John Donnelly.

John Donnelly, an old and respected citizen, died at noon on Friday, Oct 9th, of heart trouble. He was born in St John, N B, in 1838. About 50 years ago, at the age of 20 years he came to Woodstock, N B, and engaged in the dry goods business: later he became surveyor. He was indeed a gentleman of the strictest integrity, prompt and honorable in all his business dealings, and was respected and esteemed by all with whom he came in contact.

He leaves a widow and one son Charles J Donnelly, and five daughters, Mrs J J O'Connor of Holyoke, Mass, Mrs Alex Beaton, Mrs John Cogger and the Misses Maggie and Ella at home, also one brother, Thomas residing in the States, and three sisters, Mrs Doucett of Stoneham, Mass, Mrs Meahan of Bathurst, N B, and Miss Lizzie Donnelly of St Stephen who was present at the funeral, besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral was held on Monday morning at 9 o'clock from St Gertrudes Church. It was attended by the family and many relatives and friends of deceased and at the close of the requiem mass celebrated by Rev F J McMurray the body was taken to the R C Cemetery for interment. The pall-bearers were Mr Judge, Mr Brown, Mr Kelly and Mr Ryan. May he rest in peace.

His daughter Mrs O'Connor and sister Mrs Doucett were home about a month ago to see their father and brother.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside hidden nerve, says Dr Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the Heart, and one to the Kidney. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by ALL DEALERS.

JOHN T VANDINE.

At Bellville, on Sept 21st, of paralysis, John T Vandine, age 60 years and 7 months, leaving a widow one son and many relatives to mourn their loss. Funeral preached by Rev A W Teed.

Death has been here and borne away,

A loved one from our side,
 Just in the autumn of his years,
 Our dearest father died.

And ear it be that he has gone,
 The one we did so love,
 We know that he has changed the scenes of earth,
 For brighter realms above.

And shall we see his face no more,
 Nor hear dear father's voice,
 How gladly we would have kept him here,

Could we have had our choice.
 How oft the warm and gushing tears,
 Flow down our cheeks so fast,
 As we call back again to mind,
 Scenes of the happy past.

We know that God has but recalled,
 The soul that he had given,
 Although the body moulders here,
 The spirit rests in Heaven.
