Mrs Gibson's Recital.

The music-loving populace turned out in force Monday evening to be present at the recital in the Opera, given by Mrs George W Gibson, assisted by leading local talent, in aid of the building fund of the new Methodist Church. Mrs Gibson has frequently been heard in public, but never to better advantage. In fact every number was a gem. The following is a copy of the program:—

PROGRAM.
Polonaise,..... Chopin
MISS HENDERSON.
Florian's Song,..... Godard
A Fair Good Morn,..... Nivin
The Strump Cup,..... Arditi
The Fairy Wedding,..... Marston
MRS GIBSON.
Out on the Deep,..... Frederiek N Lohr
In Cellar Cool,..... Ludwig Fischer
MR CAMBER.
Aria from Opera of "Mignon."
..... Ambrose Thomas
Japanese Lullaby,..... R de Coven
There is a Garden,..... Greene
MRS GIBSON.

Sirg Me to Sleep,..... Greene
(Violin Obligato by Mr Dickie)
Madrigal,..... Chamade
I'm Ower Young to Marry Yet,..... Old Scotch
MRS GIBSON.
NATIONAL ANTHEM.

Miss Maude Henderson, the clever young pianist, did well with her artistic rendering of Chopin's Polonaise. Her second appearance was even more enjoyed, on which occasion she was the recipient of a handsome bouquet. Mr Camber's first singing in public was certainly a triumph. He has a voice of much sweetness and power, which when fully developed, will be heard to even greater advantage. The duet by Mrs Rankin and Mrs Adney was greatly appreciated. Rapturous applause did not subside until the singers returned for an encore.

Mrs Gibson's voice is a mezzo-soprano of great range and purity. Her stage presence is faultless, and she seemed to improve in each succeeding number. Perhaps to most of those present, The Fairy Wedding, Japanese Lullaby and that grand old favourite, Sing Me to Sleep, appeared most strongly. Mr Fred Dickie most artistically played the violin obligato for the last named selection. The Scotch Song, which closed the program, was beautifully rendered. Special mention might be made of "There is a Garden," a somewhat difficult number. Mrs Gibson received a beautiful floral offering on her second appearance. Mrs Adney was accompanist, and discharged that important duty in her most efficient manner, using a magnificent Gauray piano. The several performers are, we understand, pupils of The Woodstock School of Music, of which Mrs Adney is the Lady Principal. Mrs Gibson and her associates are deserving of hearty congratulation upon both the artistic and the financial success of the undertaking, designed to aid a worthy cause.

The Able Critics.

The local opposition journal is in a sad mix up. It says Hon W P Jones has been turned down twice lately, —once by Hon Dr Pugsley, and secondly by Premier Robinson. The information is partly gleamed from so excellent an authority as the Newcastle Leader, which is rapidly becoming the chief Bourbon of the provincial newspaperdom. For the benefit of these able and consistent journals we have pleasure in informing them that Hon Mr Jones is very much pleased to be a follower of so distinguished a gentleman as Premier Robinson, has no desire to supplant him, and never had any thought of being asked to lead the party. As for the Attorney-Generalship, the friends of the Solicitor General are not worrying. The Press and some other opposition organs may rest content. The government ranks are intact.

The Munro Act Under Fire.

John Y Smith was before Magistrate Dibbles on Monday on complaint of the Munro Act Inspector. Smith has not taken out a license under the act. George Ritchie was called and in answer to Mr Hartley who appeared for the Town, said he had bought non-intoxicating beer from the defendant since the law came in force. The magistrate fined Smith $1 and costs. The defendant's lawyer, TOL Ketchum, will carry the conviction to a higher Court, and attack the constitutionality of the measure.

For the races in the Park Dominion Day a fine list of entries has been received. Don't miss the fun. 2.20 2.26, and Farmers Race. Be sure to come.

The Tables Turned.

There was a good game at the Island Monday night when the Cubs and Broadways met for the second time in the league series. The game was scheduled to go seven innings, but by reason of a tie, was not finished until the close of the eighth. In that spasm the South Siders got the winning tally, 5 to 4. Dumb work on the part of the Cubs in the second cost them the game. They had a chance to redeem themselves in the sixth, but fell down miserably. The Broadway lads fought a stiff, uphill battle, and well deserve the honors. Dave Slipp, the local lemon king, handed out about three pecks of the citrus fruit. Harmon, his catcher, is a daisy. Woe to him who tries to steal second on Brownie. Roy Mc-Lauchlan pitched pretty good ball for the losers. The Broadway team has the offer of a banquet from some enthusiastic Wellington Ward fans, providing they win the pennant. At the rate Capt Morrison's boys are travelling, their stomachs are evidently in training for a cinch. The Bankers claim they have an offer of ten per cent interest on their savings balances if they win out, equal to a pension for life, —while Capt Sullivan of the Cubs says he will take his team to Houlton by airship in the event of not landing the cellar championship.

The statistics:—
Broadway 0 2 1 0 0 1 1—5
Cubs 2 0 0 0 2 0 0—4
Batteries—Slipp and Harmon, Mc-Lauchlan and O'Hagan. Umpire, Charles Donnelly. Time of Game, 1 hr, 20 min. Attendance 79369?

Mr Dugan's Horses.

Mr Hugh O'Neill, in speaking of the down east auction sale at the Readville track some days ago, stated that there were a good many bargains, but none looked any better to him than that secured by O W Dugan, of Woodstock, in the stallion Muster Hill.

Muster Hill is a bay horse foaled in 1903 and is by Autograph, while his dam is Rosa, by Rochester. He was one of the Muster Hill stock from a consignment by G A Litchfield, and cost Mr Dugan only $385. Autograph, the famous sire of Muster Hill, has a race record of about 2.16, and is a well known sire of speed, while the colt's dam has produced four or more in the standard list.

Mr Dugan also secured one of the Bither and Palmer (Readville) consignment in Doctor Hoag, a bay gelding foaled in 1904. This one is by Liberty Bird, and his dam was by Constantine. For the gelding Mr Dugan paid but $180. (Gleaner)

LeBaron Mooers is back from Vancouver for two weeks.

Rothsasy News.

The closing of the Rothsasy Schools is to take place next week. The exercises are to be of exceptional interest this year on account of the presence of the Coadjutor Bishop. Bishop Richardson is to preach the closing sermon on College Sunday to the two schools.

Neitherwood, the Rothsasy school for girls will have its closing exercises, with the presentation of prizes and certificates to its graduates on the afternoon of June eighteenth. The Rev Mr Trooper of St John is to address the graduating class and pupils of the school. Later in the afternoon, a calistheric drill will be given and tea will be served to the guests on the school grounds. (Com.)

That Banquet.

The Press and some other papers are making certain gratuitous comments upon the presence of the member for Carleton at the banquet given recently by Hon Mr Pugsley at the Queen Hotel. Is there any good reason why Mr Carvell, or for that matter any other gentleman, should refuse the hospitality of a distinguished member of the party, a colleague at the provincial bar, and a personal friend of many years standing? Liberals are unlike their opponents in that an examination of their bootlegs fails to disclose the razor so often told of in party fiction.

Off to Europe.

Prof W F Watson, head of the Chemistry Department and Secretary to the faculty in Furman University, S. C., left this week for Europe, to spend a three months vacation. Mrs Watson accompanied him. The Professor is a son of G C Watson, of Hartland.

School Closing.

Pupils, Parents and Others will bear in mind the fact that this year the closing exercises of the High School will be held in the Opera on the evening of Friday, June 28th, and that only adults and High School pupils may attend. The small children will have their closing exercises and presentations at their own Schools on the afternoon of June 28th.

Good Boy, Logie.

H Burton Logie B A of Chatham who used to teach here in the College, is now taking the medical course at McGill. Word has just been received that he has led his class in the year's work. Mr Logie is a very clever young man, and in the medical profession will doubtless become a prominent member.

Victoria.

J F York Esq and wife are soon to leave for Fort William Ont to visit their son.

Glad to hear Mrs H Cox is improving.

Mr and Mrs J B Bowser were away to Sackville attending the closing exercises at Mount Allison. There daughter Helen G Bowser was a student at that College, and has just graduated.

Miss Alice Boyer has returned from Mount Allison to spend her vacation.

Mrs Bryon Shaw and son were to Woodstock last week.

The glad hand of welcome is being extended to H K Bowser by his many friends. He has just returned from Acadia College.

Leighton D Grant attended the Song Recital at Graham's Opera House last Monday evening, which was a grand success.

Miss Ella Dickinson, dressmaker, who has calls from north, south, east and west, spent last week at Florenceville. LUCIAN.

Come to the Races at the Woodstock Track Dominion Day. 2.20, 2.26 and Farmer's Class.

Brookville.

Most of the farmers are nearly through in this vicinity. But we still see Wilmot trudging on through the fields.

We are sorry to say that Mrs Hanford Waters is still on the sick list. Miss Lena Waters, Lakeville, is working for her.

Misses Laura Crandlemere and Ida Jones spent a few days last week with relatives in Waterville.

Frank B Black Esq, agent for machinery, passed through here last week accompanied by Weodie Simmons.

William Rockwell was a guest at W B Jones' Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Ruby and Iva Tompkins were the guests of Miss Eva Cougle on Thursday last.

Quite a number attended the funeral of the late Thomas Bridges at Lakeville on Thursday.

Frank Keefe of Lakeville bought a very nice colt from Ralph Tompkins one day recently.

Mrs Deborah Jones of Hartland is visiting her daughter, Mrs W B Jones.

Rob seems to be getting very "Good."

Come to the Races at the Woodstock Track Dominion Day. 2.20, 2.26 and Farmer's Class.

W Lawrence Gallagher was in Johnville and Hartland this week rehearsing Companies. To-night (Friday) The Woodstock Dramatic Co will meet for rehearsal in the Opera. Mr Gallagher has five companies in charge.
