JAMES WATSON.

The death of James Watson, who passed away at Woodlawn on Wednesday of last week, removes one of the best known men in the county.

He was in his 69th year. For the past few years he carred on a general store, but in early life followed agricultural pursuits. For twenty years he was a councillor and was always looked up to as an honorable and respected member. Indeed his whole life is a record of which any man might be proud. In religion he was a Methodist, and in politics a liberal of the old school. The funeral services were conducted from his late residence, Woodlawn, by Hugh Hay & Son, Importers, have made an important change in their stores. The lower store entrance has been closed, and the floor raised to the level of the upper shop. In the newly created basement they have a full line of new goods, so that the place should now almost be call-

The Geo. W. Gibson Co. Ltd

PROPRIETORS OF "THE UP-TOWN

On the first of May a new concern known as "The Geo W Gibson Co Ltd," will embark in the clothing and gents furnishing line. For about a dozen years the president, Mr Geo W Gibson, has conducted a very prosperous tailoring business on Queen Street. In fact the business has grown to such proportions that it numbers its regular patrons by the hundred, and "Gibson tailored clothes" are known as equal to any and surpassed by none. The Queen Street premises being too small for the new enterprise, are to be abandoned, the firm having bought the Winslow building on Main Street, between the Carlisle Hotel and the Post Office. There on May 1st they will open up one of the finest lines of clothing and furnishings ever seen in our province. Associated with Mr Gibson are two clever young men, Messrs J S Eagles and W B Drysdale. Mr Gibson will, with Mr Drysdale's assistance, continue to preside over and direct the tailoring department. Mr Eagles will give special attention to the furnishings and ready-made clothing. The famous 20th Century Brand Clothing will be handled by this firm. Those who have seen this clothing say it is the finest that money can buy in the ready-made line. Hats, caps, gloves, ties, shirts, underwear of all kinds, almost everything exclusive, will be carried in stock by the new firm. The famous Salem Shirts, peerless Hawes and Tress & Cos Hats and many lines of fancy neckwear can be secured only at their store. The Gibson Co is composed of men who have special

Mr H P Baird wishes to state that the article published this week in the Dispatch in connection with the | that the Small & Fisher Foundry is renting of his building on King st, is misleading. The building is still for Mr J Albert Hayden is the leading one and Costs feast. Now that Mr Hazen has put eyes on his faithful follower we presume he will insist that the gentleman from Bath shall have a place on the ticket. Mr Simms is a good faithful conservative, and if he wants a nomination should have it.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mr Chas Trafton Boyer was one of the prominent workers who showed up at the feast. We understand be will not be invited to look after the matter of securing signatures to the nomination papers of Messrs Smith Flemming and Simms.

Mr Hazen failed to give a single convincing reason for the opposition change of base on the Central Railway question. Will Mr Hazen kindly give the faithful a tip as to which of the 'guests of honor" he intends to call to cabinet rank?

BITS OF NEWS.

The Supreme Court has dismissed the appeal in the Equity cases Leighton vs Hale and Carleton Woollen Co vs the Town of Wood-

Tuesday morning three gentlemen supposed to be intimately associated with the underground enforcement of the Scott Act were each fined $2 and cost for creating a disturbance the previous evening. Officer Mc-Carron yarded the trio.

At a certain CPR hotel the other day a man called for a Railway Lunch. Asked to explain he said he wanted "2 shims, one wedge and 3 washers." The waitress "sabed" and brought in 2 pieces of bread, a hunk of pie and 3 doughnuts.

When the case of Milmore vs Town of Woodstock was called on Tues day, Mr A B Connell K C on behalf of the Town objected to the jury panel as made up by the sheriff. He claimed that some coroner outside the town should have summoned the jury. The judge upheld this

SAN FRANCISCO RELIEF. Town Council Grants One Hundred Dollars.

At a special meeting of the Town Council held Wednesday evening it was unanimously voted to make a grant of $100 in aid of the San Francisco sufferers. Revs G D Ireland, G A Ross and A H Kearney were heard, as well as the American Consul, Hon F C Denison. In order to swell the funds the councillors and the various town clergymen have decided to seek subscriptions, and the churches will take special collections. All monies are to be paid into the town treasurer who will hand the same over to Hon Mr Denison, The consul has agreed to forward the money to the proper authorities. Any person throughout the county who wishes to help, no matter to how small an extent, will have his contribution forwarded through the same channel. Let there be a magnificent response.

SHUTE-DIBBLEE.

An event that has been looked forward to with considerable interest took place Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock in the Parish Church when Miss Dora R, second daughter of the late Livingstone Dibblee, bejewellery firm of Shute & Crowe. The ceremony was performed by the Ven Archdeacon Neales, assisted by Rev HE Dibblee, rector of Oromocto, brother of the bride. The church was filled with the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony Mr and Mrs Shute left on their wedding tour which will include a visit to New York. They will reside in Freder icton. The presents were numerous and costly.
