Locals.

BORN—To the wife of Ernest Benn, Debec a son.

BORN—To the wife of A Dunbar jr, a daughter.

Miss Alice Tracy, Richmond, was in town on Thursday.

Mr Hanford Jameison, Williamstown gave this office a pleasant visit last Friday.

Miss Bessie Stokes returned from Andover on Friday last.

Mr and Mrs W Roy McLaughlan are expected home on the noon train from St John, today.

F R Carvell M P and W P Jones went to Andover to attend the trial of Pauli the Italian murderer.

The Editor is in receipt of tickets to attend the Charlotte County Fair held at St Stephen.

Mr Godfrey Newnham has been confined to the house this week from the effects of a heavy cold.

Mrs Charles McCluskey and Mrs John Conlough, Houlton, and Miss Katie Cannon, Bangor, spent Thursday in town.

Miss Helen Watson leaves on Monday for Malden, Mass, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs Jack Sylvester.

The Fair which was to be held in St Stephen the first of the week has been postponed for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, on account of the heavy rains.

The regular meeting of Brunswick Rebekah Lodge will be held this (Friday) night. A full attendance is requested as there is important business to be transacted.

Miss McCafferty will open a stock of millinery, trimmed and untrimmed hats, next week. The very latest modes ordered by her agents from New York and Paris. Don't fail to be at the opening.

On account of the failure of the lights Wednesday night, the Bijou Theatre did not open. They were open last night however and will run continuously.

The feature piece for to-night is: A Royal Outcast, The Poets Vision, The Troopers Bride, The Faded Lily, Her First Biscuits. Miss O'Brien will sing "I never knew what love was till I met you." Mr Reynolds will sing "Honey Land."

Our Formal Fall Opening of New Millinery occurs Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct 5th, 6th and 7th. It is with pleasure that we extend this invitation to our Formal Opening Exhibit of the newest and most approved modes in Autumn Millinery.

The whole panorama of Fall Fashions stands revealed in our Millinery parlors. The showing is representative and authentic in the broadest and strictest sense, and to view it is to know the "what is" in Millinery for the new season.

No need to urge attendance on this Opening Exhibit—for where's the woman who's not interested therein? The hat is the crowning glory of a costume, and all femininity is anxious to see the wonderful new conjuring of Boston and New York designers.

So come to our Opening and enjoy the inspection of this towns most beautiful and complete showing of Autumn Millinery. Miss Estey's Millinery Parlors, Queen St.

Mrs Archie Connell was hostess at a delightful tea on Thursday afternoon given in honor of her guest, Mrs I Benson of Picton, Ontario. She was assisted in serving by Miss Hattie Gabel, Miss Bessie Neales and Miss Lucy McLean.
