THE CAREEJON SENTINEL. WOODSTOCK, N. B., SEPTEMBER 18, 1908.

Letter from Coun Kinney.

Editor Sentinel :

SIR,-It having been reported by certain Conservatives that the article in your paper last week about me was not correct, I wish to state most emphatically that I am supporting Mr Carvell to the utmost of my ability, and will do everything that can honorably be done to secure his election. While I am and have been a strong conservative, I cannot see that we have any right to be asked, to elect a man every six months and like scores of other Conservatives on this occasion I feel that Mr Carvell having so ably represented the county, should be sent back to Ottawa with an overwhelming majority. This is an occasion when right-thinking men should rise superior to party.

Yours truly, JOHN E KINNEY.

INTERCOLONIAL

The Press has everything framed up to suit itself. It says it's only a question of majority for Saith. But how is Smith to get that majority?

The Liberals of Carleton have a clean candidate. This is something that can't be denied.

Four years ago the Press was not willing to concede the ghost of a show for Carvell. He was to be simply buried. And would you believe it, the foolish organ is again prophesying a tory victory, in fact it speaks as if all is over except the shouting. Such gall !

Laurier will finish his work. While we put no stock in and will not indulge in foolish pre-election boasting, we boldly make the assertion. that Borden will fail this time just as he failed in 1904. The people of Carleton have had an able friend at court for the past four years. What arrant folly 'twould be to send Smith, to Ottawa!

The Press conveys, or seeks to convey, a veiled threat that unless we cease exposing the Hazen government for its brutal treatment of liberal officeholders, there will be more heads in the basket. As the editor, the president, the up-river contributor, and one or two local editorial contributors to the Press (one of whom wrote the article containing the solean warning) are all supposed to have their job spotted, they doubtless would be only too glad to see more local decapitations. But we will lay this down as a maxim from which we will not depart : The Sentinel will not cease to condemn wrongdoing, no matter what the cost * * *

Probably the Press has not yet learned that there is no back door, and no rear entrance to the Liberal Club Rooms. Where could that
