Going West.

Frank Sullivan left here Wednesday night for Calgary. Mr Sullivan has an offer which looks good from this distance, and if it is as favorable when he personally looks over the ground, will go into business in that city. Mr Sullivan is a young man of great executive capacity, unimpeachable reputation, and bound to make his influence felt in any place so fortunate as to secure him as a citizen. James Sullivan, and Mrs Sullivan mother of the boys, will go West about the first of July.

Burpee Hay, youngest son of W W Hay, Harry Hipwell, eldest son of David Hipwell and Harry Palmer, youngest son of Mrs Bradford Palmer left last night for the west. Mr Hay and Mr Hipwell will go to Bellingham in the state of Washington, and Mr Palmer to Calgary, Alberta. New Brunswick can ill afford to lose such young men. They will leave with the best wishes of many friends, which they well deserve.

Chipman Phillips left on Monday for Boston and Minneapolis. On the second of July he will lead to the altar Miss Kate Stevens of Minneapolis, formerly of Woodstock. They will return to Woodstock about July 15th and take up their residence in the house on Victoria street which was recently bought from Ald W S Sutton.

Bankers Take the Cup.

Wednesday night the Bankers defeated the Cubs in a close game, and thereby froze onto the silverware. The game was a good one, and at several stages it looked as if the Cubs might squeeze out, but the needed hits always failed to materialize. Ernie Ryan pitched against Roy McLaughlan, and the honors were easy. Guy McLaughlan pulled down some great catches in left field. Joe Bradley at short made a lightning one hand stop of a sizzler in the sixth, and heaved the ball to first in time to connect for a nice double play. Ted Saunders, the local Willie Keeler, struck out for about the first time this year.

The score by innings:
Bankers.....2 0 2 1 0 0 2-7
Cubs.....2 0 0 1 1 0 1-5

The League Standing.

Waterville.

An extremely pretty wedding took place on Wednesday last at the residence of Mrs Samuel L York, when her only daughter Nellie Edna was united in marriage to J Roy H McCain of Florenceville.

The bride wore a beautiful dress of cream silk crepe de chene and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Little Miss Jennie Dewitt, cousin of the bride was maid of honor and was costumed in pure white silk. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev O E Steeves, assisted by Rev J A Anderson pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Florenceville.

Miss Emma DeWare rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march. At conclusion of the ceremony a delicious repast was served. At its conclusion the bride charged her marriage robe for a travelling suit of grey with green vest and wore a hat with touches of black and old rose. Mr and Mrs McCain were accompanied by a large number of their friends to Hartland where amid a shower of rice they took the train for Fredericton. Upon their return Mr and Mrs McCain will reside at Florenceville. Among the many beautiful presents received was a silver scallop dish presented by the choir and members of the Baptist church of which the bride was a valued member.

South Wakefield.

Wednesday afternoon June 12th, at 5 o'clock, the home of Mr and Mrs Wm G Kearney, South Wakefield, N B, was the scene of a very happy event, when in the presence of about eighty guests their daughter, Bessie Evelyn, was united in marriage to Roy Hanson Dow of Upper Woodstock. The ceremony was performed by Rev A H Kearney, uncle of the bride.

The house was decorated with evergreen and apple blossoms, the couple standing under a bell of blossoms suspended from an arch of evergreens.

The bride looked charming in a dress of white crepe-de-chene with chiffon trimmings and carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

After the ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served, after which the happy couple drove to their home in Upper Woodstock.

The bride received a great many useful and costly presents.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.
