THE BEST Fire Insurance

IS that which gives PERFECT SECURITY at the most equitable rates. The Non-tariff Companies, which I represent, have more paid up capital in proportion to risks involved than any other Companies.

They do not take hazardous risks, and can therefore do a safe business at lower rates than other Companies can.

These Companies are noted for equitable adjustment of losses and prompt payments. Many of the best business men in the Dominion, and in this County, insure in these Companies. These are the safest and best.

Centreville.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 12th, inst., a large concourse of people from Centreville and vicinity met in the Baptist Church here. The object of this assembly was to see launched forth on the sea of matrimony together two young people who are well known and highly respected. The bride, Miss Kate Vandyne, has been a resident with her parents and her two brothers in this village; the groom, Mr. Fred Cheney, at one time living here, removed about a year ago to Monticello, Me., where he now lives with his parents and one sister.

The interior decorations of the church for the occasion were good examples of skilful execution and good taste. On the pulpit platform were erected two large arches standing at right angles to each other and joined at the top, whence hung a large bell of vines, ferns and apple blossoms. Beneath this the ceremony was to be performed. At the foot of the platform, also, there were two arches at the ends of the aisles. All the arches were decorated in the same manner as the bell already referred to. The platform and surroundings were beautified by a fine arrangement of potted plants, vines and ferns.

The bridal party consisting of the contracting couple and their immediate relations, left the bride's home for the church at a few minutes before four o'clock p. m. Arrived there, they alighted and proceeded into the vestibule; then, as the strains of the wedding march began, the groom entered and proceeded to the front accompanied by Mr. Fred Cliff, one of the bride's cousins. The bride entered leaning on her father's arm and attended by Miss Annie Foren and Miss Eva Cheney, sister of the groom.

The bride was becomingly dressed in cream silk and bridal veil. She carried white roses. The bridesmaids were attired in cream voile, chiffon trimmings, and wore large picture hats. They carried pink carnations.

After the solemnities were duly consummated by the pastor, Mr. Freeman, the bridal party repaired to the bride's home where a luxurious repast awaited them. This partaken of the happy couple took their way to Monticello, thence to New Hampshire, where the honeymoon will be spent with relatives and friends. Their large circle of acquaintances and friends sincerely wish that they together may enjoy many years of unalloyed pleasure and happiness.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome bracelet; to the bridesmaids, a nice brooch each; to the groomsmen, a stick pin.—(Com.)

OFFICIAL PRAISE OF THE ROYAL ARCANUM.

Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., of Massachusetts, in his address of welcome to the members of the Supreme Council and their friends at the Hotel Vendome, Boston, on Wednesday, May 15th, spoke of the Royal Arcanum as follows:—

"There is another respect in which we can honestly claim Massachusetts to be the first—first in her insurance laws. We are very happy to say that the insurance laws of Massachusetts have been to a very large extent copied by the other States, to such an extent that it is possible for us to say that if you can do business in Massachusetts, you are sound, and I am happy to bring the report from the Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts that the largest institution doing business in the way that it does do business, reported prompt in all its payment of claims, sound in its methods of business and to be congratulated on its successful emergence from recent difficulties into the bright, clear sunshine of success, is the Royal Arcanum."

WANTED. Six men and six boys 14 to 18 yrs old, to work in our new upper leather tannery. Call at the office. J. D. DICKINSON & SON.

Please bear this in mind when making your remittance. (tf)

Mrs J B Brewer.

The remains of Mrs J B Brewer who was drowned in the Maduxna-keag Monday night June 10th were found at the landing at Temple about four miles below Meductic on Saturday. The body was well preserved and there were no bruises on it. The funeral was held on Sunday from her late residence on Water Street. The services were conducted by the Rev S A H Kearney, assisted by the Rev S A Baker and the Rev G D Ireland. The deceased leaves besides a husband, two daughters Mrs E N Case of Chicago and Mrs (Dr) McLean of Woodstock and three sons J Ham of Cambridge and Frank B and William of Boston. All of the children got home for the funeral except Mrs Case who arrived a day too late.

Mrs Brewer was a Miss Yerxa. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to convey to the very many kind friends and neighbors my heartfelt appreciation of the efforts made in my behalf and for all of my family, in the great trial we have just been called upon to bear. We shall never be able adequately to repay the many kindnesses. Our thanks are extended to all who in any way sought to lighten the burden which death placed upon us.

JAMES B BREWER.

Base Ball.

Monday night the Cubs put it over the Broadway nine to the tune of 7 to 5. In the first two innings Eben Jones tried to fool the Cubs but they took to his offerings so greedily that the young twirler was taken out by Capt Morrison at the end of the second. David Slipp went on the rubber with the score 4 to 1 against him, and succeeded in holding down the enemy pretty well, but could not overcome the poor start made by Jones. Roy McLaughlan shot them over for the Cubs, and except in the fifth inning proved a hard proposition. Even then errors by the rest of the team were mainly responsible for the runs that came in. Alphy Atherton put up a fine game at first. Wilmot Lister made some nice stops at third and a few great throws to first. Capt Sullivan went to the bench in the sixth. The Cap as usual failed to make a home run, but did get satisfaction in fouling the ball. In the fifth the South Siders went to work with a do or die determination, and came pretty near to pulling the fat out of the fire. Frank Sullivan was umpire.

By Innings:—
Cubs 3 1 1 1 0 0—7
Broadway 1 0 0 1 3 0—5

Bankers vs Broadway.

The Broadway team hit the toboggan once more Tuesday night, being downed by the Bankers, 11 to 3. Dave Slipp and Ernie Ryan were the opposing slabs, and the honors easily went to Ryan. The Broadway boys were away off color, especially in the fourth, when the enemy ran in enough scores to win two ordinary games.

By Innings:—
Bankers 1 0 3 7 0 0—11
Broadway 0 0 2 0 1 0—3
