THE CONVENTION.

The Liberals of Carleton County are requested to meet at Woodstock on Saturday August Eighth, at half past two in the afternoon, in the new Hayden-Gibson Theatre, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the House of Commons.

In issuing this call I am moved thereto by the fact that the life of the present parliament is rather far spent. It was in 1904 that the last appeal was made, in which I feel proud to say Carleton swung in line with Liberalism and with the Dominion, and it would be no great surprise should our gifted leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in his wisdom once more call on his cohorts to rally round the standard at no distant day. I therefore in my capacity as President of the Association have seen fit to call the party together for the purpose of choosing a captain for this Carleton Co Company of the Liberal host, in preparation for the battle of the ballots. It is my wish that every parish and every school district shall be fully represented, and that every Liberal who can at all be present shall do so. For the convenience of the up-river sections arrangements will be made for a special train going north and leaving Woodstock after the Convention.

In conclusion let me impress this fact: Every Liberal, every person who intends to support the party, is invited to attend and participate, no special delegates having been chosen.

Yours very truly,

JAMES A. BARTER,
President Carleton Liberal Association
