

SPECIAL NOTICE!

On July 2 all Iron Beds and Brass Beds will advance in price.

Prices were raised by all Canadian manufacturers at a meeting held about May 10, and new Price List is now in force.

Fortunately we had our stock well sorted up and have decided not to raise prices until July 2.

MUTUAL BENEFIT PLAN.

See! Our customers have a month to decide and select at the old price, and we can thus reduce our large stock before holidays.

Prices are low now. There will be a rush while they last.

News from the Country.

Bristol.

Mr. Editor as there has not been much said in your paper of late to note whether Bristol was dead or alive I thought it proper to say that we are not dead but sleeping on account of special meetings that have been held here for the past five weeks by the Revs Benson, Walden and Brooks, and they have told us many things that we should and must do to be saved. This sets us thinking and in looking over the commandments given to Moses by the great God of Israel. First, we notice "Thou shalt have no other Gods before me", but little notice is taken of that commandment now, because all believe in the true God and idols are a thing of the past, but you go out to the well provided homes of this country and what do you meet at the door, or if not at the door perhaps he lies on the lounge or he is in the yard playing with the children or perhaps he is in the parlor lying in the woman's lap, an animal that God so abhorred that He forbid the money being brought in his house that was obtained by his sale because He said it was an abomination in His sight and yet the Christians of this day seem to think they can't live without it. They bring him in with their children and they are made to think that he is a noble animal. If he becomes cross they try to give him away because they ignore the thought of putting him to death. When his owner hears his fierce bark he rushes out to prevent some one being bitten, his first utterance is "Get out!" the next is a lie spoken in his favor "Come on mister, he won't bite. Perhaps that man could not be made to lie on any other account but he must not speak evil of the thing that he loves.

Go in a Christian's house and stay one hour and perhaps you hear the name of that idol mentioned twenty times and the good traits of his character shown up while the name of God who he professes to love is not thought of at all. He is honest, and if his boy would insult a neighbor he would immediately chastise him, but the idol can sit up in the yard and even run out in the street and insult every person that passes and that is all right because he has privileges that the boy is not allowed to indulge in.

Now, who has the upper seat in the hearts of that house? God will occupy that seat or else he will not occupy any other.

If a Christian pays five dollars per year to the pastor of his church and a few cents now and again to Foreign Missions he thinks he has done very well while the nuisance sitting in his door costs him more than his yearly sacrifice.

Now, Mr. Editor, if the heathen is cursed for cherishing the idols which he in his ignorance has been taught to worship, how about the Christian with the Bible in his hand who bestows his affection on an animal that God so sternly denounced in his commands.

Let every man begin to work over and against his own door and when we have disposed of our idols then we have some hope of converting the heathen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Emsley with their relations, friends and neighbors take this opportunity of expressing their grateful thanks to D. Frazer and his assistant John Cronan for the kind manner in which they acted on the occasion of the sad death of Clifford Emsley, a smart young man, a little over 20 years of age, and well liked by every one who knew him. When the untimely death occurred Mr. Frazer gave orders that his remains should be conveyed to his parents with the quickest

"PE-RU-NA WAS SUCCESSFUL WHERE DOCTORS FAILED,"

Writes Mr. Cholette After Taking Pe-ru-na.

MR. MENESIPPE CHOLETTE.

Mr. Menesippe Cholette, Ste. Therese de Blairville, P. Q., writes: "I shall never be able to speak in terms high enough to express the entire confidence I have in Peruna."

"There is nothing better to restore health. I took eight bottles. All the pains I had in the head and bowels, also the catarrh of the nose and stomach, as well as all other symptoms disappeared after I had taken the third bottle."

"Peruna was successful where two doctors had failed. Were I the first to testify in favor of this remedy, it might be thought that I exaggerate, but many testimonials before mine have pointed out the great virtue of this effective tonic."

"It would be unreasonable to undervalue a remedy which has snatched from premature death poor human beings who were beyond rescue by the doctors."

"This remedy has restored many a victim of incipient consumption and other diseases."

"Peruna is the best remedy for all catarrhal diseases."

WHEN the catarrh has become systemic—that is, when it has been allowed to spread through the entire system, it is a difficult disease to cure. Physicians do not always understand it and some of them do not care to treat it. Hence the inability of a great many patients to find a cure.

The correct thing to do for these cases is to make use of some internal, systemic catarrh remedy—one that will reach every internal organ of the body and exercise a healing, strengthening and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes lining these various organs. Such a remedy has been found in Peruna.

As Mr. Cholette states, his testimonial is not the first one written in behalf of Peruna, the remedy which brings permanent relief in all cases of systemic catarrh.

CABINET CHANGES.

The Laurier cabinet has lost an able man, a great lawyer and parliamentarian, and a tireless worker by the retirement of Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, minister of justice, who on Saturday was appointed chief justice of the supreme court of Canada in succession to Sir Eleazar Taschereau, superannuated for age.

Mr. Fitzpatrick who is a native of the city of Quebec and is fifty-two years old, early gained distinction at the bar and won general recognition by his able defence of Louis Riel. He first entered political life in 1890 as a member of the Quebec legislature for Quebec county and was re-elected in 1894, but resigned in 1896 to run for the House of Commons, to which he was elected and of which body he has since been continuously a member. He was appointed solicitor general in the Laurier government at its formation in 1896 and three years later succeeded Hon. Oliver Mowatt as minister of justice. Mr. Fitzpatrick easily took first rank in parliament as a debater and as a legislator, and his conduct of the justice department has been above reproach. His wife is a daughter of the late Governor Caron of Quebec and a sister of Sir Adolph Caron who was prominent in successive Conservative governments.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is succeeded as minister of justice by Hon. A. B. Aylesworth who has been postmaster-general for some months, and is properly regarded as one of the ablest lawyers in Canada. Mr. Aylesworth represents North York in the commons and is 52 years old.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, solicitor-general succeeds to the postmaster-generalship, and is reckoned as one of the coming men of the Liberal party in Quebec. He is an able lawyer and a brilliant debater, only 40 years old and has held a seat in the Commons since 1896.

He is a son-in-law of Governor fette of Quebec.

Of the original Laurier ministry, formed in July, 1896, only the Premier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. R. W. Scott, Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. S. A. Fisher, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. Wm. Paterson remain. Those who have retired or are dead are:

Sir Oliver Mowatt, appointed governor of Ontario, since deceased; Hon. David Mills, appointed judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, now deceased; Sir Louis Davies, appointed to the Supreme Court of Canada; Sir William Mulock, appointed a chief justice in Ontario; Hon. J. I. Tarte, Hon. A. G. Blair and Hon. Clifford Sifton, resigned; Hon. C. A. Geoffrion and Hon. R. R. Dobell, deceased; Sir Henry Joly, appointed governor of British Columbia, and Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, appointed chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada.—Fredericton Herald.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Essen, Prussia, June 4.—The engagement is announced of Bertha Krupp, owner of the Krupp works, to Gustav Von Bohlen und Halbach, Secy. of the Prussian Legation at the Vatican.

Fraulein Krupp, who is 20 years old, is one of the richest heiresses in the world. On the death of her father, Frederick Alfred Krupp, in 1902, she inherited a fortune estimated at from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000. In Germany such wealth means far more than a like accumulation in America, for it is four times as great as that of the next capitalist of the empire. Moreover, as sole owner of the great Essen Steel Works, she has absolute control of 200,000 inhabitants, and the fortunes of nearly 50,000 employees.

AN UNPLEASANT CLIMATE.

Karachi, a port in northern India, has a most unpleasant climate. The parched desert country behind Karachi has a terrific heat. Jacobabad, thirty miles away, often records 125 degrees F. The one mail train a day carries a coffin in the hot weather season "for the use of passengers," if need be, and in one year long ago twenty-three European engine drivers died while working trains. A long journey by train in a hot season is particularly exhausting. Carriage windows are kept shut to exclude the heat, and sometimes not only does the woodwork get hot to the touch, but even the water carried in the tanks on the roof can scarcely be endured with the hand.

The Montreal Daily Star, which unfortunately has never been a very sure prophet, says that F. B. Carvell M. P. for Carleton N. B. is in the running for the vacant position as Solicitor-General of Canada.
