Ontario and Quebec.

The expected has happened. A few days previous to the recent provincial elections we ventured the prediction that both the Gouin and the Whitney government would be sustained, and the result is as we anticipated, each premier having a substantial majority. In Ontario the Opposition lost slightly, but in view of the gerrymander and their utter | B Jones Co Ltd. lack of even the legitimate sinews of war, did better if anything than they anticipated, one cabinet minister being defeated, and in addition the historic ridings of North Renfrew and South Oxford redeemed. The Quebec contest is interesting in that it marks the annihilation of the local conservative party, all its leaders including Hon P E LeBlanc, Hon L P Pelletier and Hon G A Nantel having gone under. To offset their afternoon, June 23rd and 24th. disappearance there is the rehabilitation of Henri Bourassa, who running as a Nationalist defeated the Premier by a slender majority in St | cause is unknown. James, and won in St Hyacinthe by a small margin. As Hon Mr Gouin by over 800 this somewhat removed the sting of defeat in St James. The striking feature, as we have just intimated, is the appearance in the legislature of Bourassa, who with his' zealous lieutenant Lavergne, will constitute the head and shoulders of the opposition to the Gonin administration. The few scattering Bleus will perforce become a mere side show attached to the main Nationalist opposition, and the striking feature will be presented of a man who calls him elf a Liberal of the Liber. als leading the opposition to a Lib- Ltd. eral government in the historic Assembly halls of old Quebec.
