

ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Montreal Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Soon after my marriage my health began to decline. My appetite failed me; I was unable to sleep, and I became very nervous and had shooting pains through the abdomen and pelvic organs, with bearing-down pains and constant headaches, causing me much misery. The monthly periods became more and more painful, and I became a burden and expense to my family instead of a help and pleasure. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. Soon after I began using it I felt a change for the better, and at the time of my next period I noticed a great difference, and the pain gradually diminished until I was well. I am stronger and look better than I did before I was married, and there is great rejoicing in the house over the wonders your medicine worked." Mrs. M. A. C. Letellier, 732 Cadieux St., Montreal, Quebec.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The reception tendered Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the city of Quebec and at Montreal and Ottawa, upon his return from the Imperial Conference was a mark of unbounded enthusiasm such as has been never accorded any other Canadian. There was no political significance in the reception, as all classes irrespective of politics joined in doing honour to the man whose force and sanity made him the guiding spirit and insured him a permanent place in the first rank of British statesmen.

Laurier is more than a party leader or more than the first minister of this Dominion; he is its first citizen, a man whose pre-eminence and unimpeachable patriotism and spotless character his native land is proud to own and to honour. In the public life of this country, to which he has given all his life the best of his great brain and heart, he stands admittedly, here and abroad, as without a rival and without a peer.

For twenty years he has stood in the fierce light of constant publicity, his every action public and private, observed and inspected of all men. He has been hotly assailed and at times has given stern blows in return. And through it all he has come without a taint on his garments. The love and allegiance of his followers he holds even to a greater degree than his famous former antagonist, and he compels from all men, regardless of party feeling, what Sir John A. Macdonald failed during his lifetime to win from his opponents—sincere respect. He stands to-day at the climax of his career, clear-lived, lean minded, clear eyed—a statesman without a cloud upon his brilliant record, a politician without reproach.

It is therefore not surprising that with a single voice the people of Canada should honor such a man. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's home coming with the honors of an Empire thick upon him, crowning his long and honorable life, is, for the moment at least, above politics, and tribute is due to him, not as a Liberal leader, but as unquestionably the greatest Canadian.

At Robinson, Me., April 30th, 1907, after a long illness, Mina Cogle, beloved daughter of Godfrey and Blanche Cogle, aged 20 years. She leaves a father, mother, three brothers, and five sisters also a number of relatives and friends to mourn their sad loss.

Another grave in our cemetery,
Another loved one gone;
Another child has passed away,
Beyond the setting sun.

Another hand is folded to rest,
And others left to mourn;
God has called her now to rest with him.

Her course on earth is run.

Gone from this world of sin and woe
To lie in peace and rest,
Till God shall sound the trump on high.

That wakes the sleeping dead.

Oh how hard to give up our loved one,
That tie which so strongly doth bind;

But we leave it to him who knoweth best,
He can ease our troubled mind.

Look upward through dark cloud may deepen
Though your eyes with tears may be dim;

'Twas our father in heaven who called her,
She is resting now sweetly with him.

Her fellowship now fully with Jesus,
She feared more to live than to die.

Her Saviour was ever beside her
Gently whispering behold it is I.

She is folded more close to his bosom
Safe in his arms she finds rest;

Oh! who would awaken the sleeper,
In heaven's warm circles caressed.

Her soul has gone where Jesus dwells,
How cheering is the thought;

Where pain, nor sickness, never comes,
Nor sorrow enters not.

From the grave she gently speaketh,
To the careless indifferent one;

In a moment thy life may be called for,
In a moment thy race may be run.

Though the billows are raging about you,
Oh! be thou not dismayed;

To you as to her he is saying,
It is I be thou not afraid.

AN INCREASING DEMAND
FOR I O R LITERATURE,

Distributing Agents Report They
Never Before Saw Folders

Go So Quickly.

The steady increase of passenger travel over the I O R and the growing interest in the "People's Railway" is most satisfactorily shown this year by the unprecedented demand for the time folders of the railway and the other publications issued by the General Passenger Department. Of time folders, a larger supply than last season has been found altogether inadequate to meet the demands of the outside agents and the distributing companies, and every day insistent appeals for more folders pour into the office. In a letter to the I O R Advertising Department, Mr J D Seeley, manager of the Time Table Distributing Company, of Canada, writes: "Our travelling agents report that they never saw the I O R folders go out faster than this summer."

Another feature of interest this summer is the increased demand for the suburban folders issued between St John and Hampton and between Halifax and Windsor Junction. This demonstrates clearly that there has been a growth of the suburban business between the points mentioned, and that people are appreciating the improvements in the suburban train service.

With regard to the illustrated booklets and the hunting folders the same satisfactory condition of affairs exists. From all parts of Canada and the United States applications are pouring in, and the I O R agents at various outside points write that they notice a growing demand for all of the I O R publications.

It would certainly seem as if the I O R was now reaping the harvest as a result of the vigorous advertising of past years. Passenger traffic all over the line is unprecedentedly heavy.

Letter on Sanctification.

Dear People. Do you think that Sanctification is something you get at an altar service or do you think that it is the result of applying God's word to your life? The very method of Sanctifying is to apply the word to your heart.

Take heed to the word and practice it at every point and turn. That is the whole of it. Jesus prayed the Father to Sanctify them through His word.

Jesus said, "Now ye are clean (Sanctified) through the word. Abide in me." St John 15: 3, 4.

"If any man be in Christ he is a new creature; Old things are passed away, behold all things are become new." 11 cor 5: 17.

"Where with all shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light unto my path." Psalm, 119. 9. and 105.

If we walk in the light (Word) as He is in the light, the blood of Jesus Christ His son cleanseth us from all sin 1 John 1: 7.

"If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and His word is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1: 9, 10.

The disciples at Pentecost received the Holy Spirit, not Sanctification, for He is a person.

Every one is Sanctified (purified) by faith before they receive Him.

Yours Truly,

IRA MILLER.

Not one person in a thousand knows that Fruit is really a wonderful medicine?

Not rare fruits—but the common, everyday fruits that you can buy in the fruit shops.

APPLES act directly on the kidneys—increase the flow of urine. ORANGES are excellent for the skin. FIGS and PRUNES are splendid bowel laxatives and liver tonics.

There are two great difficulties in curing yourself of Kidney and Bladder Troubles—Rheumatism—Constipation—Skin Eruptions, etc. by simply eating fresh fruit. First, the minute quantity of medicinal principle that you would get by eating a normal amount of fresh fruit would be insufficient to do any real good—second, eating excessive quantities of fruit would upset the stomach, on account of the indigestible pulpy fibre found in all fruits.

An Ottawa physician overcame these difficulties when he discovered the principle which brought forth "Fruit-a-tives."

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" are fruit juices—not as they occur in fruit—but with their medicinal activity greatly intensified. After the juices are extracted from the fruit, a chemical change is made to take place in which one atom of the bitter principle in fruit is replaced by one of the sweet. Then tonics and antiseptics are added and the whole pressed into tablets.

Fruit-a-tives act on the three great eliminating organs—the Bowels, Kidneys and Skin. They arouse the sluggish liver—enable the liver to give up more bile, which regulates the bowels and cures Constipation (or non-action of the bowels) Fruit-a-tives strengthen the kidneys and induce vigorous, healthy skin action.

For Headaches and Backaches—for Indigestion and Disordered Stomach—for Irregular Bowels—for all Kidney and Bladder Troubles—for Skin Eruptions—Fruit-a-tives are without an equal in the world.
