Dr Kirkpatrick Answers The Press.

Mr Editor:

In its commendable anxiety for its well-beloved, the so-called "Citizens" ticket, the "truthful Press," to use a SENTINEL phrase, in a short paragraph in its last issue has been guilty, well not exactly guilty, for no one would ever accuse the Press of being guilty of anything—but it has been led into three slight errors. The first two of these might be termed errors of fact, and the last an error of judgment.

The brief paragraph to which I refer runs as follows: "Dr Kirkpatrick in his canvass expresses the wish that he will not be elected. No doubt his wish will be gratified."

Now I would most humbly beg leave to state in the first place that I have not, either directly or indirectly, canvassed any elector in the town for a vote in the coming election. Of what avail would such a canvass be? Does not the Press itself admit that it has secured the electorate of the town to the extent of a hundred or more, and has bound them by a solemn oath neither to eat nor sleep until the "ticket" is elected? It is true that there are yet left some seven hundred or more in Israel who have not bowed the knee to Baal but they do not require any canvassing.

In the second place the Press is in error when it says I have expressed a wish not to be elected. I believe I did say that if the electors of the town cared to give me a seat at the Council Board I would to the extent of my ability work for the best interests of the town regardless of fear or favor, but that if I were defeated I would not lose any sleep over it, and would take comfort in the thought that I would thereby escape the continued wrath of the Press during the next year.

The third statement of the Press was but a prophecy, and as merely an error of judgment may be passed over for the present. I know that the Press, for the sake of its time-honored policy, will correct the two errors I have pointed out, and the third one it may deliberate upon until after election day.

Mr Editor, just one word more. I do not profess to have the prophetic instinct of the Press, but I will venture the prophecy that two of the Citizens' ticket will be elected, and those two not on account of the Press, but in spite of it.

Respectfully Yours,
E. S. KIRKPATRICK.

Carleton Lodge Reception.

The brethren of Carleton Lodge I O F were hosts at a most enjoyable function Monday evening in the Lodge room. After the installation of officers for the current term, the doors were thrown open to the guests, and close to a hundred must have been present when Past Noble Grand H D Stevens called the gathering to order. In a short but appropriate address Mr Stevens cordially welcomed the visitors. A splendid program followed, there being a piano solo by Miss Dalling, Reading by Mr Allingham, vocal solo by Mrs Holyoke, piano solo by Miss Hull, speeches by W B Belyea, W W Hay and others, and a solo from Harry Dunbar.

A pleasant feature was the supper served in the commodious dining room in connection with the Lodge room. The menu was a good one, and all present did ample justice to the luscious bivalves, tempting pastry and other delicacies too numerous to mention. It is safe to say that everyone enjoyed the evening most heartily, and the visitors unanimously voted Carleton Lodge excellent entertainers. A list of those present is here given:

Mr and Mrs W W Hay, H D Stevens, Harry Stevens, Philip Saunders, George E Phillips, B B Manzer, W S Sutton, A O Day, Albert Hayden, A S Benn, Thomas Baker, C A McKeen, H E Burt, Geo Lee, Chas Comben, R E Holyoke, Richard Allingham, H V Dalling and W B Belyea. Mrs J H Harvey, Mrs Geo Little, and Mrs Ada Poole, The Misses I G Calhoun, Addison, Golding, Cowan, Dickinson, McKibbin, Boyer, Mitchell, Gillis, Burt, Fisher, McKinnon, Wetmore, Hull, McLean and Dalling. Messrs Newnham, Fisher, Churchill, Dykeman, Alexander, Whenman, Kidney, Little, Connell, Thorne, Dickinson, Scovill, Ross, Dunbar, Carvell, Lilley, Dr Manzer, A VanWart, Townsend, W Dalling, C Dalling, Harvey, and Allingham.

Philip Saunders is the newly installed Noble Grand; A VanWart, Vice Grand; Chas Comben, Sec; and H E Burt, Treas.

JOTTINGS.

Mrs Albion R Foster, of Middle Simonds, was in town on Monday.

John A Graham and son Walter of River de Chute, were in town Tuesday.

A G Bailey has been laid up for some days, but is now well on the road to recovery.

Lewis Purrinton has purchased the store at Richmond Corner from Nelson Turney. The latter is thinking of moving into town.

C C Shaw has sold his general store at Waterville to a gentleman from Houlton named Dysart, and will accept a good position in Bangor.

W M P McLaughlan and F B Dunn of St John were here this week selling stock in the Company placing on the market the new instrument called the Telephonograph.

The SENTINEL will be obliged to any subscriber sending to this office any spare copies of this paper printed in the month of December last. We particularly ask for issues of the 14th ult.

His Worship Mayor Munro gave a supper at the Royal Cafe Monday evening to the retiring council, and a few others. The affair passed off very pleasantly, and all hands voted the Mayor a most delightful host.

H F Grosvenor and family of Meductic expect to leave for Alberta early in the spring. During a recent visit to the Great West Mr Grosvenor became so enthused with the country that he has decided to make it his home. The departure of these estimable people will be a distinct loss to the community.

The Ivy-Collins theft case was tried in the Armoury on Monday and Tuesday before Judge Carleton. Solicitor General Jones prosecuted, and Mr T C L Ketchum appeared for the accused. Several witnesses were heard, and after a strong charge from the judge, the jury found both prisoners guilty. Ivy was sentenced to three years at Dorchester,—his companion to two years. Sheriff Foster took the pair to the penitentiary.

Mrs Robert McIntyre died at West Somerville Mass, on Friday December 28th 1906, at the age of 62 years. The remains were brought to Houlton and the funeral, which was very largely attended, was held at St John's Church, Richmond, on Monday afternoon. Mrs McIntyre was formerly Miss Melissa Jane Carpenter of Gagetown N B. Mr and Mrs McIntyre spent most of their lives at Richmond Corner, where for many years he was Post master. Mrs McIntyre was most useful kind, and generous. She leaves a husband and two daughters Mrs James Hovey of California, and Miss Bella McIntyre who lived with her parents at Somerville, and one son Birdsell B McIntyre of Houlton.

The Health Store

That is what every Drug Store should be, though many fall short of it. It is because of the lack of drug quality. Sometimes the lack is due to ignorance, and more often to greed for gain.

We consider our business a profession, for that is really what it is. We therefore feel it is our professional duty to dispense the purest drugs procurable—drugs that will truly help in restoring health. When you need drugs be particular and buy them at a health store. If you purchase them here you'll pay only what they are actually worth.

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

1907—1907 January Clearance Sale!

The why of it—it's our inventory time. February 1st closes our business year. Naturally every store has broken lots; this store has more because it carries more stock than most stores. We have gone through the different departments and found broken lots and sizes in

Men's Overcoats, Ulsters, Reefers and Fur Goods;
Boys' and Children's Overcoats;
Ladies' Neck Furs, Muffs, Astrachan Jackets and Cloth Coats.

You're in Luck

if you have waited for our January Sale of Winter Clothing, Furs, etc. The prices we name on the case of merchandise offered surpass, in value giving, any sale that Woodstock has ever known. Past experience has satisfied our patrons that we advertise only facts.

We mention only a few of our Bargains: to let this opportunity slip away means loss to you.

Men's Overcoats

Former price	$15 00—now	$11 00
"	"	12 00—now	9 00
"	"	11 00—now	8 00
"	$8 50	9 00—now	6 00
"	7 50	8 00—now	5 50

In fact all of our WINTER GOODS will be Sold Regardless of Cost. The reason for this sale is that we don't propose to carry over our stock until another season. We can use the money, and want it. Do not fail to call and see our Bargains, as they are genuine.
