FRIDAY, OCT. 3th, 1907.

Very Likely.

Representatives of the two local parties in Carleton County have met and agreed upon a clean election. The Tories are said to be very eager for purity, having still to finance past election notes, but even after agreeing to a pure campaign, they will half to be watched. [Fredericton Herald.]

Notice.

The Public are cordially invited to attend the graduating exercises of the first class from the Carleton County Hospital in the Opera House, this (Friday) evening. Music, addresses, etc., will be given.

Charlotte.

Down by the sounding sea the conservatives are about to summon a Convention for the purpose of nominating provincial candidates. It behooves our friends of the government party to become active. The Beacon has been giving the party some good advice. It is not a bit too soon to place both a federal candidate and the local ticket in the running. From this distance it looks as if Editor Armstrong is the coming man for Ottawa.

The Mine.

At the first annual general meeting of the Cobbler Sexton shareholders held Tuesday night W A Hayward, Ed Greer, John McClelland, Isaac Draper, J C Hovey, E R Teed, H G Noble, B B Manzer and J H Thompson were elected Directors.

Judge Carleton Makes a Purchase.

The handsome and commodious D A Grant residence on Victoria Terrace, which His Honor Judge Carleton has occupied since moving to Woodstock, on Monday changed ownership, the Judge being the purchaser. It is understood a fancy price was paid, the residence and grounds being among the finest in town. We understand it is His Honor's intention to further improve the property, a contract for the installation of a complete hot water heating plant having already been given to Fewer Bros.

Garrison—Emery.

The Episcopal Church, Jacksonville, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, when Miss Catharine Simonson Emery, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Hamilton Emery, was united in marriage to Dr Harry Beecher Garrison, the popular young dental surgeon, of Houlton. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Kinney, while the groom was supported by Fred F Harrison. Rev H Goring Alder performed the ceremony. After the wedding a reception was held at the residence of Le Baron T Emery. There were a great many very valuable presents. The happy couple have gone to Moose Head Lake. After the honeymoon they will reside in Houlton.
