The new Baptist Church, Andover, was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday morning, January 1st, when Dr James King of Cranbrook B C and Miss Nellie Sadler were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by Rev Willard Demmings.

The Church was decorated with evergreens and holly by the well wishers of the bride, and reflected much credit on their skill and taste.

Miss Lena Baird acted as brides-maid and Geo Sadler as groomsmen, while Miss Milcent Carter was flower girl. The ushers were Messrs Herbert and Fred Baird, Roy Murphy and Rev A Rideout. The bride who was beautifully gowned in white satin princess gown with veil and flowers was given away by her brother, Frank Sadler. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the bridal party entered the church, and during the signing of the register Miss Mary Stewart sang a solo, after which Fred Hoyt played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. After a dinner at the home of her sister Mrs Geo Baird, the happy couple took the train at Andover for the groom's home. Mrs King, who is very popular here, takes with her a host of good wishes.

Little Presque Isle Rifle Association

I am pleased to be able to announce to all people, especially our members, that our Rifle Club have improved their shooting record during the last year. On the summary of the season's shooting I find that the average increase over 1905 is about 3 per cent, and when it is considered that out of the forty who shot in 1905 only twenty odd shot in 1906 and the balance of the club was new members and the membership this year 1906 was sixty, it will show well for our club. The ten leading shots this last year were as follows: 1st Russell Boyer, 2nd Percy C Barter, 3rd Wm A Barter, 4th John C Barter, 5th Harley Hannah, 6th Allan A Barter, 7th Johnathan Jones, 8th Peter Appleby, 9th Newman Black 10th Jordan Prosser.

Harley Hannah, the fifth on the list, had first place for 1905, but although he made within one point of his 1905 score four got past his marks and led him. We spoke of having a Trophy to give to the one making the greatest percentage of increase in points from one year to the next. We got no trophy but I will mention that the honor falls to Willie McLeod, son James McLeod of Wilmet N B, who increased his percentage a trifle over one hundred percentage.

We expect to open up again in the early spring and hope to climb the ladder a little higher during 1907. I take this opportunity to send New Year's greetings to all riflemen, and say stand pat for 1907.

SG BARTER, Capt Little P I R A.

The Advent Christian Conference met here last week with a good attendance of both clergy and laymen. The following officers were elected: President, A F Connolly; Vice Pres, Elder Kearney; Secretary, Mrs Dickinson; Treasurer, S J Parson.

The past year witnessed many additions to the membership.
