Another Valley Railway.

The Government yesterday afternoon heard a number of delegations. One was composed of John E. Stewart, of Andover, Howard Shaw, Ex-Warden John Scott, of this city, and LeBaron Bull of Hawkeshaw, and they asked if the Government would guarantee bonds for a local line of railway between Centreville and Fredericton to the amount of $15,000 per mile.

The proposition was of an indefinite nature inasmuch as there has not been any company formed or anything of that kind done and the Government requested the delegation to file a written statement.—Gleaner.

BANISH PIMPLES AND ERUPTIONS

Everyone Needs a Tonic in Spring to Purify and Build Up the Blood.

If you want new health and strength in spring you must build up your blood with a tonic medicine. Indoor life during the long winter months is responsible for the depressed condition and feeling of constant tiredness which affects so many people every spring. This condition means that the blood is impure and watery. That is what causes pimples and unsightly eruptions in some, others have twinges of rheumatism or the sharp, stabbing pains of neuralgia. Poor appetite, frequent headaches, and a desire to avoid exertions is also due to bad blood. Any or all of these troubles can be banished by the fair use of such a tonic medicine as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose of this medicine helps to make new, rich red blood, which drives out impurities, stimulates every organ, strengthens every nerve and brings a feeling of new health and new energy to weak, tired out, ailing men and women. Here is proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the greatest of all spring medicines. Mr. Henry Baker, Chipman, N. B., says:—"Last spring I was so weak and miserable that I could hardly drag myself about. My appetite was poor, I did not sleep well, and dreaded work. My blood was in a terrible condition, which caused pimples and small boils to break out all over me. These would itch and pain and caused me much trouble. I tried several medicines but without the least benefit, when one day a friend asked me why I did not try 'Dr. Williams' Pink Pills'. He spoke so highly of this medicine that I decided to take his advice and give the pills a trial. I got a half dozen boxes and the result was that by the time they were finished I felt like an altogether different man. They purified my blood, built up my whole system, and I have not had a pimple on my flesh, not a sick day since. For this reason I can highly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a blood builder and purifier." Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Spent Eighteen Dollars

"Gentlemen—I have pleasure in stating that I have used $18.00 worth of Psychine, and as a result was cured of very serious throat and lung trouble.

My case was a most difficult one, and the doctors had practically said that I could not get well. I tried Psychine, and it did me so much good that I continued its use until I had taken $18.00 worth, with the result that I am now a new man physically. I have gained thirty-five pounds.

"It is with the greatest confidence that I recommend Psychine to all who are afflicted with throat or lung trouble.

Yours truly, C. A. PINKHAM.

This man speaks from experience. Psychine cures all throat, chest, lung and stomach troubles and gives renewed strength and vitality to run-down people. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto.

Alcohol is a colorless liquid, and is never found in a natural state but is the product of distillation and fermentation, and as such is the essence of all intoxicating liquors, as Brandy, Wine, Ale or Beer. There is no essential difference between these liquors as they all consist of alcohol and water with some peculiar fruit, grain or plant flavour. They differ only in the proportion of the alcohol, which in Brandy may be 40 per cent, while in beer perhaps not more than 5. The word intoxicating comes from a Latin word meaning "poisonous." Then who would like to partake themselves, or encourage their friends to drink of a mixture that contained even that small amount of deadly poison. For alcohol is a poison and is often fatal to life. Deaths of men, women and children from poisonous doses of drug are common. In smaller quantities or in the lighter liquors as beer, wine and cider, when used as a beverage, alcohol injures the health in proportion to the amount taken. It is not a food, it does not in any sense of the term nourish or invigorate the body. It does not contain the elements necessary to produce heat, nor form flesh and muscle, nor bone. In fact it contributes nothing to help to keep the body in a healthy condition, but quite the contrary.

Arctic explorers have proved that alcohol is worse than useless in helping men bear extreme cold. Dr. McRae says, the use of liquor as a beverage when we had work on hand was out of the question, and it is no better protection against heat than against cold. Livingstone the famous African explorer has proved that men can endure more in tropical climates without it than with it. Lord Roberts in his military experience says that on forced marches, it was not the tall men, nor the short men, nor the big men, nor the little men who first fell out, but the drinkers who could not endure the same fatigue as the others. Those who never drink have a prospect of living much longer than those who do. Many diseases are caused by alcohol and many more are made worse by it.

The president of one Life Insurance Co in New England says of beer drinkers:—"The deaths among them were astonishing, robust health, full muscle, a fair outside, increasing weight, florid faces, than a touch of disease and quick death. It was as if the system had been kept fair outside, while within, it was eaten to a shell, and at the first touch there was utter collapse; every fibre was poisoned and weak. Beer drinking is very deceptive at first, it is thoroughly destructive at last. Most persons in their earlier indulgence think themselves capable of controlling their habits and appetites and indulge without apprehensions of danger. Even where that danger is apparent to others it may not be to them, until the desire and the habit are too strong, the will too weak, or the indifference to consequences too great for any effectual efforts to change this course. The longer the indulgence, the stronger the habit, the feebler the resistance, and the greater the indifference until the victim is swallowed up in his self-invited destruction. From this view of the facts it becomes too obvious to need repeating that the remedy for drunkenness as a vice and inebriety as a disease is abstinence from alcoholic drinks. It would be an insult to the intelligence of the reader to say that the remedy for drunkenness is the use of wine or beer, of which alcohol is the essential and active ingredients. The drinking of a very little alcohol is enough to deaden to some extent the noblest power of a man's mind and to make him careless about the results of his actions. It is fully proved that a large number of crimes for which men are sent to prisons or gaols are committed when they are in this condition. But it is no excuse for a criminal to plead that he was drinking at the time. Alcoholic drinks not only are injurious to man physically and mentally but morally and spiritually as well as financially which should not be overlooked.

The Bible warns us that the drunkard shall come to poverty in this life, and further that he shall be excluded from the Kingdom of Heaven. "Who hath weep; Who hath sorrow; Who hath contention; Who hath wounds without cause?" They that frequent the beer shop They that acquire a habit for strong drink. Men are strong just in proportion as they have the ability to say no, and stand by it. Look back on your own life—what was it that caused you most worry, wear, vexation, loss and pains? Wasn't it because you failed to say No at certain times and stick to it.

And the real fact is that the good opinion of the best people comes from your saying no.

Cultivate self-confidence and learn to say no. Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

Coil-Spring Wire

Imported direct from England is used for the laterals of "Maritime" Wire Fence. This wire, while it stretches up stiff and taut, is yet remarkably springy—makes a fence so elastic that it instantly springs back into its original erect position after undergoing pressure severe enough to stretch an ordinary fence permanently out of shape. Test the galvanizing of this English Wire with your knife and you'll find it heavier, smoother, better. Fact is, this English Wire makes Maritime Wire Fence fully 25 to 100 per cent. more lasting than ordinary fencing—a 25 to 100 per cent. better investment.
