Remember the Band Concert Monday night, 19th Feb.

Piercemont.

A very sad death occurred in our midst when Catharine, wife of Cornelius Sullivan, died after three weeks illness. She seemed to be recovering but suddenly grew worse. All that medical skill could do was done to save her.

She died the 25th of January and was buried in the Johnville cemetery.

Mrs Sullivan leaves a sorrowing husband, five small children, the eldest only eight years and the youngest three weeks old, besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

One precious to our hearts has gone;
The voice we loved is still;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which we can never fill.

Our thaw is a thing of the past, but its effects are still lasting and now we are having real old fashioned winter weather—cold and stormy.

Everything seems very quiet; the potatoes are nearly all hauled to market, and hay and oats are so low that very few are moving them.

A party are talking of going to Smith's lumber camp on Tobique some time this week, not to work but to see how it is home there.

Mrs Pheobe Palmer has returned from Charleston where she has spent some weeks with her daughter Mrs Isaac Nelson.

Miss Sadie O Jameson is visiting relatives and friends in Houlton and Monticello, Me.

Miss Otta Merithew was the guest of her sister, Mrs O Cross, Saturday, and Sunday.

Mrs Mary J Smith is having a very severe attack of erysipias, but is reported some better to-day.

Charles Cross has been afflicted with lame back the last week and is not better at present.

Mr and Mrs Isaac Nelson were guests at Mr John A Porter, to-day.

James Savage has been quite sick but has regained his usual health again.

One of the most successful drive whist parties ever given by the Ladies' Auxiliary, A O H, was held in their rooms on Monday evening. Ten tables were arranged. The prize winners were Miss Tessie O'Brien of Houlton and John McMurray; consolation honors were bestowed upon Miss Tessie Hughes and A O McKinney. A dainty supper was served by the ladies, at 11 o'clock, after which dancing was indulged in. Nine numbers were played by R F Waddleton, violin, and Mrs John J Troy, organ, and no better music could be provided by any small orchestra. George Sharkey acted as prompter. The delightful party broke up at 1.30. The next gathering will be held on Wednesday evening.
