Pugsley Assails Borden.

On the hustings at Fairville a few nights ago and again on nomination day at St John the Minister of Public Works threw out a direct challenge to the leader of the Conservative party. Mr Borden has been travelling over the country arraigning the government principally on the alleged bribery resorted to by friends of the administration in the last federal election. Mr Borden has repeated the charge so often that very possibly he has come to believe the whole substance of the weird story. Hon Mr Pugsley, who surely knows the facts, openly charged the Conservative party with raising and spending $500,000 in the last campaign,-a huge reptile fund by which it was hoped to buy enough constituencies to give Borden, Foster, Bennett et al the reigns of power, all in the interests of "pure government." Moreover, Mr Pugsley stated that $25,000 of this money was dumped into a single New Brunswick constituency and we may add, unsuccessfully. Mr Borden it seems in the light of the absolute knowledge that huge sums were spent corruptly and for the benefit of the party of which he is the titular leader, has been going around with blatant words and a "holier than thou" cast of counten- the home of Mr and Mrs William ance quite at variance with what Jewett, Florenceville, when their should reasonably be expected. Of course it bride who was very popular. is idle to deny that in the past money has been lavishly expended by either side, but the spectacle of a man who should know better going around the country engaged in an attempt to throw all the odium on the other fellows, is too much for even the most incredulous to believe.

A Compromise.

At a special meeting of the Council, held informally in the Town Hall Tuesday night, Mayor Munro and Alds Noble, Sutton, Hagerman and Dunbar present, and Messrs Hayden, Bailey, Johnson and Fisher of the Electric Power Co in attendance, the Council submitted a proposition to the Company that each side should pay half the expense of putting up a new are circuit. The net cost of new wire was figured at about $500. The Power people promised consideration. The prospects seems good for an amicable settlement.

County Council.

New blood is coming to the front for the County Council. Thomas G | and died the 18th .- (Com) White and Roy Lee are said to be running in Wilmot, and Carey R Estey in Wicklow. In Wilmot there is also some talk of Wilmot Anderson. In Wicklow the former councillors are once more in the fight. Coun Flemming will offer in the Parish of Woodstock and if his colleague Coun Forrest retires, will hook up with ex-Coun Byron Bull, H B Smith, a former representative, is also in the race. Here in town everything is quiet. In Northampton there is talk of CW Betts being put up against the present members. while Mr Connell is also expected to come. There will be no contests in Richmond or Wakefield, if we are to believe current reports.

Steven-Bourne.

St Luke's Church was filled with interested friends and relatives of the contracting parties Wednesday afternoon assembled to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Ethel, eldest daughter of Mrs Charles Bourne, to Roy Oswald Wolsley Steven of St John. The bride, unattended, entered the church on the arm of her uncle, P Bourne of St John, by whom she was given away, preceded by the full surpliced choir. Rev H Goring Allder performed the ceremony. The happy couple have gone to Nova Scotia for their honeymoon tour, after which they will reside in St John.
