Chapel Street Elevation of New Methodist Church.

The Dedication Services of the new Methodist Church were carried out on Sunday under the most favorable circumstances. A beautiful day with enough frost in the air to keep the roads dry and hard brought great numbers of people in from the country, while many representatives of the other churches of the town gathered with the Methodist people so that all three services found the auditorium packed to the doors.

The morning service opened with the doxology, and invocation by Rev E C Turner, Chairman of the District and Rev A E LePage read the opening part of the dedication service. The Rev H D Marr of St John preached the sermon from 1 Tim 3:15 dwelling especially on the words "The Church of the Living God." In an eloquent and logical manner Mr Marr traced the evolution of the church and in forcible language set forth the mission of the church today.

After the sermon Mr F B Carvell, M.P., on behalf of the Trustee Board presented the church for Dedication, and Rev's E C Turner and H D Marr read the consecration prayer.

The afternoon exercises at 3 p.m. opened with a praise service conducted by the Pastor. Rev A E LePage made the opening prayer and the Rev's E C Turner and H D Marr of Canterbury gave short addresses. The evening service found the church packed long before the hour to open service. Rev H D Marr of St John again preached. Although suffering from a severe cold Mr Marr delivered a strong sermon from 1 John 3:2. With illustration and quotation Mr Marr showed the promise of life.

The choir under the leadership of Mr Frank Bird, and Mrs R E Holyoke as organist, rendered splendid music. The cash offerings of the day amounted to something over $720.

This magnificent edifice, without a peer in Maritime Methodism in so far as adaptation is concerned, stands as a monument to the perseverance and industrious application of the present pastor, Rev R G Fulton, who in spite of many discouragements after conceiving the idea of erecting a new house of worship, stood nobly at the helm, directing the financial matters as well as the practical construction work. Early and late he has labored, and with the loyal and generous aid of his congregation now finds his flock in possession of a structure which is a decided credit to this town. Architecturally it is graceful, and in all round fitness for the use for which it is intended, nothing better could be wished for. Additional particulars of its construction will be found elsewhere in this issue.

History of circuit which was read by J A Lindsay as follows:—

Dear Friends—We are permitted by a kind Providence to assemble on this occasion for the dedication of the fourth church erected for the worship of God, by the Methodist congregation of Woodstock.

Previous to 1832 there was very little preaching by Methodist ministers in Woodstock or vicinity, and at that time there were only eleven circuits in New Brunswick. Woodstock circuit was established in 1833, and comprised all the country north of Eel River to Grand Falls. Rev Samuel Joll was the first minister and remained two years, being succeeded in 1835 by Rev Henry Daniel. The first Methodist church was erected during the pastorate of Mr Joll and was on Main street, near where the old railway station was. Charles Perley and J M Connell, who were members of the House of Assembly, were the principal movers in the building.

This church was burned in the fall of 1836, and at once preparations were made to rebuild on the same site. The new church was dedicated during the pastorate of Rev Michael Pickles 1838-8. The parsonage which was built in 1834 escaped destruction, and was torn down only a few years ago.

During the pastorate of Rev John Prince in 1857, the foundation was laid for a new church on the corner of Chapel and Green streets, and completed during the pastorate of Rev A W Nicholson in 1869. The dedication took place on Sunday June 6th 1869 and the morning sermon was preached by Rev D D Currie Chairman of the Fredericton District, from Joshua 26:2. Rev J N Narraway preached in the evening from Rev 19:16. During the pastorate of Rev G M Campbell 1884 extensive alterations and repairs were made and the re-opening sermon was preached by Rev Wm Dobson in the morning from Eph 5:25, 6 and in the evening from Heb 2:3. Again in 1898 extensive repairs were made to the church during the pastorates of Dr Chapman and Rev H D Marr, the building committee being Geo A White, Jas Watts, H Paxton Baird, R B Jones and B B Manzer. The re-opening sermons were preached by Rev J J Teasdale of Fredericton, morning text John 10:14, evening text Heb 8:3. Mass meeting in the afternoon was addressed by Jas Watts, and Revs Teasdale, Phillips, Rutledge and Marr.

The follow were the pastors from the date of its formation.

1902-6 Geo A Ross.
1906 Robt G Fulton.

As the founders of Methodism at the formation of the circuit believed that the Sunday School was the nursery of the church a school was organized in 1833 of which J M Connell was superintendent, with the following staff of teachers: Charles Rice, Charles Sell, George F Williams, James R Tupper, Daniel J Day, Dwight Rice, William Lindsay, Mrs J M Connell, Mrs Clarey, Mary Rice, Lucy McIndoe, Elizabeth McIndoe. In 1842 Geo F Williams took charge of the Sunday School.

He was succeeded by Robert A Hay, who continued only a few years. Mr Hay gave many years' faithful service as recording steward. During the term of Mr Allison the late L P Fisher was appointed superintendent of the Sunday School, which place he held for twenty-five years. Mr Fisher took very great interest also in the choir which he led for many years. In 1875 D J Holder was elected superintendent of the school and was followed by James Watts who held the position for ten years. Mr Watts was succeeded in turn by C L Smith, L E Young and Charles L Smith who now has charge.

For some time past the old church needed repairs, and the congregation decided in 1907 that the old church was not up to the requirements of the work and that a new building was needed.

The Young Ladies Bible Class of the United Baptist Church will hold a Fancy Sale in the church vestry on Monday evening, April 13th. An excellent programme will be rendered. Ice Cream and Candy will be on sale during the evening. Doors open at 7.30. Admission 10 cents.

WHY OUR BUSINESS GROWS.

The gradual increase in our business is apparent to the most casual observer. Our Goods, our prices and our service are responsible for it. Our patrons have come to know the goodness of our goods, the lowness of our prices, the excellence of our service.

Here's a drug business built on integrity, merit and industry, supported by the patronage of satisfied customers—the kind that are increasing our business day by day. This year's business will be the largest in our history—good evidence of our ability to please.

And to clinch it all we say, satisfaction or your money back.

Established 1877.
