When You Go Home to Lunch

see if your Silver looks dilapidated under the stress of scouring and daily use. Service does not take the beauty from 1847 Rogers Bros. Silver-plate, because it is made better than all others. Government investigation shows it bears even more pure silver than is claimed for it. That is why it Wears.

Your Pride in Your Table

should make you refuse to buy old-fashioned silver. 1847 Roger Bros. Silver-plate is modern. Represents more care in the making and greater quantity of pure silver on the outside. Government assays prove it.

A Conservative Victory.

The scores, yea hundreds, of Liberals in Carleton County who helped to defeat the local government will no doubt be interested in learning that practically every conservative paper and almost every conservative public man in the wide Dominion hails the Hazen victory as merely the forerunner of what is to follow in the federal field. Even Mr Hazen himself, according to a dispatch from Montreal has written to R. L. Borden expressing the opinion that the victory will be repeated. This is very nice of Mr Hazen,—certainly a splendid way to repay the debt of gratitude he owes the great body of Liberals who helped him attain power. Mr Hazen himself, despite his previous denials, will abandon local politics when the federal election comes, and join Borden, providing there is any hope of conservative success. If he shall stick to the provincial field it will be proof positive that in his opinion Laurier will be sustained.

Gone to the West.

Everett Ridley and wife, George Kitchen, Mrs Lavinia Kinney, Miss Annie Kinney, and Mr and Mrs Geo Everett and 2 children left Monday night for Marshfield, Oregon, where they will make their future home. Mr Everett, who is a son-in-law of Major Kinney, goes to take charge of the mill and timber property valued at considerably over $50,000, presented to him by the Major on the occasion of his trip to the West early this year. These folk are all excellent citizens, standing very high in the community, and it is the regret of all that they are leaving this province, but the advantages they are to secure in Oregon are of such a financial nature that they do not see their way clear to refrain from going.

Tyler Hanuab, a prominent Farmington farmer, having disposed of his place has also gone West. He will stop a while at Riverside, Calif, and eventually expects to go up the coast to Prince Rupert.

Mr James K Flemming M P P will in all probability be the Hon James K Flemming, Provincial Secretary, ere this paper again reaches its readers. Mr Flemming has our best wishes in his new dignity, which we trust is only temporary in duration. As to the consequent by-election, we have so far observed no inclination on the part of anyone to oppose the new minister. A good stiff fight could be put up, and not without some little hope of success, yet the occasion is scarcely opportune.

JOTTINGS.

"Briny Deep" Serge for men's suits gives the best wear.

The Albert County Conservative Association passed a resolution this week calling upon Mr Hazen to make a clean sweep of all Liberal office-holders.

John Lipsett, postmaster of Charlestown, was in town Wednesday. Mr Lipsett, who is a veteran Liberal, has been a subscriber to this journal for half a century.

The Ontario local elections will be held this summer. Premier Whitney, cons, has about 70 seats in the present Assembly out of 98, and he will probably continue in power,—no doubt with a diminished following. The temperance people are rather displeased with his legislation.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is planning to visit the West this Summer. The federal election is possible, yet scarcely probable, before the summer of 1909. The conservatives profess to think it will come this year, but there are at present few good reasons for their opinion.

The Myrtle-Harder Company played to crowded houses Friday and Saturday nights. The Company is one of the best ever seen in town. While here Mr Harder, the manager, completed arrangements with the management of the new Gibson-Hayden theatre for the opening of that playhouse sometime in June. This is good news for local theatre-goers.

Three Italian laborers were tried last week at Edmundston on the charge of murderously assaulting a fellow workman on the night of Dec 31st. The three desperadoes inflicted 35 wounds on the victim, using knives and razors. Aaron Lawson prosecuted, and Marvin L. Hayward of Hartland defended. All the prisoners were found guilty, and Judge Gregory sentenced them each to three years at Dorchester.

All Liberals in Carleton County are respectfully invited to attend the great Liberal Convention for the Province at St John on Tuesday, 21st April. It is certain to be the finest gathering ever held in that city, among the delegates being gentlemen from every county in the province. Carleton should be represented by at least a hundred. One fare rates on the trains will prevail. All who can possibly arrange to attend are respectfully urged to do so.

J Thompson vs Chas E Grant, an action on a note, was tried before Magistrate Dibblee on Saturday. This is one of the Carriage Company cases. Defendant denied signing the note. Judgment was given in favor of defendant. J C Hartley for prosecution; Tappan Adney for defence.

There was a meeting of the faithful last week to discuss the burning question of patronage. Mr Munro is said to favor very few decapitations just now, while some of his prominent supporters are strongly of the opposite view. They can't wait.

Mr Hazen is understood to be going back on his earlier views in connection with the abolition of the office of Solicitor General, moved thereto by the arguments of Mr Grimmer, Mr McLeod and others. The strong opinion of one J Douglas Hazen that any lessening of the charges for collecting succession duties would have the effect of decreasing the emoluments of the Attorney-General are also said to carry considerable weight with the coming premier.

The unpleasantness among the followers of Mr Borden in parliament continues. In a recent debate Mr W F McLean referred to Hon John Haggart as "my antediluvian friend" and Mr Haggart's opinion of his assailant is not on record but is understood to be far from flattering. Until Mr Borden has a party behind him united on some other ground than thirst for office he is not likely to have much progress towards defeating the Liberal government whose friends are more enthusiastic than ever in support of their distinguished leader.

The Bristol Book and Literary Club met at the home of Miss Eva Caldwell on Monday evening. The programme for the evening consisted of Scotch selections. Mrs Chas Tinker read an interesting biography of Robert Burns which was followed by reading from Burns by different members of the club. Several violin selections were beautifully rendered by Miss Eva Caldwell. Rev Mr Anderson sang very effectively several Scottish songs and the club adjourned after singing a number of choruses, quartettes, etc., and instrumental music by the Misses Caldwell and Boyer.

Williamstown.

We are now having warm spring-like weather, the fields are getting bare and some places in the road, in other places the drifts are very deep.

Most of the farmers are done hauling hay and will now haul potatoes while the sledding lasts or until the ice in the river breaks up.

Thos Pryor & Son have been sawing and threshing in this district for some days, they are threshing now for Mrs McWaid, on the back place.

Robert Colwell of Mars Hill, Me, was the guest of his cousin, John A Porter last Thursday.

Miss Hildred Smith, Lakeville, spent last Sunday with her cousin, Miss Fern Page.

John Smith, an old resident of Pioneer district, died Friday 13th after a few weeks severe illness. He leaves a widow and eleven children and was respected by all who knew him.

James Page, Pioneer, is on the sick list. His nurse, Miss Murphy, has returned to Woodstock to take charge of another patient.

Mrs Jane Gillis has returned from Fort Fairfield accompanied by Mrs Mungo Stuart and child, who are visiting friends and relatives here. Joseph Oldham, of Southampton, passed through this section this week taking orders for gravestones of different kinds and patterns.

Mr and Mrs Hanford Lindsay and daughter Annie, visited Woodstock on Saturday.

Clark McBride passed through here last week selling post cards.

Ellis Carmichael, Good Settlement, was in this section last Saturday.

Charles Carmichael who has been boarding at Wm Jameson's the last two or three years, left a few weeks ago.

Quite a number of people are hauling refuse lumber from Carvell Bros' lath mill. It is a boon to get it, as wood is scarce here on some farms.

Frank Emery and family have moved to his father-in-law's, Wm Brooker at Stickney, so Bert needs a housekeeper bad as he and his father are left alone.

Wm Anderson, Pioneer, is getting lumber to repair his barn that was unroofed by the wind in Feb. It will take 21 thousand of shingles to cover it.

Mr and Mrs Isaac Nelson, Charlestown, were guests of John A Porter on Sunday.

Miss Sadie Jameson spent a day at home this week from Tracey Mills, where she is learning dressmaking. Mrs John A Porter spent one afternoon this week at Mr A Jameson's.

Grace, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm Page is quite sick at present.

Quite a number around here have had colds or lagrippe.

Lena, daughter of Mr and Mrs John A Porter has been quite sick, but is improving.

Mr and Mrs Henry Perkins, Charlestown, spent Sunday afternoon at her uncle's, John A Porter.

E A Savage and James Bradley, Pioneer, made a trip to Woodstock and back today.

Lower Wakefield.

As I have not seen any news from this place, I thought I would let you know we are still alive.

Rev Mr Brown has been holding special meetings here.

The recent rain has left the roads in a bad condition.

Coleman Sharpe is sick with lagrippe. I hope he will be better soon.

A number of young people from this place attended a party at Mr Everett's, Jacksonville, on Thursday evening.

Gordon Haley is on the sick list.

Ziba Clarke had another stroke of paralysis Wednesday, which left him speechless.

Mr and Mrs Wellington Haley drove to Houlton on Sunday to spend a few days with Maurice Haley.

The concert given by Mrs Adney proved a success. About one hundred and forty were present and $45 was realized.

Miss Queenie Phillips of Pembroke, is visiting at Fred Dickinson's.

Mr and Mrs Miles Clarke are visiting relatives in Simonds.

Miss Kate Camp spent Sunday in Woodstock.

It's too bad there are so many cross-roads some people get on the wrong one.

Dew Drop.

The canine question is again to the fore. Within a week there have been no less than three dog fights in the post office. Citizens owning these animals should keep them at home. The tax of a dollar a head might well be put on again.

First Aid to the Doctor.

The Doctor first, of course, in sickness or injury, but a drug store capable of supplying him with drugs, medicines and sick room goods is also a prime requisite. You never need this drug store more than when serious sickness comes —the more critical the illness the greater the need. The Doctor first, the prescription to us, we do the rest.
