Newburg.

Schools have closed for the Christmas holidays. The one in Newburg taught by Lewis McGuire closed Friday at noon, and the scholars and teacher attended the examination held by the teacher at Central Newburg, Mrs Frank Ryan. At this school all the grades had reading and spelling and questions asked in geography, history, health, mental arithmetic etc, the one answering the last question quickest received a little prize, thus a box of note paper was won in Grade V by Joennie Hourihan, in Grade IV (A) a gilded mug by Russell Hourihan, in Grade IV (B) a gilded vase by Helen Hourihan, in Grade III a calendar by Tommy Phillips, in Grade II a calendar by Marion Phillips. After the classes "My Own Canadian Home" was sung by Misses Carrie Burke, Genevieve Montague, Katie Cunningham and Helen Gallagher. Girls of Grade V (Fourth reader), followed by a program of recitations, dialogues and singing. The school room was trimmed with evergreens and Christmas bells, and a Christmas tree adorned the corner near the blackboard, and at the close Santa Claus came in and left cards and bags of candy and nuts for each pupil, and a box of note paper for each girl in Grade V, a present for each of the Primer class, Frank Montague, Guy Gibbons, Johnnie Johnston, Harry Cummings and Helen Phillips and some others got Christmas bells, the rubber ball bounced by Santa was caught by Otis Culbert. The visitors present gave great praise to little Charlie Gallagher nine years old for the manner in which he rendered some recitations to the audience, in a clear loud voice and to Carrie Burke and Katie Cunningham for the singing of "Young Charlotte," one lady said she had not heard it sung with such sweetness and eloquence for thirty years. A song "The poor Irish Minstrel" sung by Genevieve Montague won loud applause. Mrs Patrick Montague recited "The Two Portraits" in a manner worthy of comment, and Mrs Matthew Phillips recitation, "Samuel and I" fairly brought down the house. Mrs Ryan drove in to school every morning from home three miles distant and back after four o'clock, conducting a school of thirty three pupils to the satisfaction of nearly all I believe and is going to take a rest for the winter term and do some nice cooking for Frank.

Misses Mabel Gallagher and Gertrude McGuire have returned home from Normal School.

Miss Eva Gallagher teacher at St Thomas is home for holidays.

A RECOGNIZED REGULATOR.—To bring the digestive organs into symmetrical working is the aim of physicians when they find a patient suffering from stomachic irregularities, and for this purpose they can prescribe nothing better than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will be found a pleasant medicine of surprising virtue in bringing the rectory organs into subjection and restoring them to normal action, in which condition only can they perform their duties properly.

Peterson—Merrill.

In Portland, Maine, November 12th. a wedding of unusual interest to a large circle of friends occurred at the bride's home, 94 Spring St when Miss Mary G Peterson a very popular young lady of that city, formerly of Tracy Mills, Car. Co., N. B. was married to Mr Louis P Merrill of West Stewartstown, N. H. The parlor where the ceremony was performed was very tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and palms and the officiating clergyman was Rev A W Jefferson of the Free Baptist Church who employed a double ring in the service. Mrs Dr Johnson played the wedding music.

The bride was stately and very attractive in a beautiful white silk robe, princess lace trimmings and her jewelry was a pearl pendant, a gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was Miss Lottie Roche of Knighville who was prettily attired in pale blue pongee silk, cream lace trimmings and carried pink pinks. The best man was Mr Walter Henderson of Westbrook.

A delightful reception followed the ceremony. The ushers were Alexis Bearce and Dr Bohannon. The music room was in pink and during the evening Piano selections were heard. Miss Ida M Anderson kept the guest book and among the out of town guests were Mr and Mrs H P Merrill and family, Yarmouth; Mr and Mrs A D Sweetser and family, Pownal; Edith A Merrill, Wilton; Mr and Mrs R W Linn, Hartland. The bride's gifts made a handsome display and these were in charge of Miss Annie F Knight. There were cut glass pieces, silverware, linen, pictures, etc, including a mahogany table from J R Libby Co, and a chafing dish from the O A N Club of which the bride was a member.

During the social festivities refreshments were served, Miss Mary Henderson dipped punch and the assistants in serving ices etc, were Misses Alice McGuire, Maud Goodwin, Edythe Gordon, Pearl Seavey, Edith A Merrill. The dining room was in the colors of the club, red and white and a prominent feature was a large Key with the letters O A N. The hall was decorated in green and white and throughout the floral decorations were effective.

After a wedding journey Mr and Mrs Merrill will make their home in West Stewartstown, N. H.—Com [Dispatch and Press please copy.]

When arranged in a bonbon dish, with each chocolate in its neat, fancy paper cup, they look the very essence of daintiness and refined good taste.

My! how delicious they are, too! Such delicately flavored centers, containing creamy confections, nuts, fruits and jellies, concealed under the finest, smoothest coating of the very richest chocolate.

The number of different varieties in each box will delightfully surprise you.
