The success of last year's Summer School of Missions encouraged the Conference of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island to make arrangements for a second School to be held during this month in Centenary Church, St John. First session of the School will be held on the evening of 24th. The school this summer will have particular interest, as the Rev Dr Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church, who has just returned from Japan, will be present. Beside Dr Carman, among those forming the Faculty will be Professor McLaughlin, Mrs (Dr) F C Stephenson, Rev Egerton Brecken, and Mr Arthur Ozawa, a native Japanese. Rev William Dobson, President of Conference is expected to be present at the opening sessions. Arrangements have been made in regard to reduced Railway fares, and as this is a particularly pleasant season of the year to visit St John, it is hoped very many will take advantage of this opportunity for instruction and pleasure. Any further information can be obtained from the Pastors of the several Methodist churches throughout the Conference.

On Thursday, the 12th inst, at 2 o'clock p. m. John Wesley the third son of John and Delia Carmichael was laid to rest at Bloomfield, Car, Co. The deceased who was hardly sixteen years of age, had been ailing but a few days. On Monday, he drove to Lakeville with his father to see the Doctor. On Tuesday afternoon Doctors Bearisto and White, after a short consultation pronounced his case brights disease. At 3 p. m. of that day he became unconscious and at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning he passed peacefully away.

Besides his parents he leaves one sister Della, and two brothers Guy and Ellis, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their sad loss. Always cheerful and good natured he was a comfort in the home and a favorite with all who knew him. Scarcely a year ago he was baptized and became a member of Baptist Church at Bloomfield.
