Subject of Illustration.

On the last page of this issue we present an excellent cut of Rev Robert G. Fulton, the coming pastor of the Methodist Church. On Sunday, July 15th, the new minister expects to preach his first sermon as pastor of this church. He is young, eloquent and vigorous. Critics look upon him as one of the brightest lights in the ranks of the younger men in the conference.

The Sullivan Boys.

The attention of our readers is directed to the large ad of the Sullivan boys. These energetic fellows have inaugurated a great cheap sale. Read their full page ad and learn what wonderful values they have to offer. As the firm have been so busy after the fire there was not time to count the votes for this paper but next issue they will give the standing up to date.

FIRE NOTES.

Mrs J. Loane & Co estimate their loss at over $5000. The McAfee Estate is hit pretty hard as their insurance was small. Miss Turner was not insured. Allen Embleton had $300 on his barber shop.

There will be at least three fine brick structures put up just as soon as material can be brought here for the purpose.

L. E. YOUNG.

L. E. Young, barrister, will have his office for a few days at his residence, corner of Albert and Green streets. In a week or so he will erect a small temporary structure on the old site. He has already ordered brick for the erection of a splendid three story building which will go up during the summer.

C. H. MERRITT & CO.

C. H. Merritt & Co wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to the citizens for their generous assistance rendered during the fire in removing part of goods from the burning building. We expect to be ready for business at the old stand in a few days, as the Studio part of the building was only partly destroyed.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL.

The three Shannons from Summerfield arrested recently on the charge of assaulting Joseph Holmes, were given their preliminary examination on Wednesday before Magistrate Diblee. Mr Hartley appeared for the complainant, and Mr Connell for the defendants. From the evidence of the complainant and his son it appears that on the twenty second day of the month of May the three defendants gave Mr Holmes a rather unwelcome salute as he drove to the premises worked by him last year but now owned by the Shannons, for the purpose of securing a harrow which he had left there during the winter. The Shannons pelted him with rocks, using him up quite badly. In the face of this treatment he withdrew from the scene and came to town where he secured medical treatment. At the conclusion of testimony the defendants were sent up for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction.

"WHEN WOMEN LOVE."

One of the greatest successes among the melodramatic productions is Spitz & Nason's great play, "When Women Love." Replete as it is with startling situations, novel mechanical effects, scenic splendor, strong pathos, and quaint humor, the strongest feature is its fidelity to real life. Every character is human. In the city of New York will be found thousands of people who will recognize among the characters of this play exact prototypes of some one they know. Yet the play is pure fiction. It deals with the everyday life of people in the great metropolis; their loves, their wrongs, their joys, their sorrows, their crimes, their virtue, and the ultimate success of the right and the downfall of the wrong. Opera House Monday June 4th.
