JONES CARVELL

Liberal Meetings.

The attention of our readers, particularly those in the upper end of the county, is directed to the announcement on our first page concerning a series of meetings, embracing Bath, Johnville, Summerfield, Centreville and Glassville, at which the Liberal Candidates, Messrs Jones, Carvell and Upham, will be present, assisted by FB Carvell M P, and very likely some members of the local government, the names of Hon Messrs Sweeney and La Billois having been heard in this connection.

Doubtless our friends will turn out in large numbers to hear these speakers. The Carle on Liberals have three standard bearers of whom any county might well be proud, and it goes without saying that they will give a good account of themselves on the platform.

Mr Flemming's Challenge.

The Premier wisely declined to meet Carleton's windy orator. There, is some dignity attached to the honorable position as leader of the government, and in refusing to knock the chip from Mc Flemming's shoulder Hon Mr Robinson acted well within his rights, and consistent with the trad .: ions attached to lead ership. It has cen well said that friend and associate sister Amber C when a Corpor ...on is told that its manager is no onest in his method of bookkeeping, the accused is not placed on a public platform to debate the mit er with his accuser, but the more sc sible and satisfactory method o calling in an independent and trustworthy auditor is resorted to. This exactly covers the present e . Hon Mr Robinson | respect and regard; and we sincerely is really th anager for the Province. Mr t emming raises a hue and cry that the Premier has issued | Providence to afflict you, and coma misleading and grossly inaccurate financial s'a ement, and challenges him to debate it. On the other hand the Premier in effect says:-"Very well, I will not talk with you, but you prove your case, I shall resign my position." We will leave it to parted sister. any business man, any fair-minded Conservative even, if the Premier's Lodge No 281 I O G T. attitude is not the proper one. Mr Flemming's fury surprises no one. He gets a little cheap notoriety, that is all. In this connection on another page we re-print an article from "Chat," which coming as an independent view, is well worthy of care. ful perusal.

Bank of Nova Scotia.

Elsewhere in this issue appears he Annual Report of that sound and progressive institution, the Bank of Nova Scotia. The story of the Bank's excellent financial condition is well told in the statement. It will be seen that the way large cash reserve, heavy deposits, and splendid dividend give ample evidence of stabil. ity. The independent audit is a further guarantee. Locally the Bank maintains a prominent position, the Woodstock Manager being Mr W M McCunn, a gentleman highly esteemed by the whole business community.

Chancellor Commander Skillen was host to the K P Lodge Tuesday night at a supper in the Royal Cafe after installation. George W Gibson, Vice Cancellor, acted as toastmaster. Speeches were made by Chan cellor Skillen, Vice-Chancellor Gibson, Postmaster Smith, RE Holyoke, Hon W P Jones and others. Brother Fred Mooers gave a solo.

The great success attending the cut price sale cf seasonable goods at C M Sherwood's, Centreville, notwith standing the bad condition of the roads, fully warrants a continuance of this grand opportunity a little longer or until its termination is announced.
