

BISHOP HOLSEY SAYS: "PE-RU-NA IS A BLESSING."

He Declares Pe-ru-na to Be a Triumph of Medical Science, A Magnificent and Sovereign Remedy. Having Tried Many Remedies and Failed to Find a Cure, Tried Pe-ru-na and Was Promptly Relieved.

The Bishop's Strong Tribute to Pe-ru-na.

L. H. Holsey, Bishop C. M. E. Church, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have found Peruna to be a great remedy for catarrh. I have suffered with this terrible disease for more than twenty years, until since I have been using Peruna, which has relieved me of the trouble. "I have tried many remedies and spent a great deal of hard-earned money for them, but I found nothing so effectual in the cure of catarrh as the great remedy Peruna. "I feel sure that Peruna is not only a triumph of medical science, but it is also a blessing to suffering humanity. "Every individual who suffers with respiratory diseases will find Peruna a magnificent and sovereign remedy."—L. H. Holsey, Bp. C. M. E. Church.

A public speaker cannot afford to have catarrh. Even a slight catarrhal hoarseness of the throat becomes intolerable. This is especially true of the minister who is called upon to preside at religious functions of all sorts.

Death of Mrs. Allan.

Isabel Margaret, relict of the late John T. Allan passed away at her late residence on Monday morning after an illness of five months, in the 69th year of her age. She is survived by two daughters at home, Miss Louise Allan and Mrs. L. E. Young, two brothers, J. C. Wolhaupter and George Wolhaupter, and three sisters Mrs. Wm. Stokes of Woodstock, Mrs. Charles Campbell of Richmond and Mrs. Hayes of Redding, Mass. The funeral took place on Wednesday at 2.15 o'clock. The Rev. R. G. Fulton officiated. Mrs. Allan was an estimable woman esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Middle Simonds.

The snow storm on Sunday was hailed with delight, but still the roads are pretty rough.

Harley Shaw and Jack Christian are home again after having spent the winter in the woods of Maine.

Mrs. Geo. Colwell spent Tuesday in Hartland, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Day.

The Hartland Praying Band held services here Sunday afternoon and evening in the Advent Church.

School will close on Friday. The teacher, Miss London, has resigned, and will teach at Upper Woodstock next term.

Frank Kelly, a former resident of this place, but who now resides at Island Falls, Maine, was calling on friends Monday and Tuesday.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Mina E. Rideout and Owen B. Manuel of Lower Queensbury, to take place Wednesday Dec 25th at her home. CAPELLA.

Sermon by Mr. Green.

The last two years Woodstock has improved in different ways. Two brick blocks have been erected and add much to the business and appearance of the town. As the year 1907 is near to a close with all its many changes in different ways by sea and land, Death has visited many homes, and taken the youth, middle age and the aged. Death has no respect of nationality or creed, either from the earliest period to the present time, each and every year has enjoyed prosperity and adversity in many different ways, life is uncertain, death and taxes must be paid, it is reasonable to be prepared for both in their turn. There are messengers in all seasons of each and every year, on each side of the globe. "O death where is thy sting, O grave where is thy victory." Thanks to our God that gives his children the victory. Death is a terror to kings and rulers of all nations, we have the promise that he is the widow's God and a father to the fatherless; those circumstances have an attraction Heaven ward; those of our friends that leave an evidence they are prepared for the future is a consolation to mourning friends if those could speak to us, would say weep not for me but point to the glories beyond.

The year 1907 closes and we commence the New Year 1908 with good resolutions to assist in doing all the good we can both spiritual and temporal in all the walks of life through 1908.—C. G.

Responsible Journalism.

No Metropolitan Newspaper on this side of the Atlantic or the other has done more of true public service than the "Montreal Witness." Few indeed are the papers that can show such a record as its more than sixty years of fearless championing of moral reform. The "Witness" has ever dared to stand up for what it believed to be right, regardless of its own financial interests. Though published in Canada's greatest manufacturing centre, it has persistently championed the cause of the farmer both east and west.

In the words of one of the ablest men of our day, the principal debt of obligation to the "Witness" that it will never be able to repay. In its subscribers interest, the "Witness" annually forgives a revenue of many thousands of dollars by the attitude it takes towards pernicious or questionable advertisement.

The "Witness" is an up-to-date newspaper in the best sense of the word. It prints all the news worth while. Its market and stock reports and financial reviews have the confidence of Canada's leading business men. Its various departments such as "The Home," "Literary Review," "Letters from Readers," "Boys' Page," "Children's Corner," "Medical," "Legal," "Veterinary," "Numismatic," "Agricultural," "Horticultural" and "Poultry," etc., etc., are all ably conducted by experts at a large expense, the last named being edited by the Macdonald College Poultry Expert.

All these departments in addition to the news and editorial features combine to make a complete, all-around family newspaper. We can heartily recommend it to our readers. If they want, as most intelligent people do, a metropolitan newspaper in addition to the local paper, they will make no mistake in getting the "Witness."

"Daily Witness" $3.00 a year.
"Weekly Witness and Canadian Home-Steer" $1.00 a year.
Samples may be had on application to the publishers, Messrs John Dougall & Son, "Witness" Block, Montreal.

Don't sit back and growl while your neighbor is relishing a good dinner, buy your meat at the People's Cash Market and you will be happy too.

The Pressed Corn Beef put up at the People's Cash Market, is the best yet.

We advise our readers to call at the People's Cash Market when in need of something for dinner—good and prices that satisfy.

TOYLAND!

Have you ever heard of Toyland, Of the dear, delightful Joyland, Where the pretty, pretty Christmas presents grow? Where the sunbeams shine so brightly, And the breezes murmur lightly, And the hours to merry, merry music flow.

CHORUS.

Toyland, Joyland, 'tis a happy place we know,
Where the Christmas presents grow;
Toyland, Joyland, Toyland, Joyland,
Where the Christmas presents grow.

There are dolls with golden tresses, In the sweetest of sweet dresses, There are baby houses cute as cute can be. You can suit a fancy's wishes, With the little china dishes; O, I wonder if they hang upon a tree?

CHORUS.

Boats and cars and every treasure That can give a boy real pleasure, There are whistles, horns and drums to make a noise; There are games and books for indoors, Balls and sleds and skates for outdoors. O, this Toyland's just the place for Boys.
