

STOP, WOMEN!

AND CONSIDER THE
ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have a severe female trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Sts., Washington, D. C.

Second letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Sts., Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

Postmasters' Salaries May Be Increased.

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—Your correspondent is informed that the Postmaster-General will shortly announce an increase in the scale of salaries for country postmasters based upon the increased cost of living as compared with a few years ago. The formal announcement will probably be made to a deputation of rural postmasters visiting Ottawa at an early date.

Doukhobors Refuse to pay School Taxes.

Langham, Sask., Sept. 25.—The Doukhobors have flatly refused to pay school taxes on their lands, saying that, as they have always refused to have their children educated, less they learn evil things, they will not pay money for school purposes. The authorities here are puzzling themselves to know how to get the tax from them. The Doukhobors have very thoughtfully lost no time in taking up their crops from the land within the Langham school district.

A Nova Scotian View of Mr. Borden.

In the old days when as leader of the Conservative party, he was paid by the party friends, he could do as he pleased, and the office seeker and patronage hunter of the Tory party, who paid his salary expected value for his money in the way of early return to power and a repetition of the high Carnival of former Tory days. While in the pay of such men as the latter, Mr. Borden had a right to be an obstructionist and scandalmonger, that is the conception of his party of opposition leadership and that was his contract and that was what he did, and is still doing. Mr. Borden seems to ignore the fact that since he entered the service of the whole country as a salaried official of the Government, that his position is entirely different and that he must account to the Government and the country for the services that he is rendering for the very large sum of money which he receives out of this the public treasury.—Herald.

Temperance Column.

The Good Templars which have increased in the last two years from 1200 to over 3000 members are still growing. Since the Grand Lodge met 15 Lodges have been organized and re-organized. The fall and early winter is the season when such organizations flourish and the outlook now is that by next year there will be a membership of over 5000. Rev. A. E. Westmorland has been in Victoria County for a month and has organized with the help of J. J. Callahan of Carleton 10 lodges most of them with a good membership and some very strong lodges. On Sept. 15th, John Farley P. G. C. T. assisted by D. V. Boyer of Bristol reorganized Windsor Lodge at Windsor with 38 charter members. The following officers were installed:—James S. Faulkner, L.D.; Mrs. H. L. Dickinson, C.T.; Mrs. E. A. Britton, V.T.; Miss Janie I. Pagett, R.S.; Miss Eadie Telford, A.S.; Robert Neahan, F.S.; Miss Laura Forest, Treas.; Jesse Telford, Chap.; Bartlett Wasson, Mar.; Miss Alma Britton, D.M.; Robert Paulkner, G.; Ray Dickinson, S.; H. L. Dickinson, P.C.T.; Miss Ethel M. Orser, S.J.W.

The Grand Lodge executive are making a special effort to raise a propagation fund to supplement the regular revenues of the order in extending the work in the province. They began with the Grand Lodge officers and although they are called upon to make sacrifices of time and expense yet every officer has contributed to the fund. Contributions are now being sought from the lodges and they are responding generously. After this our appeal will be made to the general public so that all may have an opportunity of promoting the cause of temperance. In the meantime if any of the readers of this article should feel that he is not doing all that he ought for special definite temperance work and would like to make a contribution to the provincial branch of the largest and most aggressive temperance club on earth he should forward his contribution to the Grand Sec. L. R. Hetherington, Elgin, N. B. It is hoped to get the order in the same position as it was in 20 years or more ago, with your help it can be done. How much have you put into the temperance work the last year? Give the order your sympathy your prayer and a small part of your cash for one year as an experiment.

MRS. HUNTER'S STORY

Says she and her Husband Agree Perfectly. Both Quite Well Again.

MRS. I. HUNTER.

Mrs. I. Hunter, of 111 Beaman Road, Kingston, Ont., has written for publication a statement of her recovery from a severe case of kidney and liver trouble and chronic constipation for some time. I was subject to dizziness, bilious headache, nervousness, drowsiness, pains in the back and side, and a tired, weary feeling nearly all the time. I tried almost every remedy, was treated by doctors and druggists with little or no benefit. Finally, a friend advised me to try Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill, and the results have been truly wonderful. My husband has used Anti-Pill for rheumatism and was benefited greatly. We agree that Anti-Pill is a most wonderful medicine and heartily recommend it. This is a very strong recommendation. Anti-Pill is undoubtedly the greatest of family remedies. All druggists, or the Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Plus X. on Kindness to Animals

The other day the Holy Father was graciously pleased to accept two books. Of course His Holiness did not have time to read them then and there, but on learning that they had been presented by the Naples society for the Protection of animals, and that they had been written to show that many of the great saints were conspicuous for their gentleness and kindness toward animals, and that the spirit of the Church, as revealed in many striking ways, has always shown itself strongly in the same sense, the Pope warmly approved of this object, and sent a cordial blessing to the Marquise de Rambures, a devoted daughter of the Church, the authoress. His Holiness also wrote an autograph blessing on his photograph for all who protect from abuse and cruelty the dumb servants given us by God.

Mr. Jerome was asked this week what he thought of the present strength of Mr. Hearst in New York state. His reply was characteristic: "I think precisely what I have always thought about it—that the strength of Hearst rests entirely on the cowardice of the men who assume to be Democratic leaders, but who do not and cannot lead the Democrats of this state. This state is naturally and normally Democratic as Pennsylvania is Republican. But the Democrats up the state are men of probity and intelligence and are moved by appeals to patriotic principle and they would no more think of following the riff-raff which sets itself up as the Democratic organization than they would of following Pontius Pilate or Judas Iscariot."

Stealing The Democratic Fire.

Over in the state of Maine a few weeks ago the Republicans were very nearly unhorsed on the Resubmission cry raised by the Democrats. The Republican orators, both great and small, howled themselves hoarse in the effort to stave off the demand for another test of feeling on the Prohibitory plank in the State Constitution. When the smoke of battle cleared away and the revolt against the Ring was found to have attained such serious proportions that in a state where a majority of 25,000 is no uncommon thing, only a bare plurality of 8500 for Governor Cobb had been recorded, the administration warwhoopers who but a few days previously were crying against Resubmission, turned their backs on their policy, declared that the Sturgis Bill must go, and that Resubmission must come. This is about the limit when stealing the enemy's fire is under consideration. The right about face deserves to fail. The Republicans in Maine must allow their Democratic brethren to champion the Resubmission idea. The only hope of success in the future for Governor Cobb and his friends is to support their Prohibitory people. To adopt the Democratic policy will not save them. It looks as if even Maine will pass into the hands of the Democrats two years hence. Certainly all signs point to the coming victory of the Democrats under Bryan in the race for the Presidency and Maine may just as well join in the procession.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven that it is not a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only cure. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

On Thursday afternoon Sept. 13th the wedding of one of Lakeville's fairest daughters to one of Boston's successful business men was celebrated at the home of J. R. Fowler when his daughter Myrtle Ivy, was married to Lewis Arthur son of the late A. Bishop Carvell. The friends of the bride and groom had decorated the house with flowers, green boughs etc, the arch beneath which the happy pair stood was a beautiful one of evergreen, white asters and Autumn leaves. The bride looked lovely in a wedding dress of white lacy silk, made princess effect with lace yoke. The presents were many and costly consisting of fancy work, silver ware and checks etc. After the ceremony a very dainty lunch was served to the guests, after lunch the happy pair drove away on their honeymoon trip. They left on Monday for Boston, Mass where Mr Carvell, runs a large restaurant and carry with them the best wishes of all their friends.—Com.

The Toronto Mail is still seized with daily spasms over the Queens-Shelburne case which rests entirely with the Supreme Court of Canada. Its latest shriek is that Mr. Fielding is "bombarding the Judges and the Speaker's chair," which is quite near enough to the truth for the Mail. When Mr. Fielding starts bombarding the pigmies who are sniping at him will speedily turn tail and run. There's a by-election coming in Queens and Shelburne which the Tories dread.

MR BORDEN AND GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

Just at present the people of Canada are not interesting themselves very much in politics; but they would sit up and listen, suggests the Manitoba Free Press, if Mr. Borden, in his speech-making tour in the Maritime provinces, would come down from the clouds, and say in good plain, understandable English, what he actually means by all his vague talk about the Government ownership of railways. What is his plan? What railways would he nationalize? How would he administer them? Has he any figures as to what it would cost? These are some of the things that Mr. Borden will have to deal with frankly before he can hope to make any impression on the public; his present course of indulging in vague generalizations is doing him no good, but harm, as tending to confirm the impression, which was responsible for his defeat two years ago, that he is only a talker, who believes the hard-headed electors can be bamboozled by mere words.

If we are ever to have Government ownership of railways in Canada, the first corporation to be nationalized will be the Canadian Pacific Railway. It crosses and covers the whole Dominion; make it a publicly-owned road—if there is any virtue in the Government ownership of railways—the Government will have complete control of the entire business of transportation in Canada. Now if Mr. Borden, in place of talking at large about the beauties of states ownership, will come down to business and declare that if given the power, he will expropriate the whole C. P. R. system from St. John to Vancouver, and will run it with such assistance as he can get from Hon. Mr. Haggart, Mr. Sam Barker and other railway experts in his following, the electors will have something to think about. At present they are quite unimpressed by Mr. Borden's airy platitudes. Government ownership of railways may in the abstract be a very taking subject; but if it is to be a factor in politics, it must take concrete form. Give us your programme, Mr. Borden.

Mr. Geo. F. Smith, the purchaser of Mr. McNarin's business, arrived in town Monday and entered into possession. Mr. Smith is an Amherst boy, and was a school mate of Mr. Turner, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here. For the past ten years he has been with the firm of Carr & Gibson, jewellers of Woodstock, N. B., and was highly valued by them, both for his integrity and his successful work. His prospects in Springfield should be pretty good.—Springhill Tribune.

MOTHER, SISTER AND BROTHER

Died of Consumption, but this Linden lady used Psychine and is strong and well

"My mother, brother and sister died of consumption," says Ella M. Cove, of Linden, N.S., "and I myself suffered for two years from a distressing cough and weak lungs. I suppose I inherited a tendency in this direction."

"But thank God I used Psychine and it built me right up. My lungs are now strong. I enjoy splendid health, and I owe it all to Psychine."

Consumption, whether hereditary or contracted, cannot stand before Psychine. Psychine kills the germ, no matter how it attacks the lungs. Psychine builds up the body and makes it strong, and able to resist disease. Psychine is an aid to digestion and a maker of pure, rich blood. The greatest giver of general health is

Cooks and Bakes perfectly at the same time

There is not another range built in which the heat may be regulated so that you can bake in the oven and cook on the top at the same time without spoiling one or the other.

But you can do both equally well at the same time on the Pandora, because its heat is not wasted and is at all times under the simplest, most positive control.

If you do the cooking of your household you can appreciate exactly what this means.
