Jeffries And Johnson Likely Meet Tomorrow

New York, Oct 27—The report telegraphed from California last night that N S Needham, of Coalinga, had offered $100,000 for the forthcoming Jeffries and Johnson fight, found no confirmation here today. At the Jeffries headquarters, Sam Berger, speaking for the fighter, was inclined to cast doubt upon the story.

"No telegram or communication of any kind has been received from Mr Needham or any one from Coalinga or elsewhere offering $100,000 for the fight. We would be pleased to consider such an offer, but it has not been made, said Berger.

Jeffries himself laughed at the story and said: "Perhaps the wires got crossed."

The big fellow was out early this morning and took a brisk walk through Central park and up Riverside drive. Some time this afternoon he is to pay a second visit to the surgeon who removed an obstruction to the right nostril yesterday, to have his left nostril cleared in similar fashion.

Berger would not comment on Johnson's telegram asking for an appointment with Jeffries here tomorrow, further than to say that the two men would probably meet tomorrow night.

San Francisco, Oct 27—It is reported here today that for several months past Sam Berger, manager of James J Jeffries, and Isadore Golden, one of the justices of the peace in San Francisco, have been collaborating on a play in which the heavyweight champion of the world is to appear shortly. The character of the play could not be learned, but it is understood it is along the lines of "Davy Crockett," in which Jeffries starred at the time he was champion and still active in the pugilistic game.

It is said that the production of the two San Franciscans has been submitted to a playwright for consideration and any necessary criticism and that an announcement will soon be made in the east. It is understood that Jeffries will not wait for a fight with Johnson but will go on the stage as soon as possible.
