The Town Council.

The Council met Monday night in regular monthly session, all present except Ald Smith.

On motion Ald Thorne seconded by Ald Fisher the tax notices for this year were ordered sent out on June 15th, and the limit for discount placed at July 25th.

Mayor Balmann said one matter which should be finally settled without delay was in reference to J N W Winslow's claim respecting damages to the foundation of the Lynch building. He would like to get the views of the different members.

Ald Fawcett spoke. He had looked the place over carefully and considered that Winslow had no claim whatever for damages, not a single dollar. To the best of his belief the drip from the roof at the place where the building sags in the centre is the cause of the alleged damage. Perhaps the street water may be responsible for washing away the sand but the rotting of the sills is surely due to water from the roof. The building has stood thirty years anyway, which makes it pretty ancient, and he (Fawcett) considered Winslow had just as much right to fix it as has the town. He would not stand for giving Winslow a single dollar and if it were a private matter would go into the courts over it. The town is easily able to go ahead and fix up the street without any reference to Winslow at all, and save money.

After considerable further discussion pro and con in which the various aspects of the case were gone into it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the Mayor and the Town Clerk to meet with Winslow and make a settlement of all matters between him and the Town, including the damages to the Lynch property, his taxes and water rates, etc.

Ald Fawcett gave a verbal report concerning an inspection of the granolithic walks in Campbellton. He very fully described their nature and construction, and recommended the street committee to make a beginning here this year. The Mayor thanked Ald Fawcett for his report and the members all seemed impressed with it.

A long and somewhat interesting talk on sewers then came up. Ald Fawcett asked leave to call for tenders for some work in that line from near Frank Good's on Broadway along the cross street. His motion was seconded by Ald Hagerman. Ald Sutton objected to the motion unless tenders were likewise asked for some work on the Houlton road, a long-standing grievance.

Ald Fisher and the mayor heartily concurred with Ald Sutton, as also did Ald Hagerman. Ald Fawcett said he had more interest in the Houlton road extension than perhaps any other man since no less than ten lots of dislie within the area to be served by it, but he was not yet ready to call for tenders for that work because he had no measurements and moreover he always liked to know where he was at before going in for any expenditure. As there seemed no likelihood of an agreement being reached, on motion of Ald Thorne the whole matter of sewer extension was laid over until the June meeting in order that Ald Fawcett, chairman of the committee may have opportunity to get plans of the proposed Houlton road extension, the understanding being that something be then done.

Wm M Connell wrote a letter protesting against the manner in which the town had treated his claim for damages to a cellar under his Queen Street building. Several members thought Mr Connell had little chance to kick at the entrance to Emerald Street has been blocked on one side by rubbish from his building for many months and only, that day it had to be removed by the town workmen.

Mayor Balmann reported having closed a contract with Gilbert G Murdock PLS for a proper survey and plan of the streets, work to be commenced this month. At this point in order to accommodate those members who wished to attend the opening of the new theatre Council adjourned until Tuesday evening.

Woodstock, N. B.
June 1st 1908.

The Mayor remarked that the Police Magistrate was somewhat dilatory concerning reporting fines, etc, as agreed upon, no statement from him having as yet come on this year's operations.

Ald Hagerman reported on the Dunbar bills. He had talked with the firm. The Dunbars told him the accounts were correct and that they wanted their pay. He had replied that in his opinion the Town had no right to pay for dismantling and putting back the engine. Dunbar argued that he had full authority to do the work. At this point Ald Hagerman asked Supt Munro what instructions had been given Dunbar. The Supt said he had merely ordered Dunbar to put in the new coils, a very small job. Ald Hagerman said he did not feel like moving for payment of the bill without a little more light. The Mayor gave utterance to the opinion that while Dunbar had no legal authority to go ahead and dismantle the works he should as a matter of justice receive pay for any real service he may have rendered. Ald Sutton explained the charge for labor in connection with putting in the coils. It seemed that a collar on the shaft had to be taken to the shop for considerable machine work. The Supt broke in with the remark that he had given Dunbar no authority to do that work. Finally the Mayor advised Ald Hagerman to recommend for payment all non-contentious portions of the bill, and to try to have everything straightened out before Friday night.

A petition from H W Stevenson, Howard McDonald and Fred McLean asking for a refund on last year's beer license was laid over until Friday night.

The Mayor told of an interview with J N W Winslow concerning a settlement of his affairs. After a good deal of discussion the following motion, moved by Ald Sutton seconded by Ald Hagerman, was carried. "That Town have specifications prepared for a party wall between the Lynch Building so called and Main Street, not to exceed seventy feet in length at full height, remainder not to exceed ten feet in height, whole cost to be paid contractor by Winslow, and half said cost to be repaid Winslow by Town, and Winslow to be further allowed $100 on his back taxes, all on condition that balance of Winslow's liability to Town be paid or secured to the Town within twenty days, to the satisfaction of the Finance Committee."

In discussing the matter Ald's Sutton, Fisher and Hagerman deeply regretted the absence of Ald's Smith and Fawcett, who should be present to take their share of the responsibility.

The Mayor gave details of a conversation he had had with Hon John Morrissey relating to suggested repairs to the Creek Bridge. At first the Chief Commissioner was unwilling to offer any promise of assistance, but on better understanding agreed to look into the matter.

The Farewell Meeting.

The farewell meeting of Adjutant Martin and Capt Porter took place as announced at the Army Citadel last Sunday night. The building was packed to its utmost capacity, citizens of all kinds, rich and poor high and low turned out in full force to show the last respect to our beloved officers for surely they deserved it all. The meeting was of a very impressive nature especially when it came to the part for the officers to say farewell. Words failed to express unto the good people of Woodstock their thankfulness to them for all shown kindness at all times and for the great care and sympathy which was shown towards them when hours of darkness and sickness came upon them. They could never forget the good people of this town and vicinity, never in their history as Salvation Army Officers had they found a people like them. Speeches of the evening were made by Ex-Capt G Moore, on behalf of the sisters, Miss Calder on behalf of the friends, Mr Montgomery on behalf of the Salvation School, Sergt-Major Sutton on behalf of the Corps. Next followed a farewell address read by Band Secretary Nielsen. Beautiful singing with Band Accompaniment, Solos, Duets, and Quartette. The evening service came to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

It is said that "Queen of the White Slaves" a very large and beautiful mounted melodrama, which comes to the New Opera House on June 10—it is the most startling sensational melodrama ever produced on the American stage. The author, Arthur J Lamb, opens the play New York, takes his audience to San Francisco, thence across the Pacific to Hong Kong, and from that Chinese City back to San Francisco. There are two or more thrilling climaxes in every act, and among the most thrilling scenes may be mentioned the death chamber of "The Terrible Nine", (a San Francisco branch of the Highbinders) Dead Man's Corridor, a Mandarin's Palace in Hong Kong. There is a strong love interest in the play, a genuine comedy element and a superb past.
