We cannot close these items without mentioning a few thoughts in connection with the great apostle which appeared in last week's SENTINEL headed Bistol and signed "Subscriber". Surely a criticism so deep in thought as that leaves such writers as Milton and Shakespeare far in the shade. While we do not take the side of idols very strongly we cannot but agree that dogs are sometimes useful to keep wolves away in sheep's clothing, but further comment is useless as the piece speaks for itself.

Lovely Glen by Red Glen, the great speed producer, has been sold by S Lovely to T Parent of Grand Falls. The price was $500, which shows that the Glen stock is high in these parts. Last year this fine mare when in form frequently stepped miles better than 2:25, so we are safe in saying that she will make the best of them this season.
Barring accidents she should get in the 2:20 list.
