Hartland.

For several days past the ice has filled the river from shore to shore and if there was less water it would have been clogged before this.

A small snow storm on Saturday and Sunday a.m., but a few inches more is required to make sleighing and furnish roads for loaded teams, as the present condition is a great drawback to Xmas trading.

We hear of one farmer taken to jail for non payment of phosphate bill. If dealers in this obnoxious fertilizer intend pressing payment among many who ventured into the potato enterprise then the jail will have many more customers. Those who were so anxious to order and import this stuff and force it upon farmers where in many instances they well knew they could only be paid through a good crop, and as the crop was an entire failure leniency must be observed to prevent some at least from parting with their last article unless what little the law entitles them too. I assure you that is very small, much less under execution than in the other provinces. Dealers be as merciful as possible, the good Lord may grant a better season for potatoes in 1908 and many of you farmers don't be so greedy do what you can within your means and be satisfied with a good living and a moderate surplus from year to year. Our most independent farmers obtained what they have by such accumulations.

Our laundry man Sim Fong will be absent for a few days on a visit to St. John.

Mr and Mrs John McGinnis of Wilmet were in town on Monday p.m.

Now the squeal is heard. The collector of water tax is around, tax is heavy. Cost of late fire examination is included.

Many accounts with J. C. Everett for collections demand immediate attention, accounts due to him personally will be left with a J.P. for collection at end of this month.

Hartland merchants are fairly wild in their importations of goods for Xmas season. You can scarcely imagine how or where they obtained such an endless variety and a large proportion of it is useful in some way or for some purpose. All that is fancy and luxurious in the cooking line and all that can be worn to advantage or utilized as among the every day wants, cannot be classed as unnecessary and prove money thrown away, neither can it be said that in the purchase of gifts suitable for the youngest or adopted as a present or keepsake to the older ones that it is money squandered. How many persons now in years will

EASY TO MIX THIS.

Prepare it at Home By Shaking ingredients Well in a Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York Daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here, at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatism afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

bring out some gift on Xmas day and tell you that it was a present from a dear daughter, son, mother, father, husband or lover who long ago passed away. What a pleasant memory such revives. It may be a photograph, a child's chair, or the old arm chair. Even a doll the property of the first born, a little sled, a book, a piece of lace or embroidery the work of my dear little girl whom I loved and in whose death I was near broken hearted. Oh! no these things must not be forgotten or omitted. They are essential to establish and perpetuate feeling of love and tenderness in the home circle. How the little tots enjoy to hear you talk about Santa Claus in his wonderful exploits, what he brought me. I do not know how he got in, he could not bring that rocker down the chimney, mamma don't know just how he found the stockings and put so much in them and he had everything. He must have had an awful big sled and the biggest pair of reindeers that ever came from the cold regions, does it ever occur to you readers that notwithstanding the short period of one year that as the time approaches the interest does not lessen, but rather increases and the parents or brother or sister who cannot appreciate the the custom of Xmas giving is regarded as rough, unrefined, selfish and heartless, who cares anything about that stingy miserly soul who has nothing to contribute to make happy the young or gladden the hearts of the older. Oh! how a mother cherishes the fond remembrance of that son who was always so kind and bestowed many gifts, that son may be abroad, in a foreign land or he may have gone to the grave, but he has not gone from that mother's heart. Children remember dear mother during this future season and do not forget father or brothers and sisters, don't forget each other, strengthen the ties of your relationship to the extent that you may always love each other. Now to all we would say do not be selfish. Remember the poor, have a gift for the orphan who has no parents to provide for them. Remember the widow in her loneliness and cheer her disconsolate heart by kind and generous remembrances. For all in this locality there is no excuse, you can find a suitable gift in our stores, Keith & Plummer, J. T. G. Carr's, Estey & Curtis and something in all the stores that will in some case answer. Oh! how many would be made happy on the 25th of this month if I had some less than a million dollars.—AD-DON.

Miss Jean MacPhee, the pleasing and capable demonstrator for Royal Household Flour, has just concluded a week's stay in town, having delighted hundreds of ladies at Manzer's with the delicious bread, cake, rolls and pastry made from that excellent flour. She has spent the last three days at J. T. G. Carr's, Hartland, where a similar successful demonstration was put on. One local dealer informs us that he has had eighteen new customers for Royal Household within the past week.

JOTTINGS.

The friends of ex-Coun James McManus are urging him to run for Mayor.

Don't forget the Lantern Service at the Army to-morrow night. Special music by the clever lecturer, Ensign Ash.

From now until after Xmas Gibson & Ross are offering some great bargains in shoe packs. See their ad with prices.

Until further notice each Wednesday a special car for fruit etc will leave St John for Woodstock and points North.

Mrs Chas Whenman was visiting in Florenceville two days of last week, the guest of her sister, Mrs Chas N Boyer.

Evelyn Victor is a student of Northampton was visiting a week recently with her grand parents, Mr and Mrs Chas Whenman.

The Moosehead Brand Shoe packs are being sold at Gibson & Ross' at prices lower than any place in the country. Don't miss them.

Miss B K Dibblee and brother Harry leave to-morrow evening for Hervey Junction, Quebec, to spend Christmas with their parents.

S G Barter, the able and popular organizer for the Chosen Friends, was in town Saturday. Mr Barter is an active and successful worker.

Coun Frank R Shaw is a candidate for the office of Warden. The Sentinel also hears a rumor that Coun Bell of Richmond is being solicited to offer.

A young man named Fisher belonging somewhere up river was being brought to town Tuesday on the down freight to undergo an operation for appendicitis, but died on the way.

Woodstock Carriage Co has now all complete 30 Dexter and 5 Double Seated Pungs and as they intend to close up their business these will be immediately disposed of for lowest cash price.

Since Andrew D McCain refused to run on the government ticket his former party friends in town say he was no good anyway.—Press.

That is not the truth, and the Press knows it is uttering a malicious falsehood. The game now, apparently, is to sour Mr McCain. It won't work.

F B Carvell M P left last Saturday night for Ottawa. The House has since adjourned, and about all the members save those from the far West have gone to their homes for the holidays.

Ensign Ash of the Divisional Staff will tomorrow night (Saturday) conduct a very interesting lantern service at the Salvation Army Citadel, King St. Everybody invited to attend. Tickets only 10c.

All persons indebted to W R Snow for laundry work up to Aug 6, 1907 are requested to call at the Laundry and settle. After Jan 1st these back accounts will be given to a collector. W R Snow, Woodstock, N B.

There is a rumor that Hon O W Robinson will resign the premiership, and be succeeded by Attorney-General McKeown. Of course the story comes from Opposition sources, and is therefore open to grave suspicion.

A great deal of favorable comment is heard concerning the appearance of the display in the window of The Blue Front Jewelry Store. Mr Dalling has a magnificent line of holiday goods. Santa Claus himself could be outfitted there alone. Have a Look.

"We wrote more business in the ten months of this year, than in the whole of our previous existence."

Above is an extract from a letter from the manager of the Atlantic Mutual Fire Insurance Association, Head Office St John. S J Parsons, Local Agent.

Business Reasons. "Solely for business reasons," is the way the Press puts the withdrawal of W B Jonah in Albert. Of course it was business. Didn't Mr Jonah know he had no business in a campaign when he couldn't carry his own parish for the Council? Mr Prescott, his successor, will after the election, wish he too had had "business reasons" for getting in out of the wet.

Mr and Mrs Willard R Gill of British Columbia arrived home to spend their Christmas holidays, and are the guests of James McDaughall. Mr Gill has been overseer of one of the British Columbia up-to-date saw mills for sometime and gives a good account of the West and says there are splendid opportunities for young men in that part of the world who aim at success and pursue the aim with a determined courage and perseverance. Owing to the drop of the money market business is very quiet but British Columbia is looking forward to next year as a record breaker.—Com.
