WOODSTOCK'S PRIVATE HOSPITAL.

One of Woodstock's enterprises is represented by the above cut, which shows the private hospital owned and operated by Dr. Prescott. This hospital is finely situated on the main business thoroughfare of the town, on the upper part of main street. From its windows can be seen both up and down the river and the hills back of Grafton. There are two entrances, one leading into the office of the doctor which is apart from the main building. The other leading into a spacious veranda where the doctor has fitted up a snug place for his patients to get a sun bath. As one enters the hospital he notes a large cabinet like machine which proves to be a Static Machine for electrical treatment and X Ray work. This machine is one of the best that is manufactured by Van Houten of New York. There are accommodations for twenty-five patients and each ward is well ventilated and free from drafts. The whole building is heated by hot water and an even temperature can be maintained throughout the entire 24 hours. Each ward is situated so that patients will have the utmost privacy if required.

The operating room is complete, with all the very latest instruments required by the surgeon. Waiting rooms are there for patient's friends and from the windows of every room an excellent view can be obtained. The hospital is electrically lighted and an electric elevator is about to be installed for patients to reach one floor from the other. It was the pleasure of the "Sentinel's" reporter to be shown through the building for which he wishes to thank the doctor for the courtesy shown him. Any information required by the public will be cheerfully furnished by the doctor.

Good Corner.

Mrs Henry Good is expected home next Saturday after having made a two weeks visit with her sister in New York, N. Y. Miss Grace Porter is caring for Mrs Good's home during her absence. Miss Eva McCullough, teacher at this place made a visit to her home in York County, during the Thanksgiving holidays. All of our citizens who attended the session of supreme court in town last week, returned sober, showing Woodstock to be a dry town, or our men to be temperate.

Potatoes are rotting in the cellar at their leisure. They look as though they intend to complete the job about Christmas.

J A Good has purchased a new horse and is now operating his gang plow with three horses.

W J Nichols, our most energetic and prosperous farmer, is about to remove to Aroostook Co., Maine. At present he is plowing up there on his new farm.

Dr Peppers of Centerville purchased a thoroughbred Durham cow from W J Nichols last week.

While sitting down quietly to write these items, a young lady, breathless, and hair flying about her ears burst suddenly into my room, with a small 22 Winchester in her hand, her appearance was evidently that of fright, but she managed to tell me (between gasps) that she was hunting in the vicinity of Marvin Lake, and had been chased back by an angry bull moose. I grabbed my heavy rifle and rattling fifteen cartridges into the magazine I started for the spot indicated to meet the infuriated beast, for a man always likes to put on a show of bravery when the ladies are around. My wife made some inquiry as to whether my last payment had been made on my insurance policy, but my mind was bent on a liberal hunk of moose steak for breakfast. Cautiously I advanced when nearing the spot, with my rifle at full cock and my fingers in the repeating lever. Soon a terrible roar told me the monster was only a few yards in front. Raising my trusty Winchester and peering through the bushes to take sure and dead aim, I saw through the peep sight my own Jersey bull caught by his chain in the bushes. I set him free and made careful examination of the path on my return. I found seven hairpins, two sidecombs, a hair bow, and five yards of hamburger. I also measured her jumps, by her tracks, at the brook, being 14 feet 2½ inches. She's not much afraid of a grizzly bear. She cares much less for a man; But how she will scream at the sight of a Moose, Is the part that I can't understand.

Kirkland

We are having very rainy weather lately, the roads are very muddy. Our teacher, Miss Clark with her friend Lillian Slater is spending her Thanksgiving with relatives in Lansdowne.

Mrs James H McNeil is visiting her friends in Boston.

Mr and Mrs John Graham of Maxwell have been to Woodstock on a business trip.

Little Elsie Anderson is not any better, two doctors have been attending her.

Herb Jamieson, customs officer, was in this place quite recently.

Ocean Limited Made to Pay Her Way.

Ottawa, Oct 21—For the first six months of the fiscal year an increase of $100,000 is reported in the gross earnings of the Intercolonial Railway. It is also shown that the Ocean Limited service has been operated on a paying basis.

Miss Della Haines and Miss Nellie Reynolds, Middle Hainsville, spent Thanksgiving with Mamie Haines at Mrs G S McLaughlin's.

A O H Supper.

The A O H and good times are proverbial. Last Monday, Thanksgiving evening the A O H held a supper and good time in the Armory. The band played for the entertainment which, although was not the success financially as was expected it would be, owing to the inclemency of the weather, proved very entertaining to those who braved the elements and attended. The supper was delicious as their suppers always are, there being no stinting of the good things. The games and guessing contests were carried on with a vim.

The prizes winners were Bagatelle in charge of Doonan Swift, won by Fleet Jones, pack cards, Miss Gertie McMapus scissors.

Bowling, in charge of Alex Beaton, won by Arthur Glidden, box cigars.

Guess Pole, in charge of M McManus and Freddie Kelly, height 34 ft 8 inches Rev F J McMurray and J H Thompson who guessed 34ft 6 inches, won by former.

Lottery, centre piece, in charge of Misses Thibedeau, and Mary Fewer, won by Miss Caldwell.

Bean Toss, Umbrella, in charge of John Thibedeau, Jr. won by Earnest Ryan.

Rifle, Umbrella, in charge of William Keys tied with 31 by F B Carvell and Hughie Judge.

There were Candy Booths, Dolls, Put out the Light, Wheel of Fortune, etc, etc.

East Newbridge.

The weather in this section is becoming much colder now and most of the farmers are preparing for winter.

David McFadden who is now in the employ of Mr Owen McCarty, is doing splendid work turning the sod.

The Misses Tilley Campbell and Katie Mulheron, St Thomas, are the guests of their friends the Misses McDade.

The Misses Gertrude McGuire and Clara McCarty, spent a short and pleasant visit at the farmers home in Newburg, a short time ago.

Harold McCarty has taken his exodus for the woods where he intends to spend the greater part of the winter.

We are glad to learn that Mrs H Price has fully recovered from her recent attack of illness.

Murray Gallagher, Danville, made a flying trip to this place a short time ago. Happy Autumn thou art going.

And we loath to say farewell; For pleasant were the long bright hours That were spent in field and dell.

SOME ONE.

Italian Shot and Stabbed.

Port Arthur, Ont 26—(Special)—Refusing to give the names of men who shot and stabbed him, Paffel Skutne, an Italian lies between life and death with two bullets in his neck and a large knife wound under his right ear.

The shooting and stabbing followed a Thanksgiving Day row in an Italian boarding house. The boarding master George Giovannizzi and his cousin Mike Giovannizzi, have been detained by the police. The wounded man was in a Black Hand trouble last winter.

Better Train Service.

As soon as the winter time table of the C P R became public, Mr Carvell took up the matter of better service with the General-Superintendent at St John and, after considerable correspondence, received the following letter, which speaks for itself and which, we think, will give a better service than we have ever had heretofore during the winter season:—

F B CARVELL, K. C., M. P.,
Woodstock, N B

DEAR MR CARVELL:—I enclose copy of circular we are issuing with reference to carrying passengers on freight trains between Aroostook Junction and Woodstock, for your information.

I am having this posted up at each station. I feel satisfied that these trains will give the people between Woodstock and Aroostook Jct. a better service than they had last winter and while I state that these trains are subject to cancellation it is not my intention that they should be cancelled except in cases of the utmost emergency and this only for a trip. We will keep the trains as near this schedule as possible.

I cannot very well publish a new time table as it means reissuing the whole Atlantic Division table, which would take some time and considerable money. If later you find that this arrangement is not working satisfactorily, if you will call my attention to it, I will see if something further can be done, but I hope that you will not find this necessary.

Yours truly,
WM. DOWNIE.

Eighty Thousand Immigrants Landed Since May.

Immigration from the United Kingdom and other European countries still maintains an average of about three thousand five hundred a week. The Canadian Pacific officials estimate that since May 1 over 80,000 immigrants have landed in Canada about 40 per cent. more than last year's figures represent, and more than the total has been since it was found necessary to impose restrictions insisting that new arrivals should have at least twenty dollars in their possession after all expenses incidental to the voyage and railway journey and making the strictest kind of medical examination compulsory.

While the volume of immigration is large the quantity is better than it has ever been—the men and women measuring up better economically as well as physically. The percentage that proves a burden to the authorities later on is practically nil.

The heaviest immigration month was in May, when 18,000 landed here, but each of the succeeding months brought about 15,000, while September's record was 16,000. In the first fortnight in October the figures were 7,000, and this week the principal steamers are bringing from 500 to 800 each. Notwithstanding the continuity of a strong current to supply the demand for labor continues very great.
