Story of the Great Fire.

A Whole Block Wiped Out in the Heart of the Town.

About three o'clock Wednesday morning huge columns of smoke were seen pouring out from the roof of the Payson building at the corner of Main and Connell Streets. A few moments later tongues of fire burst through the roof. In the meantime an alarm had been sent in, and the brave fire ladders were on the scene, fighting the monster conflagration, which spread with fearful rapidity. In fact the flames had made such headway before being discovered that all the shops were filled with smoke. The wooden structures went up almost like a pile of matches. With wonderful bravery the firemen worked almost in the jaws of death. Owing to their noble efforts and the fact that there was little or no wind the fire did not spread beyond the block. A list of the places of business in the burned district is here given:—

Payson building, owned by H N Payson, occupied downstairs by Holyoke & Brown, grocers, and The Singer Sewing Machine Co. Upstairs by Cogger's barber shop and Wilson Photo Studio. Building total loss. Holyoke & Brown lost some shop fixtures, and considerable stock. W J Cogger, barber, got out about two thirds of his fixtures. Wilson's loss quite heavy. Singer people's loss not overly great. All the tenants fairly well covered with insurance, and $1000 on the building, for which the owner last week refused an offer of $4000.

Garden building, owned and occupied by Garden Bros, as a drug store. Total loss. Stock partially saved. Insurance goes a long way towards making up loss.

McAfee building, owned by John McAfee Estate. Total loss. Occupied downstairs by Sullivan Bros meat store; up-stairs by Robt Welch, pool room. $500 on building worth $2500; Welch had insurance. Sullivan's loss on meat store, about $500.

Young Building, owned by L E Young, barrister, insured. Occupied downstairs by Sullivan Bros, grocery; L E Young, law office; and Miss Turner, ladies' ware. Sullivan's grocery stock was partially saved, but there is considerable loss, covered by insurance. Miss Turner was out of town. Her loss will be considerable. Upstairs over the grocery Allen Embleton had recently opened a fine new barber shop. All his chairs and other fixings are a total loss. He had small insurance.

Loane Building, owned by Mrs J Loane, occupied upstairs as residence, downstairs by Loane's Fancy and Book Store. Building, clothing, bedding, household furniture, etc, total loss. Stock, total loss. Fair amount of insurance. Mr and Mrs Loane when aroused found their house full of smoke, and it was with some little difficulty they escaped.

Payson Building, owned by H N Payson, occupied downstairs by Sheasgreen Drug Co; upstairs by Merritt, photographer. Upper part destroyed. Merritt saved considerable of his fixtures, etc. Sheasgreen

Co removed most of their stock, etc. Remainder destroyed by water. Insured. The owner of the building refused $4000 for property.

Doherty Building on Connell Street, owned by James Doherty, St John, occupied by W F Blake. $500 on building. Blake lost stock and fixtures. Some insurance.

The fire was under control by seven o'clock, but not before it had swept the block with the exception of the Sheasgreen Store. At one time it seemed as if the flames would cross the street to the Hotel, but by desperate efforts this was averted. The heat was so great that the plate front in Gibson's Shoe Store, clean across the street, was cracked. Too much praise cannot be given the firemen, who worked like beavers, and risked their lives a dozen times in their brave work.

Holyoke & Brown have taken the store on King Street formerly occupied by G W Vanwart, and Mr Cogger will set up business in the front of Fewer Bros' store. The Sheasgreen Co have temporarily leased the Gibson Store on Queen Street, pending the drying out of their old quarters. Sullivan Bros, with characteristic energy, have opened up with a full line of groceries in the Lynch building near the Creek, having moved their pool tables upstairs. Garden Bros were alert and secured the fine shop in the Lindsay brick building next to the Town Hall, where they are going ahead as if nothing had happened. John Loane has temporarily secured possession of the McDonald building on Queen Street. He has closed a contract for a supply of brick and will at once rebuild. Garden Bros have every intention of putting up a new building. Mr Young will doubtless erect a fine new structure. The McAfee Estate will not rebuild. Under recent legislation all new structures in the confines of the Fire Limit, so called, must be of brick. Although this will cause a larger outlay at the start, it will in the end prove a great benefit. As business is gradually working up-town there is a splendid opportunity for some person or firm to put up a block that would prove a profitable investment. The insurance adjusters now have the field, and in most cases the work is easy.

NOTES.

H N Payson informs us that notwithstanding the fact that he is a heavy sufferer he will at once begin the erection of a fine brick building on the corner stand. He has refused several tempting offers for his unexpired lease of the ground.

Photographer Neilson has offered the use of his studio to Prof Wilson.

J Gillis Keator arrived on the scene from St John just eight hours after the fire started.

The fire was not altogether subdued until nearly noon. The hose was still playing on the ruins at that hour.

A Champion of His Race

Chief Sark of the Micmac Indians of Prince Edward Island

What Mr. Booker T Washington is to the negroes of the United States Chief John Sark of Prince Edward Island is trying to be to the Indians of Canada. Well educated for one of his race, of pleasing manner, and the possessor of unusual shrewdness, Chief Sark is beginning to be recognized throughout the maritime provinces as one of the most public-spirited men of his race. Though only forty seven years of age the chief has exercised his imediate authority over the Micmacs of the Island Province for more than ten years, and as there are more than three hundred of these full blooded "Americans" under his jurisdiction it will be seen that his position is no sinecure. Recently some ultra-democratic members of the tribe began to air their "republican" ideas in the Government reservation at Lennox Island, claiming that it would be better for all concerned if the chieftainship were abolished. Such a course would necessarily be fatal to the national existence of a roving people, and this danger Chief Sark so successfully explained that he was immediately re-elected for another term. Though only the actual head of the Prince Edward Island Micmacs, the subject of this sketch has always entertained ambitious views regarding the welfare of his race throughout the entire Dominion. At the time of writing he has just finished an official visit to the Canadian chiefs and to the Department of Indian Affairs at Ottawa.

In person Chief Sark is a magnificent specimen of manhood. Though the physical traits of his race are dominant in his face and form, yet a strain of hardy French blood can be noticed in his high forehead and piercing black eyes. His official residence is at Lennox Island, a beautiful spot about ten miles to the west of Summerside, P. E. I. Here upon the 10th day of August every year the chief presides over the ancient festivities which usher in the feast day of the Micmacs' patron saint, St Anne.

The chief while here on Victoria Day made many friends. He was pleased to meet the Premier on his Ottawa trip, and says the crisp $10 note the liberal leader slipped in his hand as they parted will always be treasured as a souvenir of the occasion.

Don't you do it! Don't sell your dairy or deacon skins to peddlers for 30 to 40 cents when you can get 65 to 75 cents from O M Sherwood, Centreville.

William C. Hunter.

The death of Wm C Hunter occurred at Debec, Wednesday morning, May 18th at the age of seventy three years, nine months and ten days. Mr Hunter was a native of Clackmanashire, Scotland. In his boyhood he followed the sea; he came to America about 1859 to visit his brother, Rev Dr John Hunter, with where he made his home until September 1882 when he married Miss Annie Anderson, of Kincardine, Scotland. He then settled at Oak Mountain where he lived until the death of his brother, Rev Dr John Hunter, when he moved to Richmond where he lived until his death.

His body was laid to rest in the Presbyterian church burying ground McKenzie Corner beside those of his wife and daughter, Elizabeth. He leaves to mourn their loss seven daughters Mrs W W Lawrence, Mrs J W Montgomery, Mrs E T Watson and Misses Annie, Maggie, Gracie and Sarah at home besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

He was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him and will be greatly missed in the community and at the old home fireside.

Dearest father thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
When in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Miss Maude Allen has just graduated from the Worcester City Hospital Training School for Nurses. She had the honor of leading her class, with the exceptionally high general average of 98. Miss Allen has been offered and will accept a position on the staff of the institution.

Rev. I. A. Corbett Departs.

The faithful and energetic pastor of Albert Street Church having accepted a call to Bear River, preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday last and this week took his departure to his new field. His fellow boarders at the Woolverton Hotel met him Monday morning and presented him with a dozen solid silver spoons and the following address.

REV. I. A. CORBETT,
Dear Mr Corbett:—We, your friends having learned of your intended departure from among us wish to express our profound regret.

Our association with you has not been that of flock and pastor but of loggers and companions on the journey of life and although that association has been brief it has nevertheless been of a happy and helpful character to us.

We shall miss you from our festive board where we would like to see you for many a long day yet, but if in leaving us you will be making another happy, and also entering upon greater happiness yourself, then we must not be selfish.

In your new field of labor and in your new domestic life may the greatest happiness be yours, and let this souvenir which we ask you to accept remind you of the friends and days spent at the "Woolverton House."

Woodstock, N. B., May 28th, 1906.
The silverware will come in handy as on Wednesday next at Aylesworth the 'rev gentleman will wed Miss Ethel Eaton.

Explanation.

We have received a communication on the Shaw-McKendrick difficulty at Pembroke, which we are asked to publish. Our correspondent is evidently not aware that it is a crime for a newspaper to comment upon a case which is still before the courts. We would be liable for contempt, and would probably get a week behind the bars if we commented upon or published anything dealing with this or any other sub judicial matter
