lessons nearer home, indeed almost at our own door.

The finest court house in this province, perhaps in the Maritime Provinces, is the one just completed at Bathurst. It is a stone building. Kings County has had for years a beautiful court house of pressed brick, with stone trimmings. The exterior design is very neat and striking. It is now being fitted with hot water heating and modern sanitary appliances, at a cost of $3,000.

Victoria County last year spent $8,000 in making its court house up-to-date.

Madawaska, with commendable energy, having obtained the necessary authority at the last session of the legislature, is now engaged in enlarging and remodelling its court house.

Over in Arctostook, looking down on us as it were with supreme contempt, are two handsome, finely equipped court houses; one at Houlton, the other at Caribou.

Is Carleton County—the county of our pride and our boast—to be and remain in ignominious backwardness either from parsimony, lack of public spirit or any other cause? We venture to assert that no one will admit that we are one whit behind the people of the places above mentioned. Ah, but it is action, not words that tell.

We understand that some councillors oppose the movement, not from want of sympathy, but from the conviction that they have no mandate from their constituents to undertake it. Those will kindly pardon us if we point out that they are elected to immediately represent their respective parishes, but at the same time to govern the community as a whole, and for the good of the whole; that they do many things as legislators for which they may have precedent, but for which they have no special warrant—do them because their fathers and grandfathers did them; that they have but one mandate from the people: To govern to the best of their judgment, discretion and ability the whole people of the County of Carleton, and not any clique or faction of it, under the constitution as it exists, and that means to do everything necessary for the common weal, but not to make any change in the constitution itself without first submitting it to popular vote. On all other questions their powers are plenary.

We do not overlook that a new court house means a public debt, but wisdom will suggest how the interest can be met. A two story building connected with the present registry office building should be made to produce a revenue. Let the court room be on the upper floor and offices on the first floor. These offices, together with the upstairs ones in the registry office building, can be rented to the lawyers of the town, whom we are informed are most anxious to have them, and thus you provide a fund to meet the interest on your debentures.

MRS. HUNTER'S STORY

Says she and her Husband Agree Perfectly. Both Quite Well Again.

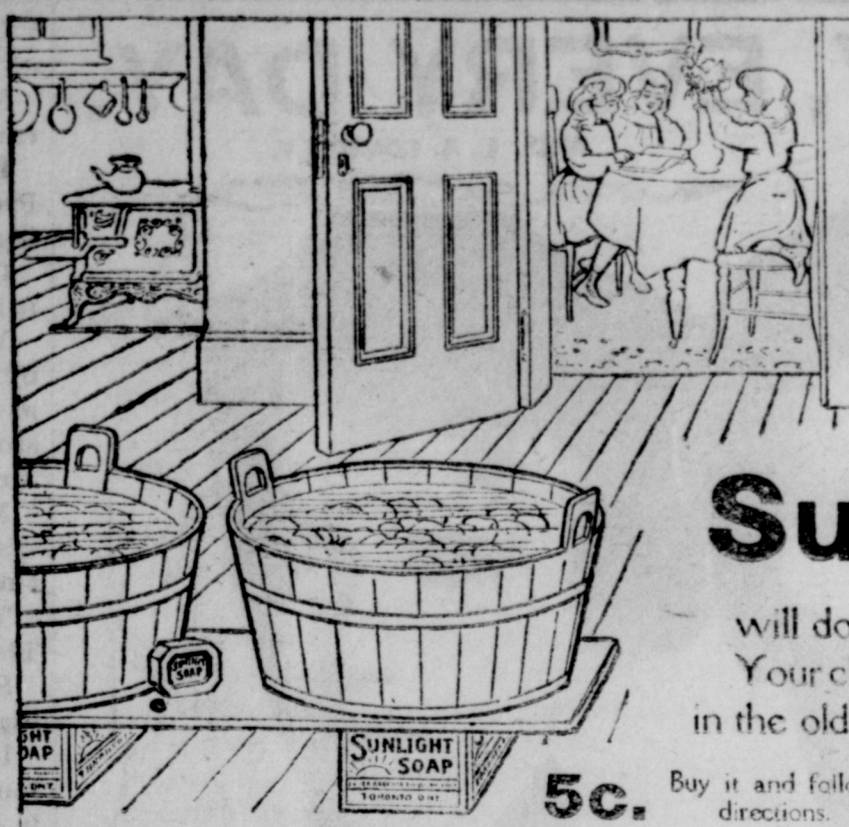

MRS. L. HUNTER.

Mrs. L. Hunter, of 111 Baglan Road, Kingston, Ont., has written for publication a statement of her case as follows:—
"I have suffered with kidney and liver trouble and chronic constipation for some time. I was subject to dizziness, bilious headaches, nervousness, drowsiness, pains in the back and side, and a tired, weary feeling nearly all the time.
"I tried almost every remedy, was treated by doctors and druggists with little or no benefit.
"Finally, a friend advised me to try Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill, and the results have been truly wonderful.
"My husband has used Anti-Pill for rheumatism and was benefited greatly. We agree that Anti-Pill is a most wonderful medicine second to none I recommend it."
This is a very strong recommendation. Anti-Pill is undoubtedly the greatest of family remedies. All druggists, or the Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

At the Methodist Church on Sunday the Rev Mr Ross was unable to officiate owing to temporary illness. In the morning the service was taken by Licentiate Taylor of Lindsay, and in the evening Mr C W Manzer, C P R station agent, preached acceptably to a large congregation.

Rev E W Simonson, M. A., formerly of the diocese of Fredericton, has been appointed by Bishop Kendrick to the promising new mission of Douglas, Arizona. He writes:—
"Douglas is less than five years old, has a population of about 8,000, and good prospects for the Church's growth. We have one Church (brick building) paid for, and are undertaking a rectory preparatory to the removal of my family west. They are still in Centreville, N. B.
I have a Church membership of 200.
Douglas is a copper town. About $100,000 worth of copper ore is smelted daily. From this over 300,000 tons of copper ore are treated daily.
My health is improving. We are on the Mexican line and have no winter. The climate is very dry and the altitude good being 4000 feet.
The Bishop of the Diocese spends Easter morning with me. I feel far away from my old friends but hope to return to the work in the east if health permits. This is in God's hand so that I need not fear. Easter greetings and remembrance for the old friends when 'you see them.'—

A DISLOYAL BAND.

According to the Ottawa correspondent of La Presse, of Montreal, another conspiracy is being hatched in the ranks of the Opposition, and Mr R L Borden's hold on the leadership is once more endangered. Mr W F Maclean is again on the warpath, and this time he seems to have gained influential support from Opposition members who have hitherto been very close to Mr Borden. It is well-known that Mr Maclean has been for some time excluded from the Conservative caucus, and recently, the La Presse story states, Mr Borden decreed that the member for East York was beyond the pale. It has been an open secret for some time that trouble was brewing. Now we are told that Mr Maclean has been joined by Hon George E Foster, Hon John Haggart, Mr Taylor, the Conservative Whip, and others, whose names are not mentioned. And this faction, it is said, is bent on deposing Mr Borden. As Messrs Foster, Haggart and Taylor were all concerned in the "nest of traitors" episode, it goes without saying that Mr "Billy" Maclean has enlisted as allies pastmasters in the gentle art of conspiracy. Sir Mackenzie Bowell has already given us luminous testimony to that effect.

We are quite prepared to admit that Mr Borden is woefully weak as a leader, but he is in nearly all respects immeasurably superior to any of the men who, La Presse says, are plotting against him. If Mr Borden is forced to step down the latter end of the Conservative Party will be, if possible, worse than the first. We do not know how much of the La Presse story is true, but the fact cannot be disguised that Mr Borden does not receive the loyal and united support of the Conservative Party in Parliament. He has succeeded in outlawing the incorrigible member for East York, but Mr Maclean is not easily "downed," and it need not be surprising if the Opposition itself furnishes the sensation of the session.

Whatever the outcome of the faction fight may be it is deplorable that the leader of the party of Sir John MacDonald and Sir Charles Tupper should be placed in the humiliating position of having to fight a conspiracy hatched among his own followers.—Halifax Chronicle.
