Thus closed one of the most satisfactory and spiritual meeting of our denominational history.

There has been organized two churches during the year and added to our denomination swelling our enrolled list of christian members about 150. There have been some 125 to 150 baptised in the year brother G A Giberson heading the list with some 80 candidates, the other brethren adding the remainder of the number reported. The interest as it appeared in our yearly gathering gave much promise for better and more thorough work in our fields of labour. Some of our old ministers have arrived to a day when we cannot expect much more active work from them but we thank God for what they have been to us as country workers in the good cause, and the younger men that have taken hold of our doctrines and faith are proving themselves among us as strong and sturdy workers in this most noblest of all callings, the ministers of Jesus Christ. We hope to live and retain our standing with this one beloved people until we shall see some of our strong and vigorous young men taking hold of this ministry and I hereby make request of our people to hold on to God at the throne of Grace until He grants our request. We need those young men and I believe God will give us them in the near future. We your committee ask for the unbiased, candid and honest convictions of your hearts in relation to our work with regard to our religious paper and request the fullest investigation of its being a factor for good in our denominational life and we do earnestly hope and pray that a righteous decision will be the result.

We would have liked to give a full and itemized report of our meetings yearly and quarterly but we do wish to impose on our good friends the old SENTINEL. They have done well for us for many years and we are thankful for their help in the past and hope that they will have room for this contribution from this humble people.

At the close of our business session the chairman was authorized by vote to extend to the church and kind friends of Bristol the hearty and undivided thanks of conference, for the great hospitality and kindness of the people for providing and caring for them and showing such marked abilities in feeding and lodging so large a concourse of people. May God reward them for their great christian and spontaneous hospitality.

Voted that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet with the church at Carleton, Car Co, the first Saturday at 10 a. m. October 1906.

DISEASED KIDNEYS

Made Sound and Strong Through Dr Williams' Pink Pills.

"Two doctors told me that I was incurable, but thanks to Dr Williams' Pink Pills I am a well woman to-day." This strong statement was made by Mrs Ed. Rose, of St Catharines, to a reporter, who hearing of her remarkable cure called to see her. "A few years ago while living in Hamilton," continued Mrs Rose, I was attacked with kidney trouble. The doctor lulled me into a state of false security, while the disease continued to make inroads. Finding that I was not getting better I consulted a specialist, who told me that the trouble had developed into Bright's disease and that I was incurable. I had dwined to a mere shadow, and suffered from pain in the back, and often a difficulty in breathing. Insomnia next came to add to my tortures and I passed dreary, sleepless nights, and felt that I had not long to live. In this despairing condition my husband urged me to try Dr Williams' Pink Pills, and to please him I began to take them. After using several boxes I felt the pills were helping me and I continued taking them until I had used some twenty boxes, when I was again restored to perfect health, and every symptom of the trouble had disappeared. Dr Williams' Pink Pills, certainly brought me back from the shadow of the grave, and I have since enjoyed the best of health."

Every drop of blood in the body is filtered by the kidneys. If the blood is weak or watery the kidneys have no strength for their work and leave the blood unfiltered and foul. Then the kidneys get clogged with painful, poisonous impurities, which brings aching backs and deadly Bright's disease. The only hope is to strike without delay at the root of the trouble in the blood with Dr Williams' Pink Pills. They make new blood. They flush the kidneys clean, heal their inflammation and give them strength for their work. Common kidney pills only touch the symptoms—Dr Williams' Pink Pills cure for good, and at the same time improve the health in every other way. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name, Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or direct from the Dr Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

ANGLICAN SYNOD ADJOURNED

Selection of Coadjutor Bishop Stands Over Until October.

Fredericton, July 12.—The Diocese of Fredericton is still without a coadjutor bishop. After wrestling all day with the problem of whom to select for the important position, the members of the Synod realized that there was no prospect of a choice being made at present and further consideration of the matter was postponed until October 2nd. On that date the Synod will again convene here when another effort will be made to agree upon some one for the position. To-day, practically a deadlock was reached. On the third ballot Canon Richardson, one of the twelve nominees for coadjutor, received the requisite two thirds vote of the laity. On all save the fourth ballot, however, he received fewer of the votes of the clergy than did Venerable Archdeacon Neales. When the Synod voted for the fourth time both Archdeacon Neales and Canon Richardson were given twenty-one clerical votes. The choice at the present sitting, it developed this morning, lay between these two nominees, but as the laity supported Canon Richardson and the clergy were divided—though giving slightly more support to Archdeacon Neales—it was soon apparent that no election would result, a two-thirds vote of each order being necessary to a decision. The friends of both nominees were unwavering in their support and hence the deadlock. Two ballots were taken in the morning, five in the afternoon and one at night.

After the sixth ballot Judge Hanington counselled the deference of further action. There was, he held, no likelihood of an election at present; hence deference would be wise. Moreover, he was of the opinion that the question of how the stipend of the coadjutor should be made up should also be gone into further. Already, he said, he had received a letter from a prominent Fredericton churchman protesting against the use of the Cathedral fund in part payment of the stipend. Judge Hanington finally moved that the election be left to a later meeting of the Synod, say in October next. Chancellor Allen seconded the motion, though disclaiming agreement with some of Judge Hanington's views on the matter. Mr G O Dickson Otty provoked a little breeze in speaking to the motion. He opposed deferring the choosing of a coadjutor as, he said, with delay there would almost certainly come canvassing, something much to be deplored.

His remarks aroused a more or less general cry of "canvass," as well as an emphatic protest from Rev G A Kuhring, who spoke of them as making up a special appeal in favor of a nominee. Judge Hanington's motion was finally withdrawn and another ballot, the seventh, was taken, after which adjournment was made until half past seven.

In the evening the eighth ballot was taken. There still being no election, Judge Hanington again sought to have the matter stand over until October. This time he was more successful than in the afternoon. His motion found a seconder in Chancellor Allen and on a vote being taken it was determined that when the Synod adjourned it should stand adjourned to meet in Fredericton on the first Tuesday in October. Several gentlemen spoke on the motion before it was put, one member of the clergy suggesting that the names of Archdeacon Neales and Canon Richardson be placed in a box and lots drawn to decide the coadjutorship. A later motion made by Judge Hanington provided that the election of a coadjutor will be the first order of business at the October meeting.

A striking thing in connection with the voting to-day was the evident preponderance of feeling in favor of a diocesan clergyman for coadjutor. The results of the different ballots were as follows:

This afternoon the delegates to the General Synod were chosen. These are Revs Canon Richardson A G H Dicker, Ven Arch Neales, J R, deW Cowie, Dr W O Raymond, G A Kuhring, Messrs F J G Knowlton, W M Jarvis, G O Dickson Otty, A C Fairweather, Justice Hanington, H B Schofield. The substitutes selected were Revs Canon Newnam Scovill Neales, C F Wiggins, Ven Arch Forsyth, Messrs T C L Ketchum, J R Campbell, W B Wallace, Col H M Campbell, Mr W E Smith Hon J P Burchill.

Three parish reports were also presented this afternoon.

Rev G A Kuhring read his report of the year's work in St Mark's parish, it told of a year of steady progress, with increased interest in spiritual things. The sum of $560, the amount assessed, was subscribed for the Diocesan Fund, and the M S C apportionment will be paid before the close of the year.

Rev A B Murray reported an uneventful year in the parish of Stanley.

Rev A G H Dicker presented the report from St Paul's church, St John. The year, he said, was one of progress, the various branches of church work being carried on in an eminently satisfactory way.

Rev C W Nichols reported for St Luke's, St John, and Rev A W Daniel for Revthay. Both told of a year of successful routine work.

During the day Rev A G H Dicker who is a member of the General Synod committee having in hand the compilation of a new hymnal for the Anglican church in Canada, spoke of the committee's work. He told of some of the steps taken by the committee toward the accomplishment of its purpose. The committee had had the benefit of the opinions of all the leading musicians and church organists in the Dominion, and of the data gathered by the several committees of other denominations in Canada which have compiled hymn books. Already some three hundred hymns have been chosen for the hymnal. Rev C P Hanington spoke briefly in regard to the hymnal. He criticized the suggestion that the book be called "The Book of Common Praise." In his opinion it would be much better to call it "The Canadian Church Hymnal." Replying to Mr Hanington, Mr Dicker pointed out some of the difficulties met with in choosing a title for the hymnal. At the same time, he said, no name has yet been finally chosen. Mr W M Jarvis, Mr T C L Ketchum, and Judge Hanington also spoke upon the same subject. The latter gentleman suggested that the hymnal be called "The Church Hymnal of Canada."

The report of the sub-committee appointed to consider the matter of grading the salaries of the clergy was adopted. It was presented on Tuesday.

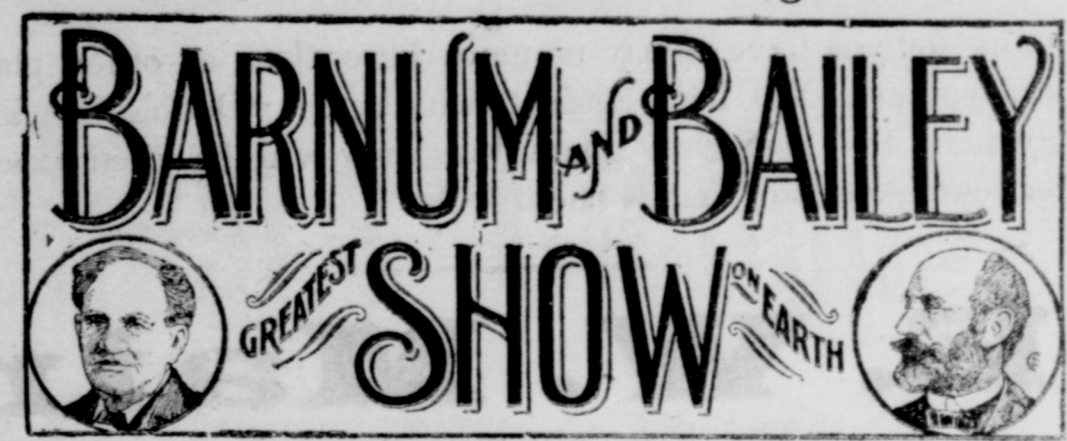

It was decided that the salary of the treasurer of the synod should be $600 and travelling expenses; of the secretary, $200 and travelling expenses. Fifty dollars was ordered to be used in providing prizes at Edgell. Votes of thanks were extended to the people of Fredericton, the transportation companies and the press. Other customary votes were also passed. Shortly before adjournment took place Rev G A Kuhring drew attention to the coming to Canada in the fall of the famous missionary, Bishop Montgomery, secretary of the S P G. He moved that the Synod extend to the bishop through the M L C O, an invitation to visit this diocese during his trip to Canada. Rev G F Scovill seconded the motion, which was spoken to by Judge Hanington. The Synod declared its approval of the motion by a unanimous vote.

Mr. W M Jarvis then moved, seconded by Canon Richardson, that the Synod's thanks be extended to Commissary Neales for the able manner in which he presided at the meeting. The motion was carried amidst applause. Archdeacon Neales replied fittingly. Canon Newnam was also heartily thanked for his most efficient services as secretary. The Synod then adjourned.
