

Amatite ROOFING

No more paint for me!
I've now covered every roof on my place with Amatite.

To buy a roofing that requires painting is inviting trouble. Painted roofings are as out of date as the harvester machinery of thirty years ago.

The roofing of to-day needs no painting. That's one of its great features.

If you are still using the "old rubber kind," the kind that requires painting every year or two to keep it tight, we want to tell you about Amatite; why it needs no painting; why it wears longer than the "smooth surfaced" roofings, and why it costs less.

First—Its chief ingredient is Coal Tar Pitch—not a "secret compound" but a well known, long tested material, recognized by engineers as the greatest waterproofing material known. Two layers of this material are used in every sheet of Amatite.

Second—We use two layers of the best grade of wool felt to hold the pitch in place. This wool felt gives tensile strength to the roofing, and is the best material known for that purpose.

Third—On top of these four layers is a real mineral surface. This surface requires absolutely no painting, and adds materially to the life of the roofing. It is fire retardant. It is permanent.

We want to send you a sample so that you can see what a solid, substantial waterproof roofing Amatite really is.

Brighten Up

Not only does it take longer to put poor paint on your building than good paint, but you have to do it oftener. Divide the cost of painting your building into three parts and two of them go to the painter. The third part pays for the paint. If you get paint that will last 6 years you can afford to pay more for it than for paint that lasts but 2.

Very fine weather. The farmers are busy at work.

Mrs Margaret Bunting is quite poorly, being confined to her bed.

The members of the W F M Society held their usual thank offering services in the Temperance Hall, Maxwell St. on the 16th.

Mary Etta the youngest daughter of George and Elizabeth Bustard of Monument St., died May 16th of consumption, aged about 17 years. She is survived by both parents, one sister Elva, who is now Mrs Anderson, three brothers, Howard, Edward and Walter, and a very large circle of other relatives. It is hardly two months since she was able to attend the funeral of a neighbor. She was well educated and attended school during the present term and of a cheerful disposition. It is expected Rev A W Teed of the Episcopal church will attend the funeral services.

Hopes are gone, hearts are bleeding,
Drear the fateside now alone,
She the best loved and the dearest,
Far away to heaven has flown.

She has gone, but not forgotten,
Never shall her memory fade.
Pleasant thoughts will ever linger
Round the grave where she is laid.

Williamstown.

The weather for the past week has been very favorable for farming, and all the men are busily engaged putting in the crops.

House cleaning and quilting is the chief order of the day among the ladies.

Mrs Gusta Jamieson gave a quilting party to the popular young ladies of Pioneer, and all report a swell time.

A large number from this place and Lakeville attended the Canadian Jubilee Singers Concert at Centreville last week. Some of the young people did not come back the same way they went, but in some cases we do not know if the change was for better or for worse.

Mrs Lydia Savage of Lakeville has sold her farm to Harry Carvell, jr, and she is now visiting friends in Hodgden, Me.

Mrs Wm Armstrong was on the sick list last week, and her mother, Mrs Currie of Richmond, has been spending the last few days with her.

Our school is progressing rapidly under the management of Mr Blair Hoar. We do not know if he intends teaching here the next term or not, but if the attraction at or near W W's store (or residence) still increases we think he will remain with us.

Miss Maria Barrett has returned to Mr Wm Pages for the summer.

Eldon Waters is now working on his farm.

Sadie Jamieson, who has been very poorly, we are glad to hear, is now slowly improving, and was able to be out walking last Sunday.

John Gilliland is still under the care of Dr Bearisto of Lakeville.

Frank Armstrong has sold his little bay driver, and I suppose after this he and Lena will have to walk, but cheer up Lena, the roads are fine.

Our gay young widower has returned from another trip to Granite Hill, York Co. The next time he goes he had better bring the bird home with him, and save travelling expenses.

After this George you had better try and get a hustle on and come in time for church, or you may possibly get left.

Miss Cecil Wilson, who is attending school at Florenceville was home for a few days. What makes Lakeville so attractive lately, Cecil?

Mr Ganong held a S S Convention at Lakeville on May 6th, which was largely attended, and especially in the evening.

Mr Gilford Kennedy is employed at Wm Page's for the summer, and Mr Chas Stoddart at Wm McWade's.

We are glad to see some of the young people of Lakeville patronizing the suburbs of the town, by taking some very pleasant walks, especially on Sunday evening.

Some people did not get home from church Sunday evening, until Monday. I wonder why.

The S S at Williamstown church was opened last Sunday for the summer, and we hope to see a flourishing school in the future.

Hark, we hear wedding bells ringing in the near future. JACK.

The May Rod and Gun.

Variety is the dominating feature of the May number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W J Taylor, Woodstock, Ont. In accord with the season there are some good fishing stories, while hunting receives such a full share of attention that moose, deer, bear, wolves and wild geese all have particular stories given up to them. Two fine exploration papers—an illustrated review of Mr Tyrrell's book, "Through the sub-Arctic of Canada," and one by Mr Dickson describing a personal trip through Northern Ontario—give us some little idea of how much remains to be done in exploration work in Canada.

Mr Clapham has another fine dog article, "The Beagle for Sport," which all dog-lovers will peruse with interest. The decision of the Ontario Government to have licensed guides is noted and the Order-in-Council dealing with the matter printed in full. Mr Cy Warman's paper on Wild Life appeals to every lover of the outdoors and cannot fail to have some effect in the direction the author wishes. This number completes the tenth volume and attention is drawn to the work of the magazine in Forest, Fish and Game Protection and the manner in which the movement in its favor has spread throughout Canada. The position achieved by the magazine is dwelt upon with pride and credit given to all those who have assisted Canada's sporting magazine to reach its present high position. If future numbers are as good as this birthday issue—and we are assured that not only will the high standing be kept up but efforts made to improve upon it—there can be no doubt at all as to the future of Rod and Gun. The magazine has now secured for itself a position not easily to be shaken.

Any person who drinks 25c tea and once tastes 30c "Salada" will see that it is not only finer in flavor, but that, as one pound makes many more cups, it is economical to use.
