Retiring Manager Honored.

Presentation to Mr. Bruce M. Macleod.

The parlors of the Aberdeen Hotel were filled to overflowing Tuesday evening by representative citizens of the town gathered to do honor to the recent local manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia who has been promoted to the position of agent at Edmonton, Alberta. His Worship Mayor Munro presided and sharp at eight o'clock rose from his place to address the guest of the evening. The mayor said it was to him an occasion of deep sorrow. The departure of a citizen is always to be regretted, but when it is one who has been foremost in business, social and athletic affairs, the regret is tenfold. He had been somewhat intimately associated with Mr. Macleod and knew that in his departure the town loses a good citizen and faithful friend. He had been asked to read an address and make the presentation of a massive and magnificent loving cup on behalf of the citizens. This was gracefully performed after which Mr. Macleod expressed his surprise and deep appreciation of the signal honor conferred upon him. He had tried to do his best while in Woodstock. No place, not even his native city of Charlottetown was more dear to him. The bank had ordered him to go to the great new country where the pioneers of the larger Dominion are laying the foundation of a province that is destined to become great. He would do his best to merit the favor and approval of his superiors. In saying farewell he expressed the hope that in ten years Woodstock will become a city of ten or fifteen thousand, with greatly enlarged industries and expanded trade.

Short address were given by Messrs Dibble, Belyea, Hay, Henderson, Balmain, Geo F. Burden M. P., Calder, Phillips and others, after which "Auld Lang Syne" was heartily rendered followed by three cheers and a tiger for Mr. Macleod.

A Magnificent Success.

The young ladies of Woodstock know how to do a thing well. This fact was amply demonstrated Tuesday evening at the grand ball and "At Home" in Graham's Operagiven by a committee of six fair young ladies, Misses Ida Hayden, Pearl Mc Kibbin, Nan Graham, Bea Williams, Mabel Glidden and Stella Dalling. Great pains had been taken to decorate, and the fine Orchestra of the 87th Regt Band was present to furnish music. At intermission a tempting supper was served. Over 300 invitations had been sent out, and despite the very inclement weather by far the greater portion were present. A program of fifteen numbers and three extras kept all hands busy until 2 a.m. The dance was declared the most enjoyable held in this town for many years.

Telephone Companies Unite.

TH Estabrooks, H P Robinson and SH White were here recently conferring with Drs Brown and Ross. Some time ago the shareholders of the Union Telephone Company voted in favor of amalgamation with the Central Company. The transfer has been made, and in a few days stockholders of the Union will receive Central certificates in place of those they now hold. There will be no changes in the local management. H P Robinson of Sussex is general manager of the Central Telephone Co.

TORONTO.

Certain conservative journals are harping on the result in Toronto, where in the mayoralty contest Emerson Coatsworth polled 4000 odd votes more than F S Spence. The victor is a conservative, and the loser a liberal, and party politics cut considerable ice in the contest, but did not prevent such strong conservatives as J W Flavell, J Ross Robertson and W J Gage from working for Spence. The latter on account of his extreme temperance views was opposed by the liquor men. The conservative machine, the Street Railway and the liquor crowd proved too strong for Mr Spence, who no doubt is quite willing to bow to the verdict.

Gideon Phillips of Vancouver writes that he has read this paper ever since 1858.

THE TOWN ELECTION.

The result on Monday must be taken as a vindication of the old council and the assessment. Couns Fisher, Leighton, McManus and Henderson were re-elected and Assessor Fields ran second on the list. Alex Dunbar sr, a new man to town politics, swept the field, having a lead at every poll. Donald Munro was elected mayor with the record majority of 260 over H D Stevens.

The total vote cast is as follows:—
For Mayor.

Donald Munro.....458
H D Stevens.....198

For Councillors.

Alex Dunbar.....444
A G Fields.....389
Isaiah W Fisher.....363
J S Leighton, Jr.....362
J S McManus.....346
A Henderson.....344
H V Dalling.....321
Robt Kennedy.....276
Fred L Mooers.....215

Old campaigners clearly foresaw the result of the Mayoralty contest early in the day. The victor had better organization and a lot of hard workers. The loser's end was not supported strongly by any of the well known heeled. The defeated candidates for the council put up a good fight. H V Dalling came out at the last moment, only three days before election and did no canvassing whatever. The fact that he came within 24 of winning proves that he has a strong hold on the community, and another year will come well up on the poll. Mr Kennedy secured a large vote under the circumstances, and should feel encouraged to think he has so many friends. Mr Mooers was badly handicapped by coming out too late and also by the certain knowledge of the ratepayers that he was not eligible on account of not having sufficient property qualification.

The new board has unquestionably a strong, clear-minded and clever head, one whose intricate knowledge of town affairs will doubtless be the means of many reforms during the year. Mayor-elect Munro has our best wishes for a successful regime. He will have our assistance in any changes that may promise to work out favorably for the town. As chief magistrate much is expected of him, and no doubt the public will not be disappointed.

Messrs Dunbar and Fields, the new councillors, are good men. They will likely be given important departments, and should prove to be able administrators. The position of finance chairman will need a clever man. Without presuming to infringe upon the right of the mayor to choose his own slate we may perhaps be permitted to express the conviction that Coun Leighton would fill the requirements in an eminent degree. In like manner Coun Dunbar probably knows more of the needs of the water works dept than any of his colleagues.

The defeat of Mr Stevens will give that gentleman a rest from civic labors. He was a conscientious councillor, perhaps too much so for his own personal good. The electors at some future time may see fit to honor him along the line of his ambition. He certainly was badly deceived on this occasion, and may now be able to meditate upon the value of pre-election promises.

HOW WE DO IT.

The Liberals are in the majority in the Kingston City Council and have a Liberal Mayor also. To show their sincerity in the belief that party politics should have no place in the Council, they have given the Tory members the same advantages as they have themselves and will dispense with all party politics during the year. This is as it should be.—Hamilton Times.

Woodstock last year had a liberal mayor, and two thirds of the councillors were likewise grites. They retained in office the holders of the following positions, all strong conservatives:—Chief of Police (with increase in salary), Town Clerk, Town Treasurer (salary doubled and work somewhat increased), both revisors, principal assessor (salary more than doubled), and school trustee. Who can accuse these men of partisanship? This year the board has a conservative mayor, four liberal councillors, one conservative and one independent. There is no present danger of the majority knocking off any heads, so those stuck up Ontario folk cannot lay claim to having the only shining example of non-partisan town government.

J P Malaney attended the Victoria Co council at Andover this week.

BITS OF NEWS.

James McLeod, postmaster at Wilmot, was in town Tuesday.

Leave your orders for engraved visiting cards at this office.

The first meeting of the new council will likely be held at an early date.

Dr Brown of Centreville is to accompany Rev E W Simonson to Cuba.

Haddon Burr of Centreville has about completed arrangements for the purchase of the Turner House here from A J Way, the present proprietor.

Rev B Colpitts and his aides raided a grocery on Tuesday in search of the ardent. A small supply for private consumption was all they secured.

Wm McKinley, aged 62 years, died here on Monday after an illness of about a year from cancer of the liver. The funeral took place on Tuesday.

Brown & Holyoke will move to the store at Payson's Corner on Feb 1st. Harry Stevens will open up with a full line of groceries at the old stand.

The store in the Connell Block formerly occupied by J D Dickinson & Son will, it is said, soon be occupied by an outside concern in the dry goods and clothing line.

School teachers are reported as very scarce. Trustees claim that wages are higher in many districts than ever before. The Teachers' Union seems to be bearing fruit.

Are you satisfied with the kind of oil you are getting, or do you want something better? If you want the best American oil just patronize the grocers who keep Electric Light Oil. This oil is not sold off of tank waggon.—L-38.

The election now taking place in Great Britain is resulting in a landslide for the Liberals, who will have a majority over all others combined. Even London is strongly in favor of the new government.

Rt Hon Arthur J Balfour, ex-premier of Britain and leader of the opposition, was defeated in Manchester City last week by his liberal opponent who polled the surprising majority of 1980 votes.

Rev I A Corbett B D is looking after the spiritual needs of the two United Baptist congregations this week during the absence of Rev F A Currier A M who is in St John assisting Rev Dr Gates in special work.

We are sorry to disappoint several who have written for calendars. The supply was exhausted some time ago. We thank those of our subscribers who kindly sent us copies of SENTINEL of the issue of Jan 5th.

The L P Fisher Estate will doubtless contribute materially to the civic treasury this year. Last year it was assessed upon something like $150,000. It was afterwards sworn at a sum approximating $500,000. Deducting some bequests there should be at least $300,000 still subject to taxation.

This is bad weather for the great family of Cecil. Arthur Balfour, Gerald Balfour and lastly Lord Hugh Cecil, upon whom Lord Salisbury's mantle was supposed to have fallen, have been snowed under as completely as if their family tree only reached a generation back instead of being one of the proudest and most prominent in Britain for hundreds of years.

The annual meeting of the F & D Association will be held next week Frederickton. See advertisement in this issue.

W B Jones, postmaster, and James Tompkins, a prominent resident of Brookville, called at this office on Wednesday.

Correspondents are specially cautioned against sending to this office statements for which they are not prepared to stand responsible.

The coming session of the Dominion parliament will likely discuss several important pieces of legislation. The revision of the tariff is expected.

Coun Timmins has been elected Warden of York County to succeed Coun Scott. The financial report shows the county in a very favorable condition.

The electors of Battersea, London, have elected John Burns by 1800 majority. In York Hamar Greenwood a native of Whitby, Ont, led the poll, capturing a seat that went unionist last time by acclamation. He is a free footer.

In the police court on Wednesday hearing was resumed in the Scott Act cases against T R Blaine of the Hartland Drug Co. Mr Blaine went on the stand and denied selling to the witness for the prosecution. Judgment will be given some time to-day.

C R Ord, master mechanic of the C P R at McAdam, was in town Wednesday.

An old friend of the SENTINEL, writing from the Northwest says:—"Enclosed find two dollars,—one for my renewal and the other to pay for paper to name enclosed. I like to get the home news. I shall always read the SENTINEL."

A local man speaking recently to the SENTINEL stated that he had in mind the erection of four or five tenements in a good locality. They will be fitted up with all modern improvements, including hot water heating. The gentleman says he expects to realize handsomely, as there is a great demand for desirable lots, and the supply is fearfully limited.

Should Church Managers be Communicants?

The above question is a debatable one. The Methodist discipline rules in the affirmative, and the practice in the Baptist churches is the same. In the Presbyterian body it is claimed that many churches have on their boards of management those not members, but merely adherents. In a few communities we know that Methodists and Baptists do not keep strictly within the rules in this respect. Where the best business men of a congregation are not actually identified with the church by having their names on the roll of membership it certainly does seem hard to exclude them from a voice in the direction of affairs, particularly where in many cases they are among the heavy cash contributors.

Two Ways of Curing Pain.

First, drug it away. Second, coax it away by the application of heat. Heat relieves almost any pain, and when it will answer it is the better remedy. Every home should contain a

Hot Water Bottle.

Heat can then be applied anywhere, at any time and in the most effective manner. If the bottle be wrapped in a woollen cloth it will remain hot for hours. There are few things a home can contain that will be more useful than this modern convenience. Those we have are made of the highest quality of Para Rubber, will last for years and cost but little.
