Mrs. G. O. Mills of Robinson, Me. has been to several opticians for defective sight. They could get no vision from the right eye and she was obliged to wear glasses. She now wears perfectly clear glasses. Her eyes developed and fitted with glasses by a rather startling new discovery by C. E. Vail, Optician of Centerville, N. B. Mrs. Mills was of her right eye for 21 years. Five years ago she was obliged to go to a Montreal Hospital where for three weeks she was treated by the celebrated eye specialists. Dr. Bailer. He told her she would never have any use of that defective eye. Mr. Vail, however by means of his marvelous discovery fitted her with glasses that developed that eye to perfect sight. Mr. Vail has been in optical work and research for the past ten years. Two years ago he graduated from the Canadian Optical Institute, at Montreal receiving therefrom a first class diploma. Of late he has been in deep research along new lines and has discovered means by which many ordinarily hopeless cases can be successfully restored to perfect vision. He is pleased to examine your eyes free of charge. He also duplicates all kinds of lenses.

Some time ago there was a flood in British Columbia. An old fellow who had lost nearly everything he possessed was sitting on the roof of his house as it floated along, when a boat approached.

"Hello, John!"

"Hello, Dave!"

"Are your fowls all washed away, John?"

"Yes, but the ducks can swim," replied the old man.

"Apple trees gone?"

"Well, they said the crop would be a failure, anyhow."

"I see the flood's away above your window."

"That's all right, Dave. Them windows needed washin', anyhow."

A Daily Thought.

Above the edge of dark appear

the lances of the sun;

Along the mountain-ridges clear

his rosy heralds run;

The vapors down the valley go

Like broken armies, dark and low

Look up, my heart, from every hill

In folds of rose and daffodil

The sunrise banners flow.

O fly away on silent wing, ye boding owls of night!

O welcome little birds that sing

the coming-in of light!

For new, and new, and evernew,

The golden bud within the blue;

And every morning seems to say:

"There's something happy on the way,

"And God sends love to you!"

Graft.

"The people in power have stolen enough," declared the candidate, and stopped for applause.

"Elect me," he continued, "and I promise to do my best to steal it all back again—that is, I mean promise not to steal as much as—Oh, hang this public speaking."

During a Halloween entertainment at Lorette Academy, a Catholic boarding school for girls at Kansas City, Miss Virginia Owen and Miss Mamie Tiernan, student actors, were severely burned that they died next day. Miss Mary Maley was severely burned while endeavoring to save her school mates. A panic was averted by the coolness of the Mother Superior and several Sisters. All the girl actors wore light Equimaux costumes, covered with cotton to represent snow, while the stage had been set with much cotton tinsel to portray the discovery of the North Pole. Miss Owen tripped over a Jack O'Lantern, and in a second the flames had communicated to the other girls and decorations.

It happened to a local druggist that sold a cheap acid corn salve instead of the reliable Putnam's Corn Extract. Substitutes burn the flesh—Putnam's cures the corn. Use only the best—"Putnam's."
