Newburg Junction.

People have stopped waiting for the mud to dry up and have come home from Mrs Ziba Gray's after a month's absence.

Mr and Mrs Charles Robinson were visiting Mrs Ackerson, Sunday. We are glad to hear that both Mrs Ackerson and her son are improving in health.

Mrs F A Robinson and Miss Mary Wetmore were the guests of Mrs Darius Downey Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Jeremiah Dickinson spent Sunday at Hartland.

Fraser Robinson moved to Houlton last week. We wish him success. Ernest Brooks, who has been working in Brighton, spent Sunday at home.

Mrs S Dickinson and Mrs F A Robinson spent Tuesday at Mrs J Nixon's.

Fred Jennings paid a short visit to his home Sunday. He has been working at Millville.

Mrs Calvin Jones and Miss Annie Robinson, of Hartland, made a flying trip to this place one day last week.

Mrs Richard McKinney of Lower Brighton who has been spending a few weeks with her son, John McKinney, has returned home.

"SPRING BEAUTY"

Weston.

Mrs John Craig has gone to Me-casardis, Maine, to visit her daughter, Mrs Preston Huntley.

Misses Waters and Armstrong were the guests of Mrs Jarvis McLellan, May the 5th and 6th.

Elmore Craig has begun labor for the summer with Frank Carpenter.

We are sorry to know that Wm McLellan still continues to be in poor health.

Mr and Mrs Carpenter and daughter of Waterville were the guests of Mrs Carpenter's mother, Mrs Cunningham, last Sunday.

Rev Mr Hart of Jacksonville held service here Sunday afternoon.

G Gartley is improving the looks of his house very much by clap-

Mr and Mrs Judeon Flemming and son were the of Mrs Stephen Porter Sunday.

One of our young men must expect to have a good time this summer. I see he is getting his waggon repaired and painted.

Two of our young men got very much disappointed the other night in hanging May baskets as the girls were not at home.

The rubber tired waggon seems to have got left the other night as well as the steel tired one.

Miss Idella Black was visiting friends in this place last week.

The sorrel horse has a new route lately. I wonder if the front road is the best?

BROWN EYES.

Danville.

The people of this neighborhood are rejoicing over the change of climate which seems to be more favorable for farming.

Mrs D Gallagher and Mrs Wm Gibbons were the guests of friends in this community Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Eva Gallagher's school received a pleasant surprise Tuesday, 8th inst, when Rev Father McMurray, Woodstock, and mother Thomas Superior, and sister Clotilde, St John, paid a short visit. The Rev Father spoke a few words to the pupils, as also did the others. The Mother Superior was formerly Miss O'Brien of Woodstock, having conducted a school in this neighborhood about forty years ago.

Mr and Mrs Jas Brown and Mrs Lawrence, Newburg, also the Misses Gallagher of this place spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs John Hourihan.

Fred Bowles, Grafton, called on friends and relatives of this section Sunday.

Miss Ella Cunningham of Newburg, who has been spending a few weeks in Woodstock, has returned home.

The friends and relatives of Mr and Mrs P Culbert are sorry to learn they intend leaving this part, to take up their residence in Hartland.

We all wish them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

We are all glad to hear the old sawyer concern of Mr Sparrows, has been reorganized under the leadership of his son Joe, and is reported doing excellent work in these parts.

Chas Culbert's new cottage roof house is coming along nicely. We are waiting anxiously for the "house warming" which we hope will follow their advent in the new home.

Mrs Eritus Cummings and family were the guests Sunday of Mrs Wm Gibbons.

The people of this section will have cause to rejoice if the rumor that Rev Father Bradley intends building near the church is realized. This house if built will have all modern conveniences as telephone, hot and cold water, etc. So with that as a central we see no reason why the people of this section should not enjoy telephone privileges.

Mrs Chas Cunningham and Mrs Hugh Johnston of Newburg called one day last week to see one of our oldest residents, Mrs Wm Monahan, who has long passed the three score years and ten allotted to humanity, but who until only quite recently has kept her bed entirely.

Mr and Mrs D McLaughlin have taken up their abode in their new home formerly owned by Jas Keegan.

We hear that D Gibbons is employed to drive the mail for a few private families.

STARLIGHT.

Oak Mountain.

Charles Etey and family have removed to Woodstock where they will reside for the present.

Colds and chicken pox are prevalent in this vicinity.

Mr and Mrs James Blackie of Bulls Creek have moved to this place and are living on the John Blackie farm.

John Ivy of Swamp Road spent Sunday in this place the guest of Mrs Thompson Kerr.

One of our young men has bought a new waggon: look out girls!

Miss Annie Kerr of Debec was calling on relatives in this vicinity one day quite recently.

BRUIN

Races for Woodstock Second Week in July.

While at Woodstock recently Mr James Gallagher, of Gallagher Bros, told the writer that he would give the Frederickton Trotting Park Association several entries for the meeting here in July and said that Carleton County would be well represented not only in the field of horses but also in the crowd of spectators, as the people there are already arranging to patronize the excursion trains that leaves Houlton and Woodstock on the morning of Dominion Day.

The Woodstock track will be a busy place this season and until the opening of the racing season there promises to be lots of working there by fast ones that will make all the rest of them hustle by the time the bell rings. Jimmie Gallagher is preparing to go right down the circuit with a racing stable that will open the eyes of some of them.

GERTIE GLEN WILL BE RACED AGAIN, THIS SEASON.

The beautiful and speedy race mare Gertie Glen, a grand 20 class candidate, will be in the game again this season and the veteran Joe Hal is also being put in training.

GALLAGHER BROS. HAVE LEASED

Then Andy Williams' good little horse that made such a fine showing in the races here last fall will be started again this year. Brown Dick is a good racing proposition and should put in a successful season.

A black gelding out of a mare by Dufferin and sired by Baron Almatier is called Tackhammer. He will be started by Mr Gallagher this year if he shows the turn of speed that there is thought to be in him.

Jay Wilkes, by Pure Wilkes and out of the Emiline mare, Carrie R, 2,18, will be "wound up" again for 1906. This one is owned by Frawley Bros, of St George, Charlotte County, and should be a lively one for the green classes. Jay Wilkes was conditioned last season but met with an accident just about the time for starting.

ALFONDLEY STOCK LOOKS GOOD

The get of Alfondley 2.12 will play an important part in the stables of Gallagher Bros this summer. Alfondley is owned by Mr Tweedie of Carleton County and is a remarkable horse.

As a three year old Alfondley made ten starts and landed seven first monies.

Prince Alfondley is a bay stallion, three year old by Alfondley (2.12) and out of Carrie R (2.28) one of the Emiline mares. He is as pretty as a picture, with nice action and as a two year old last summer stepped a half in 1.21.

Another one is Belle Alfondley. This is another by Alfondley (2.12) and her dam is by Dufferin. Last summer as a two year old Belle Alfondley used to keep the rail birds guessing when Mr Gallagher would let her step along the Woodstock track with Nellie Brown, the mare owned by Dr Brown that went better than .30 at the Frederickton Exhibition races last fall.

The prospect for 1906 racing certainly looks good.
