Grand Liberal Rally.

The Liberals of Carleton County will be glad to learn that on Tuesday 24th inst. Nomination night, there will be a grand rally in the Opera House, Woodstock, to be addressed by Mr Upham, Hon C W Robinson, Leader of the Opposition, Organizer Copp, Hon F J Sweeney, Hon H A McKeown, Hon W P Jones, F B Carvell M P and others. A special train will run after the meeting to enable the up-river folk to get home that night. Let everyone strive to get here on Tuesday.

CONVENTION.

The Liberals of Carleton County evidently don't intend to let the grass grow under their feet, even if the Hazen government in its stage-fright arising out of the federal election did call on the by-election in the shortest possible time the law will permit, thereby hoping to secure a snap verdict in their favor.

But the plan has failed. The keynote of the great Convention Wednesday afternoon in Graham's Opera was a determination to drive the enemy to the last ditch. No surrender, no quarter, and no compromise is the slogan.

The nomination of George W Upham brings once again prominently into the public gaze one of our best-known and most respected citizens, a gentleman who considering his entrance into the campaign last winter at the eleventh hour and the terrible odds against the whole government ticket, polled a surprisingly large vote. Mr Upham has all the earmarks of a winner in this fight.

Sharp at half-past two the veteran President of the Liberal Association, Mr James A Barter of Avondale, called the gathering to order. He expressed great pleasure at seeing such a representative gathering assembled at very short notice. The work they had met to accomplish was the selection of a fit and worthy person to fill the vacancy in the Assembly. Personally he believed there was an excellent chance to win. While he was as warm in his support of the party as ever, advancing years had impaired his faculties somewhat, and in addition he had suffered a slight paralytic stroke. For these reasons he felt compelled to lay his resignation before the meeting, and ask for the election of a successor.

On motion of Albion R Foster, seconded by John N Perry, the office of President was tendered to Warden Frank R Shaw of Victoria, who accepted the honor in a neat speech. F B Carvell M P said he could not let the opportunity go by without paying a tribute to the worth of the retiring president, who for over forty years has been a tower of strength in his section of the constituency, and whose fidelity to the party never wavered, even in the darkest periods of defeat. He regarded Mr Barter as one of the truest Liberals in the party, and felt it a privilege to move a vote of thanks.

Coun E S Gillmor of Aberdeen seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.

Mr Barter, replying, thanked the Convention for its action. He could only say that he was heart and soul with the party, and whatever period of time it might please Providence to grant him, would do everything honorable within his power to advance the interests of the party so dear to his heart.

President Shaw said every man present knew why the gathering had been called. He suggested the appointment of a nominating committee.

On motion of Harry Carvell the committee was constituted of four from Woodstock Town and two from each polling place in the parishes.

Upon formal nomination, the committee was constituted as follows:

Woodstock.—Ald Coles W Dugan, James W Gallagher, O Duncan Johnston and Albert G Fields.

Woodstock North.—Solomon Percy and Charles G Hand.

Woodstock South.—Charles Peabody and Charles Gough.

Northampton.—Coun Henry A Phillips and Frank L Ryan.

Richmond South.—William Johnston and Oliver R Hemphill.

Richmond North.—Joseph Merrithew and Richmond Roach.

Wakefield Front.—Byron Robinson and Charles M Shaw.

Wakefield West.—W Harley Hannah and Milton McBride.

Wilmot.—Fred D Tweedie and Merrill Tracy.

Wilmot Front.—Coun Carey Estey and John Holmes.

Wilmot West.—Wellington Jamieson and Rennie Tracy.

Kent Front.—Amos Demerchant and John W Bohan.

Kent Back.—C E Gallagher and W J Gallagher.

Simonds.—Coun Odbur Shaw and Holland Estey.

Brighton Front.—Frank Hagerman and O H Taylor.

Brighton Back.—C E Hayward and Woodford Craig.

Aberdeen Front.—Coun E S Gillmor and Joseph Nixon.

Aberdeen Back.—Murdock McKenzie and Frank Staten.

Peel.—Andrew McCain and John Brooker.

These gentlemen then withdrew to the committee room, and organized with C E Gallagher as chairman and Charles M Shaw as Secretary.

It is understood several names were considered, but only two were voted upon, George W Upham receiving a clear majority on the first ballot, which was immediately made unanimous, the committee then returning and submitting the name of Mr Upham for ratification. The convention seemed pleased, judging by the hearty shout of approval that greeted the announcement. The candidate was called to the platform, and spoke in part as follows:

MR PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN:

I can't tell you how pleased I am to be your candidate. I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Last March I went down to defeat. Then we didn't get the whole party support. Some of our friends, a good many, were led astray by the promises of wonderful good that would come to the province if only Mr Hazen were given a chance to rule. But I don't think anyone here will disagree with me when I say that the new government has been the most colossal failure the province ever knew. Take for instance their pledges to hand out offices to their greedy supporters. Why down in York County they had a typical instance where Harry McLeod promised the job as caretaker of the Highway Bridge to thirty nine people, and not one of them got it. They gave it to a virtual outsider. That almost beats the record they made here in promising the job as deputy sheriff to twenty at least. No wonder the Hazen government is unpopular, even among its followers. Mr Hazen was fond of censuring the old government. He accused them of extravagance in having a Solicitor General, but he keeps one himself. He promised to give us a new Road Law that would be a regular bonanza, but behold what he has done! He said the old government had a very poor agricultural policy, but he has none at all. He appointed a country doctor to be commissioner of agriculture, and sending around the M D and a couple of other men drawing big pay to find out from practical farmers how to run the department. I don't believe you nominated me because you thought me to be the ablest man, there are doubtless others right here to-day who would make better representatives, but I assure you I will do the best I can to win. I hope you'll elect me.—Applause.

COUN E S GILLMOR

The veteran from Aberdeen was in good form and made one of his characteristic addresses, brilliant with humor. He was much gratified to find Mr Upham the candidate last month Aberdeen came close to giving a Liberal majority. The Tories had only a small lead and that they had to scratch for most mightily hard. This time we expect to trim them, and if anyone can get a majority for the Liberals, it's Geo Upham. The charge that the Hazen government wasted the by-road money last month to help Frank Smith's campaign is perfectly true. They even paid in Aberdeen as high as $36 for skirting the road, work that could be done for $2 an acre.

WM A HAYWARD

The ex-high sheriff was received with three rousing cheers. He said he would be far less than human if he were not more than flattered by the hearty reception. He wasn't much of a speaker, but could lay claim to be something of a political hustler. He was heart and soul with Upham. Frank Smith is the man responsible for bringing on this election, but we'll forgive him, for it gives us a chance to elect a better man. The only pity is that the other two didn't do the same as Smith and get out. Then we'd send three good Liberals to Fredericton. As I have been referred to a great deal by conservative speakers in the not too distant past, I will take occasion to say that it doesn't lay in the mouth of Donald Munro to accuse me of wronging Simms as he did in the late campaign, when everybody knows Judge Barker who tried the case, publicly exonerated me and went so far as to say that I would have done very wrong had I acted otherwise. It doesn't add any credit to J Kidd Flemming either to go around saying I've got the mask off my face since I was put out of the office of sheriff. I am a man of only one face. If Flemming and I started an unmasking contest he has so many faces I'd be all done before he got more than underway. The only real reason they had for turning me out was that I am a member of a Liberal family. I am positive we'll elect our man this time.

W. B. FARRIS

of White's Cove, Queen's Co, son of ex-Commissioner L P Farris, being present was invited to speak. Mr Farris said it was a great pleasure for him to be in attendance. The harmony and enthusiasm which seems to prevail will surely prove an augury of a happy victory. Of course no battle can be won without organization, said Mr Farris, and I am happy to know that your organization which brought about such a splendid result in the federal election is yet intact. Up here in Carleton Co I always feel at home, for it is the native county of my mother. This Hazen government has violated every solemn obligation into which it ever entered prior to their reaching
