Appointed King's Counsel.

F B Carvell M P has been appointed one of His Majesty's Counsel, learned in the law.

Just a Trifle Previous.

Noting the arrival of a prominent Charlotte Co man in the city the St John Telegraph says:—"George M Byron M P P of Campbell is at the Victoria." Mr Byron isn't an M P P just yet, but wait until you see him after the next election.

More Prosecution.

John Y Smith is to come before the Magistrate this afternoon on the charge of selling non-intoxicating beer by wholesale, contrary to the provisions of the Munro Act.

C P R Officials.

Messrs McInnis, Bulling, Cogswell, Kirkpatrick and Tinker of the C P R Freight Dept were in town on Wednesday, and were waited upon by President Dibblee of the Board of Trade, Mayor Munro and other Citizens. The strangers did not offer very much in the shape of relief, but are first rate good fellows, and like all other successful business men, can please even in refusing.

Methodist District Meeting.

The Annual District Meeting began its sessions in the Armory Wednesday morning, Rev E C Turner chairman, and all the clergy of the district were present. Ministerial matters were first considered. All the brethren were reported as passing the usual tests as to character, etc. Probationers J F Rowley and H H Marr passed the examination prescribed as such. Rev A E Lepage was recommended to continue another year on the Supernumerary list. The meeting decided to forward with approval the application of Rev Charles Squires for a year's leave of absence, due to illness.

A Win for the Bankers.

The Cubs suffered the first shut-out of the season Wednesday night, at the hands of the Bankers. To Ernie Ryan the credit must rightfully go. He is apparently the king pin among local slab artists. Of course his teammates gave him fine support, and batted fairly well. On the other hand the Cubs batted poorly, and fielded most wretchedly, having nine errors. Their twirler McNally of Benton, now working here in the Tannery, pitched good ball. In fact he put up a nice line of deceivers, and with any kind of assistance would have kept the score very low. The main blow up was in the fourth inning. Capt Sullivan had a nice fly land in his mitt, but threw it away. The rest of the team caught the infection, and before the Cubs steadied down the Bankers walked off with a winning lead. The Cubs should put up a better article in future. True they have very few good batters, but their pitchers are good enough, while in Jones and the McLauchlans they have the equal of any fielders in the league. Two or three men should adorn the bench for a while, and the sooner Capt Sullivan wakes up to the fact the better. Just now it looks as if the race is between the Bankers and Broadway.

The game in detail:—

The score by innings:—
Bankers.....0 1 0 5 0 0 1-7
Cubs.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0
Summary. Safe Hits—Off Ryan 7, Off McNally 12. Two bagger, Drysdale, Home Run, Scholey. Struck Out, by Ryan, 7. By McNally, 11. Time, 1 hr 15 min. Umpire, F McRae. Attendance, 200.

NOTES.

Scholey's home run was a trifle fluky. He got round the bags while Guy Lister was hunting the ball.
Either Jones or Slipp will face Ryan to-night.

Scholey has a wing like a wild goose. He can heave the orb equal to most major leaguers.
The Cubs are planning a new line up for Monday. McNally and O'Hagan will likely be the battery.

Who is the fastest man to circle the bags? Who will offer a prize to the player who covers the distance in the shortest space of time?
Southpaw McNally fanned eleven men. That's weeding them out some.

His Worship the Mayor has kindly donated a professional bat of the first quality to the Executive. The latter body will probably award it to the player with the best batting average.

The Cubs have protested Monday's game which they lost to Broadway, alleging a bad ruling by Ump Donnolly, and the game will likely have to be played over. To-night there will be a battle royal between the Bankers and Broadway. The championship hinges largely upon the issue. Ryan and Slipp will likely be the opposing slabs. There should be a close struggle between these great pitchers for supremacy. The Sentinel offers a box of cigars to any player making a home run in the game to-night.

An Unanswered Question.

"What was the motive of the Councilors?" is the question of daily debate amongst the citizens as well as elsewhere. There will never be a unanimous answer. When the Council framed the Beer Act it was hailed as a movement of disinterested good citizenship. In view of developments there has arisen in many quarters a disposition to question the motive of those who framed the Act. It is alleged that the issue is to be of political and financial nature rather than honest and the punishment of crime.

Yours truly,

JOHN Y SMITH.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.
