WILLIAMS—DENISON.

The residence of the American Consul, Hon. Frank Carleton Denison, Woodstock, was the scene of an interesting and happy event at two o'clock, Wednesday, June 20th, when his youngest daughter, Anna Tryphena, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with William Rensselaer Williams of Schenectady, New York. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Churchill Moore, Congregational minister at Keswick Ridge. The house was very prettily decorated in green and white, carnations and roses being lavishly displayed. The bride was attired in white silk airline cloth over tulle, with tulle veil and orange blossoms. She also carried a magnificent pearl and Irish lace fan, a gift from the groom. Miss S. Catherine Denison, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She was dressed in green silk muslin over white silk, and carried a bouquet of roses. Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held, largely attended by intimate friends of the bride. A most tempting luncheon was served, the dining room assistants being the Misses Jessie Carleton Denison, Mary Davidson Clarke and Elizabeth Howard Neales. The presents were most beautiful and costly. That from the father of the bride whose birthday it was, took the form of a cheque for a large amount. Mrs. Denison remembered her daughter with a chest of sterling silver and each of her sisters gave $25 in gold. There were a great many presents from friends in Vermont and other parts of the States, as well as locally.

The happy couple left on the B. A. express for a prolonged trip in the American centres, after which they will reside in Schenectady.

The bride during her residence in Woodstock became exceptionally popular in social and musical circles. She will long be remembered as the leader of the Legato Club, an institution that has more than a local reputation among lovers of music.

GORY—DOHERTY.

A pretty wedding took place in St. John the Evangelist church, Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock, when Rev. Father Coughlin united in marriage Mr. James Gory of Presque Isle, Me., to Miss Margaretta M. Doherty of Mineral.

The bride was becoming attired in a dress of white silk and hat to match and carried a bouquet of carnations and was supported by her cousin, Mary McGrath, who wore a dress of nups veiling with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by the bride's brother, William Doherty.

The bride received many handsome presents among which was a twenty dollar gold piece from her aunt, Miss Nellie McIntyre of Boston. The happy couple left Wednesday morning for their future home in Presque Isle, Me.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Belyea to the number of thirty or forty, called on them at their home on Friday evening last to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the marriage of this estimable couple. Before departing the Rev. Archdeacon Neales, on behalf of those present, addressed Mr. and Mrs. Belyea in felicitous terms, and presented them with a dozen solid silver spoons. Mr. Belyea gracefully replied on behalf of Mrs. Belyea and himself.

STEVENS—DRISCOLL

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday, June 6, in which Everett loses one of her most estimable young ladies. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. H. Spencer of the Norwood street Methodist church, who united in marriage Susie Florence Driscoll of Main street, and Arthur Hurd Stevens of Allston. After the ceremony the happy couple left on an extended trip to New York and Washington. Upon their return they will reside at 12 Ridgmont street, Allston, Mass.—(Everett Herald, 16th inst.)
