Mr. B. M. Macleod to go West.

Citizens of Woodstock and the surrounding country will be sorry to learn that Mr B M Macleod, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has received word of his transfer to Edmonton, Alberta, and will leave for that city in a few days. His successor will be Mr A F Turner, manager at Moncton. Mr Macleod is a most popular citizen, whose removal will be a severe loss in social circles, as well as to the whole community.

WITH THE FAST ONES.

On New Year's Day the local horsemen had considerable fun on the speedway. Great interest centered in the brush between the frauley horse drawn by Jimmy Gallagher, and Brown Dick, the speedy stallion owned and handled by Andrew Williams. On Christmas day Mr Gallagher's horse was too speedy for the stallion but Brown Dick turned the table on Monday, after a hot contest, thereby winning back the title of King of the Ice for his driver.
Wm Bolger, B B Maner, J T A Dib-blee and many others were on hand with fast ones. There are a lot of promising young horses here, and it will not be long before Woodstock is once more known to the outside world in the manner it was when Lady Glen, Gertie Glen and Dora were at their best.

QUEEN—FRIPP.

James M Queen the well known insurance man, Provincial manager of the Canadian Life Company, was married on Wednesday morning to Miss Nellie Fripp from the residence of the brides father, Victoria Terrace. The ceremony took place at 5 a m, in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties, the Rev G A Ross officiating. The bride and groom left on the 6.45 train for an extended bridal trip to the South taking in the leading American cities en route.
On their return Mr and Mrs Queen will take up their residence in St John, Mr Queen having purchased and fitted up a cosy home on Leinster Street. In the lady who is to preside over its destinies, Woodstock loses one of its representative young women. All who know her will assent to the proposition that she is a young lady of more than ordinary attainments and force of character. She will be especially missed in the Methodist Church, of which she was an interested and efficient member. The officers and members of the Sunday School formally testified to their appreciation of her worth in an address a copy of which is here appended:—

Dear Miss Fripp:—

The officers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday School feel that they cannot allow you to sever your connection with the Sunday School with which you have been associated for so many years without testifiing in this slight degree to their appreciation of your various services there.
Whether as a scholar, a teacher or an officer your punctual attendance and your cheery and ready disposition have been an inspiration to us and have endeared you to the hearts of all with whom you came in contact. We feel that such a happy combination of good qualities as those with which you are blessed, being a willing worker, an efficient teacher and a trained organizer will indeed be hard to replace. It is a matter of rejoicing with us however that you are leaving us under such auspicious circumstances and we all unite in wishing you a long and happy married life. May the Divine benediction rest upon you and your fortunate bridegroom.

"Before thine Altar Throne This mercy we implore;
As thou hast knit them Lord in one, so bless them evermore." Of one thing rest assured you have the good wishes of every member of the Sunday School.

Signed on behalf of the School

ARTHUR W. SMITH,
Secretary.

January 3rd, 1906.

The address was accompanied by a suitable gift, other gifts among the many of which the bride was the recipient were a gold lined sugar shell from her Sunday school class, a purse of gold the gift of her father and a substantial cheque from a grand aunt, Mrs Bellingham, in England. The groom's present to the bride was a set of Canadian milk fur and a pearl set crown brooch. Both gifts were of exceptional beauty.

SHERWOOD—MILBURY.

The residence of Mr and Mrs George Milbury, Bath, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock when their daughter, Maude J, was united in marriage with Mr O Miles Sherwood of Centreville. Rev Joseph McLeod D D of Fredericton performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev L A Fenwick B A, in the presence of nearly sixty guests. Harry F McLeod, the well known barrister, and cousin of the bride, was best man, while Miss Emma Estabrooks of Burton, Sunbury Co, also a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The bridal party came in to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march, the bride being attired in white chiffon taffeta, embroided with chiffon trimmings.
She also wore a veil, with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, with a sprig of white heather in her hair and the bouquet, for good luck. The bridesmaid looked very charming in a costume of blue crepe de chene with allover trimmings, and carried a bouquet of sunrise carnations. After the ceremony all present indulged in a most tempting repast, skilfully served by willing hands. The bride was the recipient of a splendid array of gifts, that of the groom being a magnificent sunburst of solid pearls. To the bridesmaid he gave a Roman gold locket with monogram. Among the very many presents were the following:—

Mr and Mrs Geo Milbury, bureau set; Rev Dr McLeod, silver salver; H F McLeod, cut glass berry set; Mr and Mrs Theodore H Estabrooks, cut glass flower vase and mirror; solid silver sugar and cream set, R F Randolph, F Wayland Porter and R L Phillips; Miss Sherwood, fern dish; Mr and Mrs LeRoy Lee, fancy ornament; Mr and Mrs J O'Hara, fern dish; Lt Col and Mrs D McLeod Vince, Battenburg table cover; Mrs Henry and Miss Helen Estabrooks, table napkins; F C Squiers, bread tray; Mr and Mrs N Foster Thorne, gold lined sugar shell and butter knife; Mr and Mrs F B Carvell, silver salver; Mr and Mrs R D Ross, cut glass bowl; J A Estabrooks, silver bon bon dish; W C Rising, cut glass berry bowl; Mrs Faulkner, hand painted sofa pillow; Mr and Mrs Richard Dole, carving set; Mr and Mrs J F Harper, chocolate and biscuit jar; Mrs E S Cook, drapery; Mr and Mrs Jos McCready, sugar shell; MR & A (St John) piece of statuary; Rev L A and Mrs Fenwick, berry bowl; Mr and Mrs A B Gaines, bon bon dish; Mr and Mrs H H McCain, biscuit jar; G B Fowler, half dozen bread plates; Miss M S Turner, bon bon dish; Miss M A Estabrooks, handkerchief box; Mrs Hutchinson, bon bon dish; Mr and Mrs A J Lee, silver salver; and many others.

The bride's going away suit was of brown broadcloth and sealskin coat.
They will reside at Centreville where the groom is extensively engaged in mercantile pursuits. Mrs Sherwood will be at home to her friends on the fifteenth and sixteenth instant. A partial list of the guests at the ceremony is here given:—

Rev Dr McLeod and H F McLeod, Fredericton; Miss Emma Estabrooks, Burton; Mrs Theodore H Estabrooks,

St John; R D Ross, St Stephen; Mr and Mrs John F Harper, Mr and Mrs H H McCain, Mr and Mrs E R Squiers,

O Squiers, Misses Mary Turner, Ella Turney, Helen Hutchinson, Mabel Estabrooks, Helen Estabrooks, Mrs Henry Estabrooks, Rev L A and Mrs Fenwick, Miss Pauline Milbury, George Milbury, Master Morley Mil-bury and Mrs Chalmers Milbury.

CLARK—CRONKITE.

A very interesting event took place at Woodstock N B on Dec 27th, when Miss Etta Cronkite daughter of Mr Wilson Cronkite, was united in marriage to Manser D Clark of Lower Wakefield. The ceremony was performed by Rev Allison Currier. The bride looked charming in a gown of white nunsveiling. Ruby Cronkite sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Ernest Britton of Presque Isle supported the groom.
After a delicious lunch, and amid showers of rice and best wishes from all, the happy couple left on the express for Presque Isle, where they will reside for the winter. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a handsome gold ring, and to the groomsmen a gold watch chain.

Baptist Church. Topic—Decision for Christ.

Friday, Jan 12, in the Methodist Church. A meeting addressed by Rev G U Campbell, secretary of the Canadian Bible Society.

Children's Party at the Carlisle.

A delightful children's party was given at the Carlisle on Tuesday evening by Miss Hazel Bender and Elmo Tabor. Music and dancing were the main amusements. Miss Neales, Miss Tracey, Miss Hume, Mrs Duncan and Mrs Gabel assisted Mrs Tabor in looking after the young people who enjoyed the gathering immensely. A list of those present is here given:—

Perley Hartley, Bliss Brittain, Willie Brittain, Arthur Fisher, Chas
Jones, Weenie Jones, Clyde Camber, Burdette Hay, Avarad White, Harold Garden, Ned Raymond, Douglas

Mrs George McLeod.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs George McLeod of Farmerston, which took place Wednesday morning after a long illness from consumption. She was 48 years of age. We hope to publish an extended obituary notice next week.

The Dispatch.

Our contemporary has just put in a new press, and has a gasoline two horse power engine ordered to supply power to run it. We are glad to note these signs of progress.

A CONTRAST.

In Toronto, where there is a normal conservative majority of five or six thousand votes, the electors chose Emerson Coatsworth as mayor last Monday in preference to F S Spence. The latter though a very able man was snowed under by a lightweight whose main qualification for office of any kind is his dyed in the wool Toryism. In Woodstock where the liberals are quite as numerous as the conservatives the latter are having the election all to themselves.

There was a stair climbing contest on the Eiffel Tower, Paris, recently.
Three hundred competitors climbed the 729 steps all in racing costume, with rubber shoes. The winner performed the feat in three minutes and nineteen seconds. The height climbed is three hundred and seventy-three feet.

Deaths.

MONTGOMERY—A "Bedell Set" letter t, on the 28th ult, John Montgomery, in the 57th year of his age. He was born in the parish of Aghedoo, County Derry, Ireland. In April 1841, he sailed from Derry, and after a stormy passage of eight weeks he landed in St John After working in the shipyard for about a year he made his way to Carleton County.
About sixty years ago he settled in Bedell fel-dement, where he remained until his death.
He leaves a widow, six children and two brothers. He was an honest, upright man, and respected by all who knew him.
