> MOHAMMEDANISM NOT IN VULNERABLE.

Christian Alliance writes home from the Western Sondan :--'We have noticed some other encouraging things since coming here. The common talk of the farmers On the first Sunday after our arrival we held a service in the chapel near the town. To our amazement and great encouragement the King, who is a strong Mohammedan, came to our meeting, and with him several influential Mohammedans. Atter the preaching service, Bro Evans asked if any one desired to witness for Christ in testimony. Several testified. He then asked the King if he were willing for any of his subjects to believe in and worship Jesus Christ. He answered in the affirmative. Immediately one of his personal slaves arose and as near as I can ascertain said in substance:-'I am the Kiug's slave but God's free man in Christ.' I once served Moserve only Jesus Christ.' Since then, with the King's consent, he has been with us working on the new house, and is true to his testimony. To our great joy the King said the thing Most Popular Young Lady in Carleton County.

Notice of Sale.

To John M. Hill, of the Parish of Brighton in the County of Carleton, Farmer, his Heirs, Executors, Administraiors and Assigns, and to all others whom it may concern:

all others whom it may concern:

NOTICE is hereby given that under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain Indenture of Mortgage bearing date the Twenty-third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four, and made between the said John M Hill of the one part, and Louise K Stevenson of the Town of Woodstock, in the County of Carleton, Spinster, of the other part, and registered in the Office of the Registrar of Deeds and Wills for the County of Carleton in Book I, No 4, on pages 447, 448, and 449 of said Carle-County Records, there will for the purpose of satisfying the money secured by the said Indenture of Mortgage, default having been made in the payment of the same, be sold at Thomas's little top suit-case, and he without a whimper, kissed his mother.

Quite a way off Thomas set his burken on the ground, and, perched solemnly on the curb, chin in hands, fell into deep thought. The spectacle was to much for the fond mother, who was watching him from a distance.

Very quietly she started down the street and tip-toed up behind Master Thomas. As she was hovering on the point of surprising him with a kiss, a pompous old gentleman appeared.

"Cohild," he said, "will you—hum—tell me where Mr Franklin lives?"

Thomas raised his solemn brown eyes, and regarding the old gentleman coldly, replied: "You go to—I have troubles of my own."—Harper's Weekly.
